RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT ON THE FOREST ADMINISTRATION IN THE PRESIDENCY OF BENGAL FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31ST MARCH 1927.

CALCUTTA, THE 14TH JANUARY, 1928.

RESOLUTION—No. 626 FOR.

READ—

The Annual Progress Report on the Forest Administration in the Presidency of Bengal for the year ending 31st March, 1927.

READ ALSO—

The reports of the previous three years and the Government resolutions thereon.

Mr. J. Homfray acted as Conservator for 6½ months; during the rest of the year, Mr. Shebbeare held charge. Mr. Shebbeare has prefixed an interesting foreword to the report illustrated by a chart, showing how the revenue from forests has been steadily increasing. While in 1883-84 the difference between expenditure and revenue was Rs. 3·60 lakhs and in 1917-18 Rs. 7·30 lakhs, since then it has mounted rapidly and in the year under report it was Rs. 14·10 lakhs. The results are very satisfactory, considering that the figures for expenditure include all capital and exceptional expenditure.

The importance of the foreword, however, lies in the explanation given of the present policy of the Department in connection with the improvement of the forests. Owing to the mixture of species of varying qualities and uses, the forests of Bengal in their natural state, as they came under the control of the Forest Department originally, were very uneconomical and difficult to work. Great improvements have resulted from creeper cutting, measures for fire protection, and the like, but even now the forests which contain a large proportion of the most valuable species like sal are not worth more than Rs. 1,000 an acre. The standing trees in the mixed forests of Jalpaiguri are not worth more than Rs. 55 an acre, and in the hill forests of Darjeeling and Kurseong they are not worth more than Rs. 320 an acre. The idea of the Forest Department is to clear fell every year 1/80th or 1/40th of each forest according as the trees selected as suitable are slow-growing or fast-growing, and to plant one kind of tree at economical intervals. It is estimated that the plantations which have been made during the last 10 years or so in the northern divisions and in Chittagong will be worth Rs. 7,000 an acre after 80 years in the case of sal and teak and Rs. 2,360 after 40 years in the case of the faster growing species. The young trees are grown in nurseries and put out in the plantations by the settlers in forest villages, who cultivate their own crops for one or two years in the cleared areas and in return for this concession, free of rent, look after the young trees. The cost works out at Rs. 25 an acre roughly, and this amount with compound interest is recovered from the sale of thinnings during the first 15 or 20 years in the life of the plantation. If this policy can be followed continuously and sufficient labour on the same terms is available, the value of the forests of Bengal will have increased from 7 times to 40 times in the course of the next three generations, even if there is no increase in the present value of the different kinds of forest produce. If the growth of bamboos can be developed on similar lines in the less accessible forests, the increase in value will be even more striking.

Area.—There was no material change in the area of reserved and protected forests during the year. Proposals for modifications in the boundaries of the reserved forest in Chittagong and Khulna were delayed and Government could not accept the original proposals for reservation in the Sundarbans of the 24 Parganas. Including the unclassified and other forests, the total area under the control of the Forest Department was 10 601 square miles.

Natural calamities.—A heavy cyclone passed over the southern portion of the Cox's Bazar subdivision in May, 1926, and for some time disorganised the work in that area. The river Teesta flooded the Chengmari forest and killed some sal trees (shorea robusta) in this area. The rivers Mechi, Teesta and Hasimara caused some damage by erosion. The river Sankos has returned to its old bed and the Bholka forest is now safe.

Working plans.—The revised working plans for the Jalpaiguri and Buxa Divisions were under compilation, and the revision of the Kurseong and Sundarbans working plans were taken up in the latter part of the year.

The full programme of regeneration could not be carried out, but 1,994 acres were taken up during the year, against 1,511 in the preceding year.

Utilisation.—The saw mills at Sukna and Toong are working satisfactorily. A band mill was started at Siliguri in April, 1926, and is doing good work. The largest demand of sawn timber was from the Eastern Bengal Railway and also from the tea gardens.

Khedda.—Departmental khedda operations in the Bengal Bhutan Mahal were not very successful and only resulted in a profit of Rs. 2,319. With some departmental help, 59 elephants were caught by contractors in the Chittagong, Chittagong Hill Tracts and the Cox's Bazar Divisions, but 13 of them died.

Outturn: revenue and expenditure.—The steady increase in outturn as well as revenue was maintained. The receipts increased from Rs. 28,56,428 in the previous year to Rs. 31,23,841. The total expenditure was Rs. 17,12,954. This included Rs. 3,22,682 spent on capital outlay, and Rs. 6,21,163, spent on conservancy and works. The balance was establishment. The construction of roads and bridges is so necessary for the expansion of the activities of the department that the increased grant which was allowed for this purpose in the year under report was much appreciated by all Forest Officers. The most important road constructed during the year was the Manibhanjang Cart Road in Darjeeling, which is calculated to be of great service to traders from Tibet and to the local people as well as to the Department. Its completion at a reasonable cost in the face of considerable engineering difficulties is a credit to the department. Seventy miles of paths were made in the Chittagong Hill Tracts. An aeroplane survey of a portion of the reserved forests in the Chittagong Division was completed during the year at a cost of Rs. 50,000.

The thanks of the Governor in Council are due to Messrs. Shebbeare and Homfray for their successful administration of the department. His Excellency in Council also notices with pleasure the record of good work done by the other officers of the Department referred to in the report.

ORDER.—Ordered that the above resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

ORDERED ALSO that a copy of the above resolution be forwarded to the Conservator of Forests, Bengal, for information.

By order of the Governor in Council,

F. A. SACHSE.

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

CHAS. A. BENTLEY, M.B., D.P.H., D.T.M. & H., Director of Public Health, Bengal.

Calcutta, the 26th January 1928.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 25th January 1928.

Summary.—During the week light and scattered showers fell over the greater part of the Presidency. Harvesting of winter paddy is over; threshing is going on. Gathering of mustard, kalai and other early spring crops and cultivation of summer rice continue favourably. The standing spring crops are doing fairly well except in parts of West and North Bengal, where the condition continues to be reported as poor. The recent rain is likely to improve the prospects. Preparatory tillage for jute and other autumn crops is progressing in Eastern Bengal districts. Distress continues to prevail in parts of Birbhum, Bankura, Dinajpur, Nadia, Murshidabad and Malda. In the latter three districts the number of persons employed on test relief works was 1,158, 12,194, and 1,100, respectively. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 0·40 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

(11 stipends).	612 "

The above will leave a surplus of Rs. 7-8 per annum which shall be accumulated and when the accumulated amount reaches the figure Rs. 60, this amount (Rs. 60) shall be applied as an additional stipend of Rs. 5 per mensem for 12 months commencing as soon after such accumulation as may be convenient.

6. Each stipend shall be awarded for twelve months only, such 12 months to begin in such month in each case as the administrator shall decide, but not later than three months after the respective recipient has been finally ascertained in manner hereinafter provided.

7. Recipients of the stipends shall be selected as hereinafter provided, but shall always be subject to the approval and decision of the successor in title of the Maharaja Tagore, provided always that every selection shall be notified to the Maharaja Tagore for the time being as soon as conveniently possible and if not objected to by the Maharaja within three months after being notified to him any selected recipient shall be deemed to be approved and ascertained. If the Maharaja for the time being shall be a minor under the age of 18 years or if his approval cannot be obtained by reason of his ill health, absence or for any other reason the approval shall be given by the Chief Manager for the being of the Tagore Raj or failing him by the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, for the time being.

8. Recipients of stipends shall be selected from among adhyapakas or teachers of such candidates as shall pass the undermentioned examinations, excluding those teachers who obtain any similar stipends granted by the Government of Bengal for encouragement of teachers of Sanskrit. The examinations referred to are those set by the Sanskrit Association, Calcutta, and held or conducted by various Sanskrit Associations recognised under the rules prescribed by resolution of the Government of Bengal, No. 857, dated the 21st March 1892, and notification No. 4236, dated the 29th December 1896, and notification No. 1409, dated the 31st March 1898, or the other rules for the time being in force in connection therewith. Preference shall be given to teachers at those cols whose students are examined before the Calcutta Pandit Sabha.

This scheme shall be applicable to both the first and the second examinations set by the Sanskrit Association yearly.

The number of stipends to be awarded shall be as follows :—

(a) On the results of the first examination in each year—

Four stipends of Rs. 4 each per mensem.
One stipend of Rs. 3 per mensem.

(b) On the results of the second examination in each year—

Two stipends of Rs. 6 each per mensem.
Four stipends of Rs. 5 each per mensem.

When the additional stipend of Rs. 5 per mensem referred to in clause 5 above becomes available, it shall be awardable as if there had been five stipends of Rs. 5 each per mensem provided for on results of the second examination next following.

9. Stipends shall ordinarily be awarded as follows. The marks obtained by the passed candidates from each indigenous tol in the said province (preference being given to those tols whose candidates are examined before the Calcutta Pandit Sabha) shall be added together. Stipends shall be awarded to those teachers whose tols show the highest aggregates of marks, and as between the successful teachers those with the higher aggregates shall ordinarily receive the more valuable stipends for the respective examinations. In the case of a "tie" or equality of marks for two teachers in respect of the last stipend such stipend shall be divided between them. But the Maharaja Tagore or his Chief Manager or failing them the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal (as the case may be) may nevertheless disapprove of any so selected and may finally approve any other teacher from any other tol at his discretion. If there be more than one teacher at any of the qualified tols, each one shall be eligible for a stipend. If there shall not be sufficient approved teachers at tols whose candidates appear before the Calcutta Pandit Sabha, then teachers from other tols chosen by the administrator (subject to the approval of the Maharaja Tagore for the time being as aforesaid or in default by the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, as aforesaid) shall become eligible and be selected in like manner.

10. A teacher may not hold more than one stipend at a time, but if he shall become eligible for two or more stipends he shall ordinarily be given the higher stipend. If any teacher receiving a stipend under this scheme comes into receipt of a Government stipend he shall cease to receive a stipend under this scheme as from the first month in which he receives a Government stipend.

11. If a recipient shall die during the 12 months in which he is to receive a stipend the balance of his stipend (after the month in which his death occurs) shall be accumulated and applied as if it were accumulations of the annual surplus of Rs. 7-8 hereinbefore provided for or at the discretion of the administrator and with the approval of the Maharaja or his Chief Manager or failing them the Director of Public Instruction (as the case may be) in manner aforesaid may be awarded to any meritorious student as undermentioned.

12. In the event of any stipend to teachers as aforesaid not being awarded whether on account of absence of eligible teachers or for any other reason, the moneys so left unawarded may be applied in giving stipends to meritorious passed candidates at the said examinations, preference being given in the first instance to candidates appearing before the Calcutta Pandit Sabha, and in the ordinary course those who obtain most marks shall be considered most meritorious, but selection shall be in the discretion of the administrator, subject to such approval of the Maharaja or his Chief Manager or failing them the Director of Public Instruction as aforesaid.

13. In the event of any case arising regarding the administration of this Endowment which is not provided for by this scheme, the administrator shall take action as may be decided in consultation by him with the Maharaja Tagore for the time being or if he is not available then with the Director of Public Instruction for the time being.

INDIAN SERVICE OF ENGINEERS.Regulations as to appointment of Assistant Executive Engineers in 1928.

[The Secretary of State is unable to give any undertaking that the Regulations will remain unaltered in the future.]

1. Until further notice the Secretary of State for India in Council will, during each year, make a number of appointments of Assistant Executive Engineers in the Public Works Department in India.

In making these appointments he will act with the advice of a Selection Committee, including at least one eminent representative of the Engineering profession.

In 1928 it is intended that nine* appointments shall be made.

The Selection Committee will probably sit in May.

2. Applications must be made on a printed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary, Services and General Department, India Office, Whitehall, S. W. 1, and should reach the India Office not later than 1st April 1928.

3. Candidates must have attained the age of 21 and not attained the age of 24 years on the 1st January 1928.

4. Except as stated in the note on paragraph 1 hereof every candidate must be a European British subject of non-Asiatic domicile, and if he or his father or his mother was not born within His Majesty's Dominions and allegiance, the father must at the time of the candidate's birth have been a British subject and still be (or have continued to be until his death) a British subject. The decision of the Secretary of State in Council whether a candidate satisfies these conditions shall be final. A candidate must also be of good moral character and sound bodily health and, in the opinion of the Secretary of State for India in Council, in all respects suitable to hold an appointment in the Indian Public Works Department.

5. Candidates must produce evidence that they have either (1) obtained one of the University degrees mentioned in Appendix I; or (2) passed sections A and B of the A.M.I.C.E. examination; or (3) passed the Associateship in Civil Engineering of the City and Guilds Institute (Imperial College of Science and Technology, South Kensington); or (4) obtained such other diploma or distinction in Engineering as the Secretary of State may decide to accept in any particular case. It is preferred that candidates should have taken a college course and obtained one of the degrees mentioned in Appendix I. They must in addition have had at least one full year's practical experience of Civil Engineering under a qualified civil engineer at the time when they appear before the Selection Committee.† Those whose qualifying diploma has been obtained without a college course should have had a full three years of such practical experience.

6. Selected candidates will be required to undergo further training on works in India for a period of at least one year. During this period they will be on probation and their final appointment will be made dependent upon the result of such probation.

7. Candidates must be prepared, if called upon, to attend at the India Office, at their own expense, for a personal interview with the Selection Committee.

8. Selected candidates will further be required, before final appointment by the Secretary of State in Council, to appear, at their own expense, before the Medical Board at the India Office for examination as to their physical fitness for service in India.

* Of these nine appointments, one will be allotted to a Burman candidate if one presents himself and is found qualified. Such a candidate, if selected, will be appointed to the India-recruited Branch of the Department in Burma on the usual terms and conditions applicable to that Branch. Separate Regulations showing the terms applicable to this appointment will be issued to Burman candidates on application.

† Applications will be accepted provisionally this year from candidates who will be able to complete the year's practical experience by 31st August 1928.

*9. They will also be required to satisfy the Secretary of State of their ability to ride.

10. They will on appointment be provided with a free first-class passage to India and will be expected to proceed thither about the middle of September in the year in which they are appointed.

They will be entitled to the benefits of the Passage Rules which are summarised in Appendix V.

11. Their pay and their service for leave will begin from the date of their landing in India, subject to their proceeding immediately to join their appointments. If they so desire, they will be able to obtain an advance of two months' pay, recoverable by monthly instalments of one-third of salary. Of this advance a portion not exceeding one-half may be drawn in England.

12. Candidates will enter the service as Assistant Executive Engineers on a salary, including overseas pay, of Rs. 6,300 a year. Service for increments and for pension will count from the date of landing in India (subject as aforesaid) or from the 1st October of the year of appointment, whichever is earlier.

13. The instruments required by Assistant Executive Engineers are supplied to them in India.

14. Particulars as to pay, pension, etc., are contained in Appendices III, IV, and V.

Promotions above the grade of Executive Engineer are dependent on the occurrence of vacancies in the sanctioned establishment, and are made wholly by selection; mere seniority is considered to confer no claim to promotion.

APPENDIX IV.

(See paragraph 14 of the Regulations.)

NOTE.—This appendix is merely intended to show the principal leave rules in the Fundamental Rules and the Pension Rules at present applicable to Engineers appointed to the Indian Services from the United Kingdom without going into minute details, and does not profess to deal with every case that may arise. The rules are subject to alteration, and any disputed question must be decided with reference to the authorised text of the Fundamental Rules or Civil Service Regulations for the time being.

LEAVE.

(The following rules apply only to officers of non-Asiatic domicile.)

1. Leave is calculated in terms of "leave on average pay," and the amount of "leave on average pay" which an officer earns is five-twenty-seconds of the period spent on duty.

2. Subject to certain maxima and minima and to the limitations noted below, an officer may draw, at his option, leave salary equal to the average pay of the last 12 months of completed duty or to half such average pay. All leave on average pay and half the period on half average pay is counted against the leave earned. An officer may take his leave on average pay, on half average pay, or on a combination of the two, provided that his continuous absence from duty does not exceed 28 months, and that the amount of leave taken on average pay does not exceed eight months at any one time. The maximum amount of leave admissible during an officer's career, expressed in terms of leave on average pay, is three years plus one-eleventh of the period spent on duty, of which not more than one year plus one-eleventh of the period spent on duty may actually consist of leave on average pay. Leave not due and carrying half average pay may be granted on medical certificate, and, within certain limits, for other reasons, but an officer will not again commence to earn leave until the expiration of a fresh period of duty sufficient to earn a credit of leave equal to the leave he has taken before it was due. After 28 months' absence from duty an officer draws quarter average salary, subject to certain maxima and minima.

3. Leave salary is ordinarily payable in rupees if the officer spends his leave in Asia, and in sterling if he spends it elsewhere.

4. It should be noted that leave can never be claimed as of right, but is given or refused at the discretion of Government.

PENSIONS.

5. The following is a summary of the pension rules applicable to Engineers appointed to the Indian Services by the Secretary of State from the United Kingdom.

Ordinary Pensions.

6. Subject to the absolute right, which will not ordinarily be exercised, of the Government of India to decline to permit any officer to retire before reaching the age for superannuation, should it be necessary in the public interest to retain his services, officers will be allowed to retire optionally after twenty or more years' qualifying service.

7. An officer is entitled to superannuation pension on attaining the age of fifty-five years, when retirement is ordinarily required, or on retirement thereafter. (An officer is sometimes, for special reasons, retained after attaining the age of fifty-five years.)

8. The rates of retiring and superannuation pension are $\frac{1}{60}$ ths of average emoluments, subject to the following maxima:—

Completed years of qualifying service.				Maximum limit of pension.
				Rs.
20—24 1,000 per annum.
25 6,000 "
26 6,200 "
27 6,400 "
28 6,600 "
30 7,000 "

9. Government may retire any officer after he has completed 25 years' service without giving reasons, and without any claim for compensation in addition to pension, and in that event the pension admissible to him will ordinarily be regulated on a scale not exceeding that laid down above. Government also reserves the general power to reduce the pension ordinarily admissible in all cases where an officer's service has been unsatisfactory.

10. An officer who is compelled to retire through ill-health not occasioned by irregular or intemperate habits will be eligible for invalid gratuity or pension as follows:—

(a) After qualifying service of less than 7 years a gratuity not exceeding one month's emoluments for each completed year of service (except in special cases and under the orders of the Government of India, who may sanction a maximum of 12 months' emoluments). If the emoluments of the officer have been reduced during the last three years of his service, otherwise than as a penalty, average emoluments may, at the discretion of the authority which has power to sanction the gratuity, be substituted for emoluments.

(b) After a service of not less than 7 years, a pension not exceeding the following amounts:—

Completed years of qualifying Service.		Scale of Pension.	Maximum.
7	7	sixtieths of average emoluments	2,000 per annum.
8	8	" "	2,350 "
9	9	" "	2,700 "

19	19	" "	4,800 "
20	20	" "	5,000 "
21	21	" "	5,200 "

Completed years of qualifying Service.	Scale of Pension.		Maximum.
22	22 sixtieths of average emoluments		5,400 per annum.

24	24 " "		5,800 "
25	30 " "		6,000 "
26	30 " "		6,200 "
27	30 " "		6,400 "
28	30 " "		6,600 "
29	30 " "		6,800 "
30 and above	30 " "		7,000 "

Average emoluments are calculated over the last three years of service.

Pensions drawn in this country are converted into sterling at a privileged rate of exchange of 1s. 9d. the rupee.

Additional Pensions.

11. The Government of India have classified certain high appointments into two grades, the lower comprising those posts which involve high but intermediate responsibility, the higher consisting of those which require a marked degree of independent administrative and professional capacity. Officers who have held appointments listed in the lower grade may be granted an additional pension at the rate of Rs. 300 for each completed year of effective service in any appointment included in that grade, provided that no officer may draw an additional pension in excess of Rs. 1,500 in respect of service classed in the lower grade. Officers who have held appointments listed in the upper grade may be granted an additional pension at the rate of Rs. 500 for each completed year of effective service rendered in any appointment included in that grade, provided that no officer may draw an additional pension in excess of Rs. 2,500 in respect of service rendered in the lower and upper grades combined or in the upper grade alone.

12. These additional pensions will be subject to the condition that the service in the appointment in question has been approved by Government, and that an officer must, in the event of voluntary retirement, have completed 28 years' qualifying service.

The upper grade includes the Consulting Engineer to the Government of India and Chief Engineers of the Indian Service of Engineers.

The lower grade includes Superintending Engineers, Indian Service of Engineers.

PROVIDENT FUND.

13. A General Provident Fund, to which contribution is compulsory, has also been established on the following basis :—

- (1) Contribution is compulsory up to 6½ per cent. of pay, with voluntary contributions of not more than a further 9½ per cent. Contributions during leave of any kind are optional.
- (2) Compound interest on such payments is annually credited by Government to each officer contributing.
- (3) The sum which thus accumulates to the credit of an officer is his absolute property, subject to the rules of the Fund, and is handed over to him, unconditionally, on his quitting the Service; or, in the event of his death before retirement, to his legal representatives or such other person or persons as, under and subject to the rules of the Fund for the time being in force, may be entitled thereto.

APPENDIX V.

PASSAGE RULES.

(The arrangements herein described are subject to the provisions of the authorised text of the rules relating to the grant of Passages.)

The maximum benefits to which an officer will be entitled will be passages of a total value equal to the cost of the number of the passages between Bombay and London by P. and O., 1st Class B, shown below :—

(a) For the officer himself, four return passages.

(b) For his wife, the number of return passages shown in the following scale :—

Officer's length of service at date of marriage.	Number of return passages.

7 years but less than 14 years	...	3
14 years but less than 21 years	...	2
21 years and over	...	1

(c) For each child, one single adult passage.

If an officer dies while in the service, his wife and children will be entitled to receive single passages by sea from a port in India to a port outside India, but not exceeding in each case the cost of a single passage between Bombay and London by P. and O. steamer, 1st Class B.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Final Forecast of the Sugarcane Crop of Bengal, 1927-28.

(NOTE. On an average of the five years ending 1925-26, the area under sugarcane in Bengal has represented some 75 per cent. of the total area under sugarcane in British India.)

Character of the season. As indicated in the previous forecast, the weather was favourable in the early stages of the crop. But the weak monsoons adversely affected it in parts of West and North Bengal. Elsewhere, the weather proved generally beneficial and a satisfactory crop has been reaped for the province, on the whole.

Acreage.—The total area planted is estimated at 208,300 acres this year as against 200,800 acres last year.

Outturn.—According to the estimates of District Officers, the average outturn of the crop for the province works out at 83 per cent. of the normal this year, as against 80 per cent. last year.

Taking 37 maunds as the normal yield of cane gur per acre, the gross outturn for the province is estimated at 235,700 tons this year as against 215,400 tons last year.

Other sources of Gur.—The total quantity of gur likely to be obtained from date-palm juice and others is estimated at 96,500 tons this year, as against 107,900 tons last year.

The quantity of gur for the province from all sources is thus estimated at 332,200 tons this year as against 323,300 tons last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 1st February 1928.

Summary.—During the week the rainfall was generally light and scattered. Preparatory of tillage for jute and other autumn crops is progressing, but more rain is needed for the operation. Threshing of winter paddy, harvesting of early spring crops and cutting and pressing of sugarcane continue under favourable conditions. Prospects of standing crops are generally fair except in parts of West and North Bengal, where the condition continues to be reported as poor. The recent rain has slightly benefited the late spring crops. Distress continues to prevail in parts of Bankura, Dinajpur, Birbhum, Nadia, Murshidabad and Malda. In the latter four districts the number of persons employed on test relief works was 8, 780, 6,655 and 1,200, respectively. The average price of common rice for the province has fallen by about 0·33 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

- (a) a film in respect of which a provisional application for registration has been made may, before registration, be exhibited at a series of public exhibitions held at one theatre only on consecutive days ;
- (b) the prohibition contained in this section shall not apply to a film which has been exhibited in Great Britain before the commencement of this Act.

(2) If any person exhibits a film, or, in the case of a serial film or a series of films, any part thereof, in contravention of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for each day on which the film or part has been so exhibited.

6. (1) The Board of Trade shall keep a register of films to which this Act applies, and shall enter therein such particulars as may be prescribed ; and the register shall specify whether the film is registered as a British film or a foreign film :

Registration of films.

Provided that a film which has been exhibited to exhibitors or to the public in Great Britain before the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, shall not be registered unless the Board of Trade, after consultation with the advisory committee hereinafter mentioned, determine that the registration of the film shall be allowed.

(2) The Board of Trade shall publish weekly in the Board of Trade Journal lists of the films registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) An application to register a film shall be made by or on behalf of the maker or renter of the film, and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee, and by such information as the Board of Trade may require, and in particular, where the application is for the registration of the film as a British film, such information as may be necessary to determine whether the film is a British film.

(4) An application shall not be a valid application unless the film has been trade shown, nor if more than fourteen days have elapsed since it was trade shown :

Provided that—

- (a) a provisional application may be made before a film has been trade shown, and in such case on the film being trade shown within six weeks after the lodging of the provisional application, the provisional application shall as from the date of the trade show become a valid application ;
- (b) an application made more than fourteen days after the film was trade shown may be accepted by the Board as a valid application if satisfied that the delay was due to special circumstances and was not intentional.

(5) On the registration of a film, the Board shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration, and the certificate shall state the length of the film and whether the film is registered as a British film or a foreign film.

7. (1) The register of films kept under this Act shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any person on payment of the prescribed fee, and any person inspecting the register may make copies or extracts from the register.

(2) Any person may on payment of the prescribed fee require to be furnished with a copy of any entry in the register certified to be a true copy by an officer of the Board of Trade appointed to keep the register.

(3) The registration of a film may be proved by the production of a copy of the Board of Trade Journal containing a notification of the registration of the film, or of the certificate of registration, or of a certified copy of the entry in the register relating to the film ; and a certificate purporting to be a certificate of registration or a copy of any entry purporting to be certified as a true copy by such officer as aforesaid shall in all legal proceedings be evidence of the matters stated therein without proof of the signature or authority of the person signing it.

8. (1) If the Board of Trade at any time have reason to believe that the length of a film has been or has become incorrectly registered, or that a film has been incorrectly registered as a British film, they may call for such evidence as they think fit as to the correctness or otherwise of the registration, and if satisfied that the film has been or is incorrectly registered, they shall correct the register and issue an amended certificate of registration.

(2) On the issue of an amended certificate, the former certificate shall cease to have effect except that the Board of Trade may in any particular case allow the film to be counted for the purposes of the provisions of Part III of this Act relating to renters' and exhibitors' quotas as being of the length originally registered, or as a British film, as the case may be.

9. (1) If any person is aggrieved by the refusal of the Board of Trade to register a film or to register a film as a British film, or by a decision of the Board to correct the registration of a film, the matter shall, subject to rules of court, be referred by the Board of Trade to the High Court for determination, and the decision of the Court on any such reference shall be final and no appeal shall lie therefrom to any other court.

(2) Where the person aggrieved is a person whose principal place of business is in Scotland, this section shall apply as if the reference to the High Court were a reference to the Court of Session.

10. If the length of a film is altered to the extent of more than ten per cent. thereof after an application for registration thereof has been lodged or after the registration thereof, it shall be the duty of the maker of the film or, if at the time of the alteration the film has been acquired by a renter, the renter, to send to the Board of Trade notice of the alteration, and if he fails to do so, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

11. (1) On every copy of a registered film there shall be marked in the prescribed manner :—

- (a) the registered number of the film ;
- (b) the person in whose name the film is registered ;
- (c) the registered length of the film ;
- (d) the words "registered as a British film" or "registered as a foreign film" as the case may be :

Provided that it shall not be necessary to comply with the above requirements in respect of any film if, whenever a copy thereof is issued to an exhibitor for exhibition to the public in Great Britain, an invoice containing such particulars as aforesaid is sent by the renter to the exhibitor.

(2) If after copies of a film have been so marked or invoices have been so sent, the registration of the film is corrected in manner provided by this Part of this Act, then

- (a) in the former case, a corresponding alteration shall be made in all copies of the film ; and
- (b) in the latter case, new invoices containing the correct particulars shall be sent.

(3) If any person fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or issues a copy of any registered film incorrectly marked or any invoice containing incorrect particulars, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds in respect of each copy.

12. In the case of a serial film or a series of films, the provisions of this Part of this Act shall apply subject to the following modifications :—
Special provisions as to serial films, etc.

- (i) The separate parts of the film or series of films shall be separately registered and each part shall be treated as a separate film :
- (ii) Where three parts of the film or series have been trade shown, any other part may be registered without having been trade shown and notwithstanding that more than fourteen days have elapsed since the said three parts were trade shown :

Provided that, if the Board are at any time of opinion that it is no longer desirable to dispense with a trade show in the case of the remaining parts of serial films and series of films, they may make an order to that effect, and on the making of the order this paragraph shall cease to apply.

PART III.

PROVISIONS FOR SECURING QUOTA OF BRITISH FILMS.

Renters' quota.

13. (1) In the year commencing on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, and ending on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, and in each of the nine succeeding years, any person engaged in the business of renting registered films to exhibitors for the purpose of public exhibition in Great Britain (hereinafter referred to as a renter) shall acquire for the purposes of such renting a total length of registered British films representing at least such proportion of the total length of all registered films so acquired by him in the year as is specified as respects the year in Part I of the First Schedule to this Act, and such proportion is hereinafter referred to as the renters' quota, and if the films so acquired include both long films (that is to say, films the registered length of which is three thousand feet or upwards) and short films that is to say, films the registered length of which is less than three thousand feet), the requirements of this section must be satisfied as respects the long films so acquired as well as respects all films so acquired.

(2) If in any such year a renter fails to comply with the requirements of this Part of this Act as to the renters' quota, he shall be guilty of an offence, unless such a certificate as is hereinafter mentioned has been issued by the Board of Trade, or unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Court that the reasons for non-compliance were reasons beyond his control.

(3) In this section, "registered British film" means a British film which either at the time of its acquisition by the renter is, or later within the same year becomes, a registered British film ; and "registered film" means a film which either at the date of its acquisition by the renter is, or later within the same year becomes, a registered film.

(4) If a film is not registered at the time of its acquisition by a renter, and is registered after the expiration of the year in which it is so acquired, the film shall, for the purposes of this part of this Act, be treated as if it had been acquired by the renter in the year in which it is registered.

(5) Where a renter has in any such year acquired any registered films and subsequently in the same year his business as a renter, by assignment or will, or on intestacy, or by operation of law, becomes vested in some other licensed renter, that other renter and not the first-mentioned renter shall for the purposes of the provisions of this part of this Act as to the renters' quota be deemed to have acquired the films.

14. Any number of renters, none of whom, or of whom not more than one, during any such year acquires for the purpose of renting to exhibitors more than six long registered films as hereinbefore defined, may, if the Board of Trade consent, combine for the purposes of the provisions of this part of this Act relating to the renters' quota the total length of registered British films so acquired by them in that year and the total length of all registered films so acquired by them in that year, and in such case if the total length of such registered British films bears the proper proportion to the total length of all such registered films, and the total length of such long registered British films bears the proper proportion to the total length of all such long registered films, each renter shall as respects that year be deemed to have satisfied the provisions of this part of this Act as to the renters' quota.

15. Any renter, whose business is limited to the renting of films for exhibition exclusively in a limited geographical area within Great Britain, may for the purposes of his renters' quota count any registered British film for the renting of which in that area he has acquired the exclusive right and which has not been previously exhibited to the public in that area, notwithstanding that the film has been already counted for the purposes of the renters' quota by some other renter, being a renter who has acquired the exclusive right to rent it for exhibition in some other limited area, or in Great Britain exclusive of the first-mentioned area.

16. No British film shall be counted more than once for the purposes of the provisions of this part of this Act with respect to the renters' quota, nor, save as hereinbefore expressly provided shall any British film be counted for the purposes aforesaid by more than one renter :

Provided that, if a renter in any year acquires any old British films and also acquires old foreign films, he shall be entitled to count the old British films for the purposes of the renters' quota—

- (a) if the only films acquired by him during the year are old films ; or
- (b) if he has acquired films other than old films during the year and the requirements of this Part of this Act as to renters' quota would have been satisfied as respects those other films had they been the only films acquired by him during the year.

For the purposes of this proviso, the expression "old," in relation to a film, means acquired by a renter not less than one year after the close of the year in which it was acquired by an other renter.

17. (1) On and after the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, and until the thirty-first day of March, nineteen-hundred and thirty-eight, no person shall carry on the business of renting registered films for exhibition to the public in Great Britain unless he holds a licence for the purpose from the Board of Trade :

Provided that, where an application for such a licence has been made, it shall be lawful for the applicant to carry on such business as aforesaid pending the determination of the application.

(2) No film to which this Act applies shall, during the period aforesaid, be exhibited to the public in Great Britain unless---

- (a) the film has been acquired by the exhibitor from a person entitled to carry on such business as aforesaid ; or
- (b) the exhibitor is himself a person who is entitled to carry on such business as aforesaid and has acquired the film for the purpose of renting it for public exhibition in Great Britain.

(3) If any person carries on such business as aforesaid or exhibits any film in contravention of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for each day during which he so carries on the business or exhibits the film, as the case may be.

18. (1) Every person who at any time during any year ending on the thirty-first day of March was a licensed renter shall furnish to the Board of Trade before the first day of the following May, or such later date as in any particular case the Board of Trade may allow, a return giving such particulars as may be prescribed with respect to the registered films acquired by him during the year in question, in order to enable the Board of Trade to ascertain whether the requirements of this Part of this Act with respect to the renters' quota have been satisfied by him during the year to which the return relates :

Provided that, if any licensed renter in the course of any such year ceases to carry on business as a renter, the return shall be made within one month from the time when he so ceases to carry on the business, unless previously and in the same year his business as a renter has become vested in some other licensed renter.

(2) Every person required to make a return under the last foregoing sub-section shall, before the first day of May in the year following the year in which the return was made, furnish to the Board of Trade a supplementary return relative to the year to which the original return related, giving such particulars as could not have been given in the original return owing to bookings for exhibitions not having been completed.

(3) Any such return as aforesaid may be used for the purpose of ascertaining whether the films entered in the return as having been acquired by the renter making the return were in fact acquired by him for the purpose of renting them to exhibitors for exhibition to the public in Great Britain.

(4) Every licensed renter shall also keep a book and shall as soon as practicable record therein the title, registered number, and registered length of every film acquired by him (distinguishing between British and foreign films), the theatres at which each film has been booked for exhibition and the dates for which such bookings are made, and shall when so required produce the book for inspection by any person authorised in that behalf by the Board of Trade.

Exhibitors' Quota.

19. (1) In the year commencing on the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, and ending on the thirtieth day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, and in each of the nine succeeding years, every person who carries on the business of exhibiting registered films to the public in Great Britain shall exhibit at each theatre during the period in any year during which he so exhibits films at that theatre at least such proportion of registered British films as is mentioned with respect to the year in question in Part II of the First Schedule to this Act, and such proportion is hereinafter referred to as the exhibitors' quota, and, if the films so exhibited include both long films and short films as hereinbefore defined, the requirements of this section must be satisfied as respects the long films so exhibited as well as respects all the films so exhibited.

(2) The proportion of British registered films exhibited during such period as aforesaid at any theatre shall be ascertained by comparing—

(a) the aggregate arrived at by adding together the products of the total number of feet of each registered British film which has been exhibited during the normal hours in the ordinary programme multiplied by the number of times the film has been so exhibited during the said period; and

(b) the aggregate arrived at by adding together the products of the total number of feet of each registered film which has been so exhibited multiplied by the number of times the film has been so exhibited during the said period.

(3) If in any year an exhibitor fails to comply with the requirements of this Part of this Act in respect of any theatre, he shall be guilty of an offence, unless such a certificate as is hereinafter mentioned has been issued by the Board of Trade, or unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Court that the reasons for non-compliance were reasons beyond his control.

20. (1) On and after the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, and until the thirtieth day of September, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, no person shall carry on the business of exhibiting registered films to the public in any theatre unless he holds a licence for the purpose in respect of that theatre from the Board of Trade:

Provided that, where an application for such a licence has been made, it shall be lawful for the applicant to carry on the business in any theatre to which the application relates pending the determination of the application.

(2) If any person carries on such business as aforesaid in contravention of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each day on which he so carries on the business.

21. (1) Every person who at any time during any year ending on the thirtieth day of September was a licensed exhibitor shall furnish to the Board of Trade before the first day of the following November a return giving such particulars as may be prescribed with respect to the registered films exhibited by him in each theatre during the year in question, and the dates and number of times on which they were exhibited, in order to enable the Board of Trade to ascertain whether the requirements of this Part of this Act with respect to the exhibitors' quota have been satisfied by him in respect of the theatre during the year to which the return relates:

Provided that, if any licensed exhibitor in the course of any such year ceases to exhibit at any theatre, the return with respect to that theatre shall be made within one month from the time when he so ceases to exhibit thereat.

(2) Every licensed exhibitor shall also keep in respect of each theatre at which he exhibits films a book, and shall as soon as practicable record therein the title, registered number and registered length of each film exhibited by him at the theatre to the public (distinguishing between British and foreign registered films), the dates of all exhibitions of each film and the number of times of exhibition of each film each day during the normal hours in the ordinary programme, and every such book shall be open to inspection by any person authorised in that behalf by the Board of Trade.

The book relating to any theatre shall be kept at that theatre so long as the exhibitor continues to exhibit thereat.

22. In the case of any exhibitor who in any such year as aforesaid does not exhibit in any one theatre on more than six days nor in more than one theatre at the same time, the provisions of this Part of this Act shall apply subject to the following modifications :—

Provisions as to itinerant exhibitors.

- (a) It shall not be necessary for any such exhibitor to comply with the provisions as to the exhibitors' quota as respects any particular theatre, if, had all the exhibitions given by him in the year been exhibitions at the same theatre, those provisions would have been complied with ;
- (b) It shall not be necessary for the exhibitor to make a return to the Board of Trade after ceasing to exhibit at any particular theatre, or to keep a separate record book in respect of each theatre at which he exhibits ;
- (c) A licence to carry on the business of exhibiting films to the public shall suffice, and it shall not be necessary for the exhibitor to obtain a licence in respect of each theatre at which he exhibits.

General.

23. (1) The Board of Trade shall examine every return furnished to them under this Part of this Act, and for the purpose of such examination may call on the renter or exhibitor making the return for such information and explanations as they may think necessary, and may authorise any person appointed by them for the purpose to examine the record books kept by the renter or exhibitor.

Examination of returns.

(2) Where on submission by the renter or exhibitor or otherwise it appears to the Board of Trade after consultation with the advisory committee hereinafter mentioned in any case where the Board of Trade contemplate the refusal of a certificate that though the requirements of this Part of this Act with respect to the renters' quota or the exhibitors' quota, as the case may be, have not been complied with, the reasons for non-compliance were reasons beyond the control of the renter or exhibitor, they shall issue a certificate to that effect.

24. (1) Any offence of failing to comply with the provisions of this Part of this Act as to the renters' quota or exhibitors' quota may be prosecuted summarily or on indictment, and—

- (a) where the offender is a renter, may, if of opinion that the offence was deliberate, and if the offence is a third offence, order that his licence be revoked and may order that no licence shall be issued to him, or to any person with whom he is financially associated, or to any person who acquires his business, or to any person who took part in the management of his business and was knowingly a party to the offence, for such period in each case as may be specified in the order ;

Provided that, where any such order is made, the order shall not operate so as to prevent the renter carrying out for a period not exceeding six months any obligations under any contract entered into by him before the institution of the proceedings ;

- (b) where the offender is an exhibitor, may, if of opinion that the offence was deliberate, and if the offence is a third offence, order his licence under this Act in respect of the theatre with respect to which the offence was committed to be revoked, and may order that for such period in each case as may be specified in the order no licence in respect of that theatre shall be issued to him or to any person with whom he is financially associated, or to any person who took part in the management of his business and was knowingly a party to the offence, or to any person whose licence in respect of any theatre has been revoked during the twelve months previous to the date of the conviction.

(3) Summary proceedings for the offence of not complying with the requirements of this Part of this Act as to the renters' quota or as to the exhibitors' quota may, notwithstanding anything in the summary Jurisdiction Act, be instituted at any time within two years after the commission of the offence in the case of a renter, and one year after the commission of the offence in the case of an exhibitor.

25. (1) A licence under this Act shall be granted by the Board of Trade to any person applying for the licence if the applicant is not disqualified for holding the licence applied for, and if the application is accompanied by such information verified in such manner as the Board may reasonably require in order to satisfy themselves that the applicant is not disqualified for holding the licence applied for and by the prescribed fee.

(2) A person shall not be qualified to hold a licence under this Part of this Act unless he has a place of business within Great Britain and has sent notice thereof and of any change therein to the Board of Trade.

(3) A licence granted under this section shall remain in force until the expiration of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March or the thirtieth day of September, as the case may be, in respect of which it is granted, unless previous to that date the holder thereof ceases to be qualified for holding the licence.

26. (1) If any person required to make a return under this Part of this Act fails to make the return within the time within which he is required to make the return, or on being so required fails to give any information or explanation respecting the return which it is in his power to give he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds for every day during which the default continues.

(2) If any person who is required to keep a book and record therein such particulars as are mentioned in this Part of this Act fails to do so, or when required by a person authorised in that behalf by the Board of Trade to produce the book for inspection at any reasonable time fails to do so, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

ORGANIZATION.

No. 140.—The following correspondence on the subject of the report of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee is published for general information :—

ARMY DEPARTMENT DESPATCH NO. 8, DATED THE 24TH JUNE 1926, TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD,

Referring to our Army Department telegram No. 420, dated the 13th July 1925, we have the honour to inform Your Lordship that we have completed our examination of the report of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee, and are now in a position to state our views upon the Committee's recommendations. As regards the genesis of the Committee we need add nothing to the information contained in the first chapter of the report and the information previously communicated to Your Lordship in our Army Secretary's letter No. 26551-1 (A.D.), dated the 13th March 1924, addressed to the Under-Secretary of State for India; and we may therefore proceed at once to discuss the results of the Committee's inquiry.

2. In our opinion, the report is on the whole a useful one and makes a valuable contribution towards the discussion of a very important subject. We agree in general with the majority of the Committee's recommendations, and the enclosed correspondence will show that the Local Governments, all of whom were very fully consulted in conjunction with the local military authorities, have expressed opinions which reflect substantially the same conclusion. The Committee, vide paragraph 6 of their report, have taken as their starting point the principle that the promise to India of self-government implies the grant to her people of an opportunity of training themselves for her defence. This premiss is in harmony with authoritative pronouncements which have been made at various times since the inauguration of the Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms, for example, the statement contained in your predecessor's telegram No. 807, dated the 22nd February 1922, that His Majesty's Government are anxious to assist Indians to defend their own country. * * *

The observations and the proposals which the Committee have made, following upon this premiss, impress us as being generally sound, reasonable and prudent. * * *

They have framed no large and ambitious scheme for the expansion of the non-regular forces, to be carried out unconditionally or indiscriminately. It is recognised that the success of each stage of the developments recommended should be tested by experience. The Committee appear to have appreciated duly the military point of view and they have recognised the necessity of providing effective means to control the progress of their scheme and the additions to our armed forces which the scheme is designed to create. The moderate character of nearly all the recommendations made is reflected generally in the criticisms received, and is expressly acknowledged in the favourable comments received from the Punjab Government.

In these preliminary observations we desire to stress one other vitally important matter, namely, the causes assigned by the Committee for the relative failure up to date of the Territorial Force movement. In paragraph 10 of their report, the Committee say :—

"The evidence produced before us has made it clear that the existing provincial battalions are composed almost entirely of men belonging to classes from which the regular army is recruited, in other words, of men who already have a natural inclination for military service. It is recognised that this is not the result of deliberate policy on the part of Government, or of misdirected efforts on the part of the agents of Government. The fact seems to be clear that service in the Territorial Force, as at present constituted and organised, does not attract the non-military classes and in particular the educated middle class Indian. Government have therefore failed to secure one of the principal objects for which the Force was created. The fault may lie with the educated middle-classes themselves and may be irremediable: but the evidence which we have heard does not suggest that this is the correct inference to draw. Due account must be taken of lack of opportunities for military service in the past: and it must be recognised that a national military spirit cannot be created in a short space of time or without patient, intelligent and sympathetic encouragement. We ourselves adhere to the original conception of the Territorial Force as inter alia a means of providing national education in military service, and consider that the reforms most urgently called for are those which will enable the Force to fulfil this purpose."

We are satisfied that this analysis of the existing situation is substantially correct. It must be borne in mind that the Territorial Force was inaugurated at a time when many battalions of the regular army were being demobilised after the Great War, and there has also been a general tendency, commencing from about the same time, to contract the field of recruitment for the regular army. With reduced establishments it has been necessary to concentrate on those classes which, in the opinion of the military authorities, provide at the present day the best fighting material, and to eliminate classes the men of which were found, during the Great War and the subsequent frontier operations in India, to be relatively less efficient as fighting soldiers. The natural consequence was that demobilised soldiers and members of the recently excluded classes, since soldiering had been their hereditary profession for many years, were the first to present themselves for admission to many of the provincial battalions of the Territorial Force; and they forestalled other classes of the population to whom it was the purpose of the Territorial Force, as originally created, to afford an opportunity of learning to share the burdens of national defence. As the Committee have pointed out, a national military spirit cannot be created in a short space of time, or without patient, intelligent and sympathetic encouragement; and, as has been shown, circumstances have been such as to render necessary a more carefully planned and specific means of encouragement than the original constitution of the Force provided.

With these general remarks we turn in the succeeding paragraphs to examine individually the more important recommendations of the Committee.

3. Expansion and development of the University Training Corps.—The recommendations of the Committee in this respect have received the unanimous support of all Local Governments, and we think it convenient to quote the opinions of two—the Government of Bihar and Orissa and the Government of the United Provinces. The former state that “they give their fullest support to the two main recommendations of the Committee, namely, (1) that the University Training Corps should be subject to no arbitrary limitation of numbers but should be encouraged to expand and to foster the growth of the national military spirit in India, and (2) that an opportunity to students to continue their military training after leaving the University should be afforded by the constitution of urban units of the Territorial Force.”

The Government of the United Provinces say that “the Governor in Council recognises the value of the University Training Corps. Much good has been done by its agency already and much more can be accomplished.”

With these opinions, and with the recommendations of the Committee, we are in entire agreement. It has been established that the influence of the University Training Corps is for good, that it has improved the discipline, the character, and the physique of University students; and the movement has the full support of the education authorities in India. We have, in fact, in the recent past, received several applications from local Governments recommending the creation of additional units of the University Training Corps. * * * There is one further consideration which our political critics would undoubtedly urge in support of the demand for the expansion of the University Training Corps, namely, that so long as the military and University authorities in the United Kingdom continue to exclude Indian students from their Officers Training Corps, it would ill become the Indian Government to place any unreasonable bar in the way of the growth of the University Training Corps at Universities in India. The main recommendations of the Committee in regard to the University Training Corps, which in principle we support, may, for convenience sake, be recapitulated as follows:—

- (i) The function of the University Training Corps should be primarily educational.
- (ii) The University Training Corps should have no liability for actual military service.
- (iii) The University Training Corps should be allowed to expand up to its natural limits, subject only to financial considerations permitting of this. The military authorities should place no obstacle in the way of any University or College forming a contingent of the University Training Corps, provided that the University or College authorities can guarantee a fixed minimum number of members and can provide suitable officers.

The subsidiary recommendations of the Committee in regard to the University Training Corps do not, in our opinion, require discussion in detail. We agree in the arguments by which the Committee have supported them, and we find nothing in the recommendations themselves to which exception can reasonably be taken on military or other grounds.

4. Liability of the Auxiliary Force, India, for general military service.—The recommendation of the Committee that the Auxiliary Force, India, should have a liability for general military service has met with strong opposition from certain Local Governments, notably from the Governments of Bombay and Bengal. These two Presidencies, it may be observed, are specially concerned with any departure likely to affect the popularity or the existence of the Auxiliary Force, since the considerable European population of the cities of Bombay and Calcutta provide units of the Auxiliary Force which are numerically stronger and relatively much more efficient than the Auxiliary Force units of other parts of India, and in these two cities also the Auxiliary Force units constitute a specially valuable adjunct to the regular forces for the purpose of coping with local disturbances. We may say at once that we accept the views of these two Local Governments, and reject the recommendation of the Committee. However attractive in theory the proposition of the Committee may be, and however plausible the arguments by which they have supported it, we are convinced not only by what the Governments of Bombay and Bengal have said, but by other testimony also, that it would be impracticable to impose upon the Auxiliary Force a liability for general military service, and that any attempt to do so would be liable to cause so serious a diminution in strength of the Auxiliary Force as to render it necessary to employ additional regular British troops for internal security duties.

5. Creation and training of urban units of the Indian Territorial Force.—The Committee have recommended that in selected large centres of population special companies or battalions should be constituted which should be recruited from the educated classes, and mainly from those engaged in the learned professions, and that these urban units should be trained on the system at present applied to the Auxiliary Force, namely, a system of training throughout the year combined with a short period of annual training in camp. The Committee point out that the advantage of this system of training from the point of view of encouraging the educated classes to join the Territorial Force, is that it will not interfere with the civil avocations of the Territorial soldiers of this special category; and the Committee contemplate that in the course of time the urban units should be open only to men who have previously undergone a period of training in the University Training Corps, an arrangement which should have the effect of increasing the efficiency of both formations and also of preserving the value of the training received in the University Training Corps. With these recommendations and observations we agree in the hope that ex-University men will become available. But in view of our conclusion regarding the military liability of the Auxiliary Force, we are unable to accept the further recommendation of the Committee that the urban battalions should be liable for general military service. Here we find ourselves in sympathy with the very emphatic criticisms put forward by the Government of Bombay. We feel that it would not be equitable to impose liability for general military service upon the urban units of the Territorial Force and not upon the Auxiliary Force, in view of the fact that it is definitely contemplated that the former should be composed of individuals whose social circumstances and civil avocations may be said to place them in a position corresponding closely to the position of those from whom the Auxiliary Force is drawn; and moreover it would be very unjustifiable to attach to the creation of urban units a condition known to be of such a character that it might from the very start prevent the experiment from materialising. The Committee have said that if only a limited military liability is imposed, it would be useless to create the urban units. This proposition, however, we cannot admit. The units, it is true, may have no immediate military value, but they should be regarded as belonging to that section of the Territorial Force which is intended to have an educative purpose. This aspect of the question is well put in the following passage from a letter of the Bombay Government :—

“ Apart from this potential value, this Government would strongly press the view that the educative value of these battalions justifies expenditure, though the fruits of such expenditure may not be reaped even in this generation, and that to a wider vision it would appear that it would be of profit to incur expenditure even in merely teaching and educating the members of the urban battalions in military science.”

Finally, it may be said definitely that without the urban battalions no real and practical opportunity would be given to the educated middle classes of learning the lessons of national military service and national defence. But that they should have such opportunities is the main object with which the Territorial Force was created. It is one of the primary obligations arising out of the policy mentioned at the commencement of the second paragraph of this despatch, upon which the present discussion is founded.

6. Extended training of Indian Territorial Force Provincial units.—We agree in general principle with the recommendations of the Committee in regard to the provincial units. The military authorities are satisfied that the limited amount of training at present authorised is not sufficient to produce, even out of good material, a second line force of real military value. As we explain in a later passage of this despatch we propose to apply the extended system of training which the Committee advocate to four of the existing provincial battalions, selecting representatives of different types. After a suitable interval it will be necessary to review, in the light of the success which attends the experiment, the whole question of maintaining rural or provincial units as a second line to the regular army. In our conception of the matter, it will be necessary that all questions arising in future in regard to the provincial battalions should be judged mainly by the criterion of the direct military results obtained: and the battalions must be required to stand the test of comparison from this point of view with the regular army reserves. It will be observed that the Committee themselves have recognised that increase in the number of provincial units must be subject to financial considerations, and have laid it down that their number should not in any case be allowed to expand beyond the limits of the second line force required on purely military grounds.

7. The form of commissions in the Auxiliary Force, India, and in the Indian Territorial Force.—We accept without reservation the proposals of the Committee under this head, and agree with the remarks made in paragraph 18, paragraph 24 (IV) (ii), and paragraph 25 (IV) (ii), of the report. The proceedings of the Committee show that the opinion of serving officers in the Indian Territorial Force is definitely and justifiably opposed to the present dual commissions. In fact the existing arrangements in regard to commissions in the Indian Territorial Force constitute one of the most acute grievances of all that were represented to the Committee, and there is no doubt that, apart from the sentimental aspect of the question, there can be no possibility of progress in a force in which no officer of that force can hold a commission higher than that of Jemadar, Subadar, Honorary Lieutenant and Honorary Captain. The proposal as regards the commissions to be granted to officers of the Auxiliary Force settles in a satisfactory manner, from the military point of view, a question which has long been outstanding and which is of great importance. The grant of commissions similar in form to officers both of the Auxiliary Force and the Territorial Force is not only suitable in itself but will also meet to a considerable extent the political demand that the two forces should be treated alike in all essential matters.

8. Members of the Auxiliary Force and of urban units of the Indian Territorial Force should not receive pay for periodical parades.—This recommendation has given rise to some difference of opinion, but on careful consideration we are of opinion that the arguments set forth in paragraph 19 of the report are sound, and that the proposal should be accepted. * * *

9. Conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force, India.—There is only one matter here calling for comment, namely, whether the Auxiliary Force should now be confined to British subjects; and this may be conveniently disposed of by quoting the following opinion of the Government of Bengal:—

“In a large centre such as Calcutta there may always be expected to be a fair number of persons whose nationality as British subjects is doubtful for one reason or another, or who are definitely nationals of other and friendly countries. If they feel disposed to enrol themselves in the Auxiliary Force, they might prove a useful accession of strength at times of disturbance; while if not enrolled they would appear to be without any definite status for self-defence at a crisis. The Governor in Council does not wish to attach undue importance to the point but would suggest that there are grounds for consideration whether any occasion for deleting sub-section (d) of section 4 of the Act will remain if the liability for service in the Auxiliary Force is not extended beyond India.”

We agree in this view, and since we propose that the Auxiliary Force should not be made liable for general military service, we do not propose to alter the provision in the Auxiliary Force Act which permits the enrolment of persons other than British subjects.

10. Preliminary military training in schools.—The Committee have expressed the opinion that it is desirable that physical training accompanied by some form of military discipline should be adopted as part of the routine of all schools. The opinion is, we think, unexceptionable; but the accomplishment must be left to the efforts of Local Governments and local Educational authorities, official and non-official. We do not ourselves read in the expression of the Committee's opinion anything intended to be at variance with the somewhat fuller exposition of the same matter contained in paragraph 2 of the letter from the Government of Bengal, No. 1194-P.D., dated the 21st July 1925.

11. Penalisation of employers who impose disabilities on employees belonging to the non-regular forces.—This proposal has been unanimously condemned and we have ourselves no hesitation in rejecting it as impracticable.

12. Custody of arms.—We endorse the observations of the Committee contained in paragraph 26 (g) of their report. Agreeing with the Local Governments, we attached the very greatest importance to the safe custody of arms and ammunition belonging to the non-regular forces, and regard it as essential that absolute control of arms and ammunition should be exercised by Government acting through the military authorities.

13. Enrolment of Government servants in the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces.—We agree generally with the observations of the Committee on this subject contained in paragraph 26 (h) of their report. It, may, however, be necessary to examine in some further detail the conditions on which the enrolment of Government servants may be permitted; for example, it may be necessary to provide that the consent of the Local Government or other prescribed authority should be obtained not only before enrolment but also before a civil Government servant is withdrawn on embodiment from his normal official duties. This, however, is a matter of domestic concern with the details of which it is unnecessary to trouble Your Lordship.

14. Exemption from capitation tax of members of the Indian Territorial Force in Burma.—It is only necessary to mention this minor recommendation, for the reason that the Government of Burma have declined to grant the concession proposed. We feel that we would not be justified in pressing the suggestion.

15. We have for the present left on one side the various recommendations of the Committee in regard to the enrolment of railway employees in the Auxiliary or Territorial Forces and the constitution of non-regular railway units of a special character. We have found it necessary to reserve these for separate consideration. Otherwise we have surveyed all the recommendations of the Committee and it is to be understood that we accept in general principle any which have not been specifically mentioned in this despatch. If the main proposals which we have expressly recommended are approved by Your Lordship, we will put into practice the other minor and ancillary recommendations as the occasion arises and as circumstances permit. It will further be necessary for us to consider, when we have received your Lordship's decision, which of the accepted recommendations will involve legislation and to take action towards that end.

16. Turning to the financial aspect of the case, we desire, in the first instance, to invite attention, with special emphasis, to that passage in paragraph 27 of the report in which the Committee say—

“ We wish to make it clear that in our opinion, for the reasons stated in the debate in the Legislative Assembly as the result of which this Committee was formed, any increase in the expenditure on the Territorial Force must not be allowed in any way to prejudice the strength and efficiency of the regular army. These reasons are summarised in paragraph 1 preceding.”

We entirely agree in this view; and it is particularly satisfactory to find that the Committee rejected unanimously the mistaken, and indeed dangerous, suggestions which were put forward in the resolution originally moved in the Legislative Assembly as regards the possibility of the non-regular forces taking the place of a large and increasing portion of the relatively small regular army on which the defence of India at present depends.

It follows therefore that new expenditure on the development of the non-regular forces must depend upon our general financial circumstances permitting outlay in excess of the provision found necessary from time to time for the proper maintenance of the regular military services; and we propose to deal with the financial issue generally on this basis. There is, however, little doubt that a considerable body of Indian public opinion would demand that a real effort should be made to provide additional funds for the purpose in question. To commence with, we desire to authorise the expenditure of a sum of 10 lakhs of rupees to be spent, if possible, in the course of this financial year, in giving effect to an instalment of those recommendations of the Committee which we have accepted, and we have accordingly drawn up a preliminary scheme, of which details are given in an annexure to this despatch. The various measures making up the scheme require little comment, but we may explain that we have endeavoured to base the experiment as widely as possible; and it may interest Your Lordship to have the following particulars of the four provincial units selected for more extensive training. Two are relatively good and keen units recruited mainly from the professional military classes. Of the remaining two, one, namely, the 11/19th Hyderabad Regiment, is recruited from classes which by recent tradition are entirely non-military. The local military authorities had recommended that this battalion should be disbanded as being inefficient. But the Government of Bengal have held that it would be premature to create an urban unit in Bengal at present; and we do not think it would be right therefore to disband the only Bengal unit of the Territorial Force without giving it a further chance to improve itself under the extended system of training and the more effective methods of instruction which military opinion acknowledges to be necessary. In the case of the 14th 3rd Madras Regiment the personnel are classified by the military authorities as non-military, but they include men of the classes which formerly enlisted in the Madras regiments of the regular army. It may be added that the scheme contemplates the conversion of the existing Parsi unit in Bombay into an urban unit with limited military liabilities. The other Parsi unit in Poona will be disbanded as it has been a complete failure. Budget provision has not been specifically made for the proposed expenditure of Rs. 10 lakhs; and it will be incurred only to the extent to which it can be met by reappropriation from grants not otherwise required. The concurrence of the Local Governments concerned will be obtained before any new unit provided for in the scheme is actually raised.

17. * * * Neither the Government of India nor His Majesty's Government are asked to commit themselves to a large, indefinite or unconditional expansion of the Territorial Force. What is essentially desired is approval to certain methods and principles of advance. The actual scheme for immediate expansion will, if approved, bring the establishment over the present authorised strength of the Territorial Force, including the University Training Corps, by 204 men only; and under the financial rules which define the powers of the Government of India, Your Lordship's separate sanction would be necessary to any further increase costing 5 lakhs of rupees per annum. We are ourselves fully alive to the dangers which might attend an indiscriminate expansion of the Territorial Force. We do not propose to recommend any increase which we cannot effectively control through the regular military services, and we trust that this assurance will help to remove any hesitation which Your Lordship might otherwise feel and which might be inspired by previous discussions.

18. Your Lordship will recognise that it would be convenient from our point of view if when the Indian Legislature meets in August next we were in a position to make some announcement of the decisions arrived at in regard to the report. We recognise, however, that this would give Your Lordship but little time for full consideration of our proposals, and we must therefore refrain from urging too strongly upon Your Lordship the desirability of arriving at a final conclusion by the time mentioned. We should, however, be glad to receive your orders at the earliest possible moment.

19. We propose in due course, subject to Your Lordship's approval, to publish the correspondence with Local Governments if the Legislature request that this should be done. The Local Governments have expressly agreed to this course.

We have the honour to be,

MY LORD,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servants,

In the annexure to this letter an indication is given of those proposals in which it appears to the Government of India that the Local Governments will have a special interest from one or other of the two points of view mentioned, but if the Local Government ^{you} desire to express an opinion on any other matter arising out of the report, the Government of India will be glad to receive it.

3. I am further to request that so far as this is found to be appropriate the views of the Local Government ^{your} on the questions referred to them ^{you} may be framed in consultation with the General

COPIES OF REPLIES FROM LOCAL GOVERNMENTS AND ADMINISTRATIONS TO LETTER NO. A.-31794-1 (A. G.), DATED THE 9TH APRIL 1925, FROM THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE ARMY DEPARTMENT.

Letter from the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General and Chief Commissioner in Baluchistan, No. 1668 (a), dated the 1st June 1925.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. A.-31794-1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925.

2. The conditions in Baluchistan appear to be such as to make the recommendations of the Committee applicable in a very small degree to the Province. Throughout the rural areas the people might be described as all belonging to the martial races: they are in general required to go armed for their own protection and are accustomed to bearing arms and are in general organised in a rough tribal way to meet tribal conditions. Presumably therefore the present recommendations would not apply to them.

The only urban area of any size is the town of Quetta. That town is inhabited practically entirely by shopkeepers from the Punjab and Sind, Government officials and a floating population which comes chiefly from Afghanistan and out districts in search of labour. There is no University and excluding the floating population the male population between 20 and 50 does not amount to more than a few thousands. The Auxiliary Force consists of 40 members of whom some half dozen are Chinese and Parsis. Most of the members are Government officials who in case of emergency would probably be much more usefully employed on their own duties.

3. Beyond therefore saying that the recommendations of the Committee seem to him generally sound and that he can see no objection to these being acted on in their entirety so far as Baluchistan is concerned, the Agent to the Governor-General thinks that there is little he can usefully add. Should there be any movement, of which there is at present no sign, among the citizens of Quetta to constitute a unit of the Indian Territorial Force, there would appear to be no objection to such a Force being raised under careful supervision on a scale which would necessarily be small, but with the small amount of material available and the large military garrison which must necessarily be retained in Quetta, such a force would be of little value as regards strengthening defence or giving added assistance in the maintenance of law and order.

4. This letter has been shown to the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Western Command, who expresses himself as in general agreement with the view contained in it.

Letter from the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, No. 60-T.—129-20, dated the 6th June 1925.

I am directed to refer to your letter No. A.-31794—1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, and to say that after careful consideration and in consultation with the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Southern Command, the Chief Commissioner desires to offer the following views on the recommendations of the Committee.

(1) Expansion and development of University Training Corps. Paragraph 28 (i) and (vi).—There is no University Training Corps in Coorg, but the Chief Commissioner generally agrees with the recommendations of the Committee. The Chief Commissioner considers it desirable that there should be elementary military training in schools in order to instil the necessary sense of discipline.

He is of opinion however that Cadet Corps should in the first instance be confined to selected schools.

(2) Liability of Auxiliary Force and Indian Territorial Force (Provincial and Urban battalions) for general military service. Paragraph 28 (ii).—The Chief Commissioner agrees that the Auxiliary Force and the Indian Territorial Force should be liable for general military service both within and without the borders of India, but he considers that only men of military age should be made so liable. Men over military age would not ordinarily be liable for general service, and the Chief Commissioner suggests that in the case of such men the liability should be optional.

(3) Creation and training of urban units. Paragraphs 28 (iii) and 24 (v) (i) (b).—There is no scope for urban units in Coorg, the towns being merely large villages. The Chief Commissioner thinks the experiment of creating such units might be tried, but he doubts its success. Such units should have the same liabilities for service as other Indian Territorial Force units.

In regard to the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore : in view of the fact that the bulk of the population consists of Anglo-Indians, outcastes and low class Muhammadans the Chief Commissioner does not consider that an urban unit could usefully be formed.

(4) Extended training of Indian Territorial Force (Provincial Units). Paragraph 28 (iv).—The extension of the training period is essential. It remains to be seen whether even if the training period is extended to two months it will make the force fit for general service. The Chief Commissioner thinks that the period of training in Coorg must necessarily be confined to the dates, 10th March to 10th May, so that agricultural work would not be interfered with. Similar arrangements will probably be necessary in most parts of India.

(5) Members of the Auxiliary Force and of urban units of the Indian Territorial Force not to receive pay for periodical parades. Paragraph 28 (v).—The Chief Commissioner agrees that some form of allowance may be given instead of pay during periodical parades to members of the urban units of the Indian Territorial Force and Auxiliary Force.

(6) Constitution, duties and functions of Advisory Committee. Paragraphs 28 (ix) and 26 (d).—Owing to the smallness of the Province one Committee will suffice for Coorg and should consist as proposed of 5 members the Commissioner being the Civil Official member. The Chief Commissioner agrees that advisory committees be given wider responsibility but is opposed to the suggestion that committees be "made entirely responsible for recruiting". The activities of these committees should be confined to exerting all possible moral influence in stimulating recruiting. The Chief Commissioner does not agree to the allotment of funds to committees which should be considered as purely advisory and not executive bodies.

(7) Responsibilities of Local Government. Paragraphs 28 (x) and 24 (iv) (i) (b).—The question will not arise in Coorg, but the Chief Commissioner considers that responsibility for the creation of new units should rest with the Local Government concerned.

(8) Conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force. Paragraph 25 (iv) (i).—The Chief Commissioner concurs in the recommendations of the Committee.

(9) Penalisation of employers who impose disabilities on employees belonging to the non-regular Forces. Paragraph 26 (f).—The Chief Commissioner agrees that employers who impose disabilities on employees who belong to the non-regular Forces should be penalized in some form or other. The difficulty is to devise a means of bringing them to book. On the other hand it would appear desirable to encourage firms which promote recruitment by putting them on a special list with a view to their being given priority in Army contracts whenever possible.

(10) Custody of arms. Paragraph 24 (g).—The Chief Commissioner is not in favour of the formation of small and scattered armouries for Provincial units as he considers that the system imposes unfair responsibilities on the police. Where central armouries are impossible he is of opinion that members of the Auxiliary Force should keep their own arms.

(11) Employment of Government servants in Auxiliary or Territorial Forces. Paragraph 26 (h).—The Chief Commissioner agrees that Government servants should be recruited but on the understanding that in the event of mobilisation the Local Government should be allowed to retain a minimum number of officials to carry on the administration and that its selection should not be subject to challenge.

(12) Rifle Clubs. Annexure B. I.—The Chief Commissioner agrees with the proposal to raise Rifle Clubs. Members of the Auxiliary Force and Territorial Force could perhaps combine for this object and the instructional staff of the former could be utilised. It is suggested that allowances for men coming from a long distance should be granted to encourage attendance and add to the popularity of these clubs.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Burma, No. 188-E.—24 (R. N. 603), dated the 15th June 1925.

In reply to your letter No. A.-31749-1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, I am directed to say that the General Officer Commanding, Burma District, Lieutenant-Colonel Crosthwaite, Commanding Burma Railways Battalion, A. F. I., and Lieutenant-Colonel Heald, Commanding Rangoon Battalion, A. F. I., were consulted regarding the fourteen recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee which are detailed in the Annexure to your letter, while the Burma Chamber of Commerce was consulted regarding the recommendation that employers should be penalised for imposing disabilities on employees belonging to non-regular forces. Their views and the view of the Local Government are summarised in the following paragraph.

2 (1) Expansion and Development of University Training Corps. Paragraph 28 (i) and (viii).—Colonel Heald would give University Training Corps a separate constitution with officers of their own, under a separate Act. He considers that they should be allowed to expand to the extent to which funds allow. Colonel Crosthwaite also favours expansion. The General Officer Commanding presses for sanction for the addition to the Headquarters and three Companies already sanctioned of a Sappers and Miners Company (already formed) in consequence of the introduction of Engineering and Forestry Courses at the Rangoon University. The Governor in Council considers that the expansion of the University Training Corps, so far as funds permit, is desirable and supports the General Officer Commanding's application for sanction for the extra Company. He also agrees with Colonel Heald that a separate Act is advisable.

(2) Liability of Auxiliary Force and of Indian Territorial Force (Provincial and Urban Battalions) for general military service. Paragraph 23 (ii).—Colonel Crosthwaite holds that general military service is not feasible so far as the Railway Corps is concerned. This view finds support in the proposals made by the Committee in paragraph 24 (VI) (k) and paragraph 25 (V) (b) of their report for the organisation of Railway Corps on a purely technical basis on the ground that in an emergency the personnel of these corps would not as a rule be able to do more than maintain communications. Colonel Heald would exempt members of either the "A" or the "B" reserve of the Auxiliary Force (India) and members of the corresponding Reserves of Urban Units when constituted, from liability for service outside India.

The General Officer Commanding concurs in the recommendations of the Committee, but suggests that on necessity arising, members of the University Training Corps might be made liable for service by being posted to suitable units for intensive training, with a view to fitting themselves for general service. The Local Government accepts the conclusions of the Committee while recognising that liability for general service will tend to restrict recruiting. It does not support the General Officer Commanding's proposal. The reasons set out in paragraph 9 of the Report appear to His Excellency in Council to be conclusive against the imposition of any liability for general service on members of the University Training Corps.

(3) Creation and training of Urban Units. Paragraphs 28 (iii) and 24 (V) (i) (b).—Colonel Crosthwaite is opposed to the creation of Urban Units. Colonel Heald sees no objection except that of expense. The General Officer Commanding recommends that as a tentative measure one Urban Company should be formed in Rangoon. He anticipates difficulty in providing guards over the armoury for an Urban Unit anywhere else. The Governor in Council does not think that this difficulty is insuperable: but he considers that for the present it will suffice to start with one Urban Company in Rangoon as proposed by Colonel Commandant Sangster.

(4) Extended training of Indian Territorial Force (Provincial Units). Paragraph 28 (iv).—Colonel Crosthwaite asserts that railway employees could not be spared for more than 28 days. The remarks against proposal (2) apply here also. Colonel Heald favours extended training, though he doubts whether provincial units will be worth the cost. He would prefer a reserve of ex-regulars. The General Officer Commanding would fix the period of training at three months for recruits and two months for trained soldiers. He reports that the Commandant of the Provincial Battalion (11-70th Burma Rifles) considers that there would be no difficulty in getting the necessary personnel. The Local Government accepts the conclusion of the Committee that the extended period of training which they recommend is essential to ensure an efficient second line of defence. If the Provincial Battalions are confined to agricultural and other classes whose occupation is seasonal, it should not prove impossible to recruit an adequate force. This restriction will be facilitated by the recruitment of urban units, for which, as the Committee recognises, so long a period of intensive training is out of the question, and by the organisation of Railway Corps on a purely technical basis as suggested by the Committee.

(5) Members of the Auxiliary Force and Urban Units of the Indian Territorial Force not to receive pay for periodical parades. Paragraph 28 (v).—Colonel Crosthwaite agrees with the Committee's recommendations. He suggests that liberal travelling allowance should be granted to cover the expenses of a man attending a distant parade. Colonel Heald sees difficulties in fixing a sufficient scale of allowances and he would retain "pay." He writes:—"Pay is a simple and not particularly expensive method of preventing the individual member from losing pecuniarily. It amounts to only one rupee for a two hours' parade. The proposals in Annexure AII introduce alterations which I consider open to objection. I see no reason why the training for Infantry which is necessary to earn bonus (or bounty) should be increased when that for other branches of the Force is not to be increased. The present training is in my opinion excessive for the conditions in Rangoon at any rate, and I have recommended to the military authorities that the training prescribed for efficiency be reduced by half, bonus (or bounty) being paid only for completion of the whole present training. Members of the "A" and "B" Reserves who do the training of the active class and members of the "B" Reserve who do the training of the "A" Reserve should receive the allowances of the class or reserve whose training they do and should earn capitation grant. So far as the Rangoon Battalion is concerned the special capitation grant will be useless if given subject to the conditions proposed, since few if any members of the unit will do the necessary 16 hours' additional training. I would allow pay and ordinary capitation grant to be earned for half the present training, and bounty to be earned for the full present training, the special capitation grant being earned only by first class shots who complete the full present training for the active class."

The Governor in Council concurs with the General Officer Commanding in accepting the Committee's recommendations.

(6) Constitution, duties and functions of Advisory Committees. Paragraphs 28 (ix) and 26 (d).—Colonel Crosthwaite and Colonel Heald believe that Advisory Committees are valueless and that the Committee's recommendations for their improvement will produce no effect. The General Officer Commanding is in favour of Advisory Committees; he suggests that very careful selection of the members will be necessary and advises that the Chairman should be nominated by the Local Government. He deprecates interference by the Advisory Committees in recruitment for the University Training Corps.

The Local Government considers that if Advisory Committees were reconstituted on the lines approved by the Committee they would prove of greater utility than the present Committees in popularising the Indian Territorial Force and in educating public opinion. In Burma very little interest is at present displayed in the Force.

(7) Responsibilities of Local Governments. Paragraphs 28 (ix) and 24 (IV) (i) (b).—The Committee's recommendations call for no remarks.

(8) Conditions of eligibility for enrolment in Auxiliary Force. Paragraph 25 (IV) (i).—The Committee's recommendations regarding the future composition of the Auxiliary Force are accepted by all as suitable. The General Officer Commanding suggests that verified proof of parentage should be provided before enrolment. In cases of doubt it is believed that some proof is required but generally in the smaller centres of population too strict an examination of credentials would involve a disappearance of the unit.

(9) Preliminary Military Training in Schools. Paragraph 26 (a).—Colonel Heald and Colonel Crosthwaite agree that School Cadet Companies (not Corps) are eminently desirable provided that the training is given by reliable military pensioners. The General Officer Commanding considers that the cost and lack of suitable staff at present stand in the way of the formation of cadet corps in Burma. The Governor in Council concurs in the Committee's recommendations but is not in a position to state how far Provincial Funds will be available to give effect to them.

(10) Penalisation of employers who impose disabilities on employees belonging to the Non-Regular Forces. Paragraph 26 (f).—The Burma Chamber of Commerce oppose the proposal on the ground that it would merely serve to put men who joined up at a disadvantage with those who did not, so far as the employment is concerned, as many employers would probably prefer to employ men who had not this contingent liability on them to those who had. They hold that the suggested provision "would not attain the object the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee have in view; but, on the contrary, would to some extent militate against men joining up". Colonel Commandant Sangster sees difficulties in the proposal and Colonel Heald remarks that the penalties could be avoided by employers refusing to employ members of the Auxiliary Force (India) and Indian Territorial Force unless service in these forces was made compulsory. The Governor in Council considers that this objection is insuperable.

(11) Custody of Arms. Paragraph 26 (g).—The officers consulted agree generally with the recommendations of the Committee. Colonel Crosthwaite suggests that armouries for Indian Territorial Force urban units, if created, might be on the lines of British units. The General Officer Commanding mentions the undesirability of having armouries guarded by civil police.

The Governor in Council while recognising the importance of safe custody of arms and the advantages of a uniform system, is of opinion that, owing to the difficulty of providing guards for armouries, the most convenient system is that which hitherto has been followed of making the best local arrangements possible in the case of each unit. In this Province no case of serious loss or danger to life has arisen through the adoption of this system.

(12) Enrolment of Government servants in Auxiliary or Territorial Forces. Paragraph 26 (h).—The General Officer Commanding points out that the inclusion of Government servants is almost essential to the Auxiliary Force (India), as they are generally the keenest and most influential members of the force. He considers that, not being deterred from joining the Indian Army Reserve of Officers, they might be placed under the same conditions as are laid down in India Army Order No. 325 of 1924, paragraph 3, in the event of a crisis necessitating the embodiment of the force for service. It is in the view of the Governor in Council most desirable that Government servants should be encouraged to enrol and that Government should give a lead in this respect and he accepts the recommendations of the Committee under this head en bloc.

(13) Rifle Clubs (Annexure B I).—Colonel Heald approves of Rifle Clubs so long as there is a permanent instructional staff and Colonel Crosthwaite sees no objection to them. The General Officer Commanding on the other hand considers that in Burma rifle clubs are both "unnecessary and inadvisable"—he does not say why. There are three rifle clubs in the Rangoon Battalion A. F. I. The Local Government considers that rifle clubs should be encouraged in the manner and on the conditions proposed.

(14) Exemption from Capitation Tax of Members of Indian Territorial Force (Annexure A, I-11).—The General Officer Commanding recommends exemption from Capitation tax on the ground that it "would be very popular and an incentive to enlistment." Colonel Crosthwaite supports the proposal. Colonel Heald on the other hand does not think that the exemption is necessary.

The Governor in Council is not prepared to act on the recommendation. It is opposed to the present policy of this Government of reducing the number of exemptions from the tax. The following additional recommendations have been made by the General Officer Commanding:—

- (i) Advisory Committees should be consulted in regard to the conversion of the Burma Railways Battalion as suggested in paragraph 25 (V) (b) and also as regards the formation of an Indian Territorial Force Light Railway Company on the lines laid down in Appendix III-B.
- (ii) The Indian Instructional Staff should be seconded from their active unit and attached to the Training Battalion as extra personnel under arrangements similar to that obtaining at present for British officers seconded as Company Commanders with the Indian Territorial Force. [Paragraph 24 (U) (i) (a)]
- (iii) With the exception of the Light Railway Company no other specialist unit should be formed in Burma at present. [Paragraph 24 (VI) (e) to (i).]

The Local Government concurs in these recommendations.

Letter from the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government of Bihar and Orissa,
No. 884-P.R., dated the 18th June 1925.

I am directed to reply to your letter No. A.-31794-1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, in which you ask for the views of the Local Government on the principal recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee.

2. With most of the recommendations of the Committee the Local Government are in agreement. They give their fullest support to the two main recommendations of the Committee, namely :—

- (1) that the University Crops should be subject to no arbitrary limitation of numbers but should be encouraged to expand and to foster the growth of a national military spirit in India, and
- (2) that an opportunity to students to continue their military training after leaving the university should be afforded by the constitution of urban units of the Territorial Force.

* * * * *

3. The Local Government agree that the question of compulsion of students to join the University Training Corps should be left to the University authorities. In this province resolutions advocating compulsory service have been adopted both in the Legislative Council and the Senate. Should the principle be introduced seriously, presumably only those students who could produce the necessary certificates of efficiency or exemption would be permitted to appear at the University examination, but there are practical difficulties which have not perhaps been sufficiently considered by local enthusiasts and it is at least doubtful if the proposal will materialise. Assuming that compulsion is not introduced, the Local Government support the recommendation of the Committee that days spent in camp by the members of the University Training Corps should count towards University or College attendances, with a view to making the training more popular. They also agree that there should be no liability on the students joining the University Training Corps for general military service. The question of the liability of members of the urban units for general military service is dealt with later in this letter.

4. The Local Government agree with the Committee's views on the extension of the training in the case of the provincial units of the Indian Territorial Force. Experience in Bihar has shown that a period of fifty-six days gives far too short a training for the material composing the force, and that a period of three months in the first year and two months in each subsequent year is desirable.

5. On the question of the constitution and functions of the Advisory Committee and the responsibilities of the Local Government in regard to the provincial units of the Territorial Force, the Local Government see no objection to expanding the provincial Advisory Committee to five members instead of three and to constituting local unit committees where necessary, and probably a separate committee for the University Training Corps. At the same time it is feared that if the whole responsibility of collecting the material is left to the Advisory Committee and unless Government continue to nurse the movement for at least a few years to come, it is not likely that the Territorial Force will be successfully organised.

6. On two important points the Local Government are not wholly in agreement with the Committee. These points concern the liability of the Auxiliary Force and the urban units of the Territorial Force for general military service and the conditions of enrolment of Government servants in the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces. His Excellency's Government are doubtful of the wisdom of imposing the liability to general military service on the Auxiliary Force without much fuller investigation of its probable effect on the strength of the Force than appears so far to have been undertaken. They share the apprehensions of the General Officer Commanding, Presidency District, that the unlimited imposition of this liability might destroy the Auxiliary Force and deprive Government of the undoubted advantages which it derives from its existence. They would suggest that the military liability of the Auxiliary Force remain limited as at present, subject only to this addition that the Force should be liable for general military service within or without India on the occurrence of a grave emergency, to be certified by a special order of the Governor-General in Council. To meet any objection on the ground of differentiation, the Local Government consider that the military liability of the urban units of the Territorial Force should be similarly limited, that is, their normal liability should be confined to the province, and their liability for general service should only arise on special certification by the Governor-General in Council.

As regards Government servants, whether enrolled in the Auxiliary Force or in the urban units of the Territorial Force, their liability for military service should be the same as that of other members of these forces, except that the Local Government should be empowered to exempt from enforcement of the general service liability, when it arises, such Government officers as they certify to be required to carry on the essential work of the civil administration. Unless this latitude is allowed it will be very difficult for Government to encourage their servants to enrol.

7. On one other point the Local Government are doubtful of the expediency of the Committee's recommendation. While they would welcome any measure designed to create a healthy recognition of the duty of a citizen in the matter of national military service they fear that any attempt to penalise employers would defeat its own object and give the latter either an excuse to prohibit their employees from enrolling in the Auxiliary Force or the urban units of the Territorial Force, or an incentive to get rid of those employees who have enrolled in either Force. It is a matter which the Governor in Council considers must be left to the growing strength of public opinion.

8 On the remaining points of reference it is not necessary to reply at length. The proposed conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force, the proposal for the custody of arms and the proposal for rifle clubs are acceptable to the Local Government. The question of preliminary military training in schools will be considered in consultation with the educational authorities.

9. Lastly I am to say that there is a strong local feeling that the Bihar and Orissa Companies of the 11-19th Hyderabad Regiment should be separated from the Bengal Companies of that Regiment and should be styled "the Bihar and Orissa Territorial Battalion" in addition to its army designation.

10. I am to say that the above recommendations have been made by His Excellency in Council after consultation with the Hon'ble Ministers, particularly with reference to the recommendations relating to the University Training Corps, and that both sides of His Excellency's Government agree in the opinions expressed in this letter.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of the Central Provinces,
No. C-1084--584-II, dated the 19th June 1925.

I am directed to refer to Army Department letter No. A-31734-1 (A.G.), dated the 9th April 1925, asking for the views of this Government on the principal recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee. In reply, I am to say that on a number of the recommendations of the Committee, in particular those concerning the University Training Corps, provincial and urban units of the Territorial Force, and physical training in schools, this Government would prefer to defer its opinion until it has had an opportunity of consulting non-official opinion. This is the more necessary as no University Training Corps, nor yet any unit of the Territorial Force, at present exists in this province, whilst the province is also without Ministers who would take responsibility for any change in the ordinary curricula of the schools and the university. The situation in this respect will become clearer in August next. In the meantime I am to submit the views of this Government on the recommendations of the Committee which concern the Auxiliary Force.

2 The first proposal of importance affecting the Auxiliary Force is that the present restricted liability for military service should be extended to a liability for general military service both within and without the borders of India, and that the Force should be regarded as a second line to the regular British troops in India. The present conception of the Auxiliary Force is that of a defensive organization formed from a special class of the population, designed to aid the regular troops in times of internal trouble by taking over certain military duties, such as the manning of the heavy gun armament in the local military centres, the provision of rapid moveable patrols with light guns, and the safeguarding of important strategic points, such as bridges and lines of communication. Other duties of the Force would be to protect Government treasuries and bring in refugees. In introducing the idea of the force as a second line to the British regular army the Committee do not appear to have taken sufficient account of the fact that the paper strength of the Auxiliary Force is greatly in excess of the strength which would be available for military service, i.e., the active class. While the total strength of the Nagpur Rifles is 562, only 234 are in the "active" class, and if the same proportion prevails elsewhere it means that, out of the total of 33,000 for the whole of India, not more than 15,000 belong to the "active" class. It is also a matter for surprise that while imposing far greater obligations on the present force the Committee has not made any proposals for increasing its training and efficiency. This Government does not, however, desire to lay too much stress on these practical difficulties. It recognizes the importance of the considerations which were in the mind of the Committee when making the proposal, and would be quite prepared to accept the new conception of the Indian Auxiliary Force, provided the Committee's suggestions for the revision of its pay are dropped. (Vide paragraph 4 below.) This Government is advised that the effect of the changes in the pay of the Force, combined with the extension of liability for service, will be a reduction in the whole strength in this province by 30 or 40 per cent.; in other words the practical destruction of the Force. If the present conditions of pay are retained, the bulk of the Force will, this Government is confident, cheerfully undertake any responsibility which it is thought necessary to impose upon it.

3. In connection with the question of liability for general military service, this Government desires to refer to another matter of practical importance. The position under the Auxiliary Force Act at present is that, as soon as an enrolled member [Section 5 (i)] attains the age of 18 years (Section 7), he is liable to be called out for military service in the military area in which he is enrolled. Except for purely local emergencies he can only be called out by special order of the Civil Government [Section 18 (b)]. Under the Committee's proposals it is presumed from paragraph 14 of the Report that the calling out of the men for service will be in the hands of the military authorities without the safeguard provided at present by section 18 (b) of the Auxiliary Force Act. I am to point out that in this province the A. F. I. is almost entirely composed of the civil servants of Government. It is only natural that in an emergency the military authorities should subordinate all other considerations to military requirements. The point of view of the Civil Government is, however, of equal importance, and this Government regards it as essential that, in any amendment of the Act which may be undertaken, the power to order the general embodiment of the A. F. I. should remain as at present with the Civil Government. When embodiment has taken place the control would, of course, pass to the military authorities.

4. The question of the pay of the Auxiliary Force has been referred to in paragraph 2 above. The Committee propose to abolish the staff pay of officers, and to give no pay for any work done by officers or men except at camp (paragraph 19). This Government can see no justification for this distinction, which will have most unfortunate consequences. It will, for instance, entirely ruin the training of big gun teams, which has to be done largely at headquarters. For the reasons given in paragraph 2 above, this Government presses for the retention of the present system of pay and allowances.

5. This Government has no comment to make on the recommendations of the Committee regarding the conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force. The amendments suggested are the inevitable result of the change in the liability for service.

6. In paragraph 14 of the Report the Committee recommends that an employer, who places any hindrance in the way of one of his employees, who is a member of the Force, carrying out his training, should be made by law liable to punishment. This Government regards this proposal as both useless and dangerous. It is useless because—

- (a) An employer who desires to penalise an employee for attending a course of training in the Indian Territorial Force need not explicitly give his real reason, but will give any other trivial excuse, knowing that the employee will know the real reason of the punishment.
- (b) An employer need not directly penalise his employee for attending such a course of training, but when that employee commits any other small fault the employer will deal with him more severely than he otherwise would.
- (c) An employer may refuse permission, or withhold the grant of a bonus from an employee who insists upon attending a course of training against the wishes of the employer. He need not give any reason for doing so, but the employee will know, and, as these matters are and must be purely within the discretion of the employer, the employee will have no redress.
- (d) There are many employers who will simply refuse to employ any man who is a member of the Indian Territorial Force; and it will be impossible to compel them.

The proposal is dangerous because—

- (a) An employee who has been refused permission, or penalised in some other way, will have it within his power to allege that he has been penalised because he attended a course of training; and he may use his power of bringing a criminal complaint against his employer as a kind of blackmail.
- (b) The proposal is likely to hinder recruitment rather than to promote it, for employees may get the impression that membership of the Indian Territorial Force is a disqualification in the eyes of many employers.

7. In paragraph 26 (g) of the Report the Committee refer to what is one of the most serious matters connected with the problem of expanding the non-regular forces, namely the custody of arms and ammunition. Unless the military authorities are prepared to undertake expenditure on a large scale, the provision of armouries for the custody of all arms is impracticable. Pending a more complete examination of this question this Government merely desires to affirm its adhesion to two general principles, first, that no arms should be entrusted to persons who are not liable to be called up for embodiment under a military Act, and secondly that no arms should be kept, save under conditions approved by the military authorities.

8. This Government accepts the Committee's conclusions regarding the enrolment of Government servants in the Auxiliary Force. It is prepared to give every reasonable facility and encouragement to its servants to join the force.

9. In Annexure B (i) mention is made of the formation of rifle clubs. This Government would oppose the formation of such clubs except in connection with a definite military organisation. It regards it as illogical and dangerous to give arms to an organization which is not subject to a military Act, and the members of which are not qualified individually for licences under the Arms Act.

10. Lastly this Government desires to refer to one other matter connected with the Auxiliary Force. Annexure A-II of the Report appears to contemplate a revival of the old capitation grant system. This is a system, which, in the opinion of the Local Government lends itself readily to abuse and is founded on entirely wrong premises. It was rightly abandoned when the old Volunteer Force gave place to the Indian Defence Force and this Government would deprecate any proposal for its revival.

11. A copy of this letter has been sent to the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Southern Command.

Letter from the Officiating Chief Secretary to the Government of Assam No. 472C., dated the 19th June 1925.

I am directed to refer to your letter No A-31794 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, in which the Government of India have asked for the views of this Government on certain recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Governor in Council would have been glad if the Government of India had been able to allow more time for the examination of the important questions involved in these recommendations. The local branches of the Indian Tea Association, which are closely affected by some of the proposals, have not yet replied to the request for their advice. Moreover, the Governor in Council has not been able to obtain the opinion of the General Officer Commanding, Eastern Command, as desired in paragraph 3 of your letter. A copy of the letter will be sent to the General Officer Commanding with the request that he will send his comments on it direct to the Government of India. In all these circumstances the views expressed in this letter must be regarded as provisional.

3. The Committee in their Report have as their ideal the creation of a national army against the time when India attains full responsible government and takes on herself the whole burden of her defence, but while attaching perhaps the greatest importance to national education in this direction they are not unmindful of the military consideration of providing a second line of defence to support the regular forces in time of war. With the natural and laudable desire of thoughtful minds in India to foster steadily the military spirit by the careful inculcation of ideas of patriotism and the responsibilities of citizenship the Governor in Council is in the fullest sympathy. It would be idle to disguise the fact that the giving of practical effect to many of the Committee's recommendations would, in Assam particularly, be attended by many difficulties, but this Government are prepared cheerfully to carry out to the best of their powers any measures of encouragement accepted for the rest of India.

4. I am now to discuss the particular recommendations on which this Government have been asked to advise. The recommendation regarding preliminary military training in schools will be taken first, and thereafter the subjects will be dealt with on general lines in the order followed in the annexure to your letter.

(1) The Committee apparently want for school boys physical training accompanied by some form of military discipline to be adopted as part of the routine of all schools. The Governor in Council is of opinion that the objects of the Committee can best be attained in the first instance by the development of the Boy Scout movement which has made a promising beginning in many of the high schools of this province. The Scout training with its high ideals must give the necessary sense of discipline and patriotism, and there could be no better preliminary training for any military duties which a boy may be constrained to undertake in later life. It is true that the Scout movement was in its early days viewed with some suspicion because it was believed to be connected with military training and this suspicion may recur, but clearly there can be no hope of attaining the objects of the Committee unless a change in popular feeling can be brought about. In the opinion of the Governor in Council, the best results will follow from a development of this movement, and a readier response may be expected from the various sections of the community than a more strictly military form of training would evoke.

(2) The Committee propose that the functions of the University Training Corps should be primarily educational. The intention is that young men should be trained in military ideals and have the spirit of patriotism and the sense of discipline encouraged and that these Corps should ultimately become the recognized recruiting ground first for the Indian Territorial Force and then for officers for the regular army. With these general principles the Governor in Council is in complete agreement, but he is advised that for the present more will be gained by the development of the "Rover Scout" movement in the Colleges of Assam than by the formation of contingents of the University Training Corps. Assam has no recent military traditions and it would be wiser to be content with small beginnings. The chief difficulty would be the supply of officers on whose suitability the success of a University Training Corps must depend. In the Assam Colleges it will for many years to come be extremely difficult to obtain suitable officers. Moreover, apart from the actual training in the use of lethal weapons there is no virtue claimed for military training which cannot be as well attained by the Scout movement, while the latter goes beyond a purely military training in seeking to develop the idea of service to mankind in general and the development of the idea of human brotherhood. Should it be decided that fresh attempts should be made to form contingents of a University Training Corps in the Assam Colleges this Government will do all they can to co-operate, though the figures of enrolment in Calcutta itself are not encouraging. They must, however, stipulate that effective arrangements be made beforehand by the military authorities for the safe custody of the arms.

(3) With the recommendations of the Committee about the liability of the Indian Territorial Force to general military service the Governor in Council is in complete accord, but the case of the Auxiliary Force is altogether different. The Governor in Council has been favoured with a copy of the letter addressed by the General Officer Commanding, Presidency and Assam District, to the Government of Bengal, and endorses absolutely what is said in the following extracts :—

"The provision of a trained reserve in India for regular units both British and Indian is obviously desirable in the national interest."

"It is for the Bengal Government to decide whether they have a margin which would enable them to make such a sacrifice as the liability of the whole Auxiliary Force to general service implies. One-third of the Auxiliary Force in India is in this District; the scheme of the Committee for the whole of India thus is largely dependent on the decision of the Presidency and the associated provinces of Bihar and Orissa, and Assam."

"It is an axiom that the primary duty of the Auxiliary Force is the maintenance of law and order. If they are also to be made liable for general military service, other troops will have to be found for the first duty, when the Auxiliary Force is required elsewhere. These are not likely to be forthcoming. The protection of the planters of Bihar, Northern Bengal and Assam is a difficult problem which affects Bengal in a minor degree. At present these Corps are normally adequate for their serious responsibilities of protecting British lives and capital over widely scattered areas. A liability imposed on them of general military service—apart from the wastefulness of using such material in the ranks as reinforcements—would appear likely to have one of two results :—

(a) they would all resign at once,

(b) we should have no means of protecting their homes, families and factories when the members were called away for general service."

"I have, I admit, only six months' experience of local conditions. I have, however, formed the opinion that at this moment an unlimited liability of the Auxiliary Force to general military service is not feasible in Bengal, Assam and Bihar; there is no margin to justify it. On the other hand I consider a very valuable contribution to the Army in India Reserve of Officers could be made: a point which will be referred to later. The effect on enlistments of this recommendation of a liability of the Auxiliary Force for general military service must be a matter of surmise. I may add, however, that the mere suggestion in the report has already been advanced to me as a reason for poor recruiting results in a Calcutta unit."

"In conclusion * * * I suggest that with a strong lead from the Government of Bengal the Planter Class of Corps in which a high percentage of the Government officers under 35 years of age should serve, would provide a large percentage of officers for the Army in India Reserve of Officers in peace time; and in war would expand at once into Officers Training Corps, in addition to their duties of maintaining law and order locally. None of these men should be wasted in the ranks as was so often done—in the Honourable Artillery Company and London-Scottish, for instance—in the early days of the late war. In the Industrial Corps a fair percentage should belong to the Army in India Reserve of Officers and in favourable cases, such as the Cossipore Artillery, a service unit battery or company should be raised and maintained on a basis of limited liability for the individual, e.g., for two years, out of say 10 years' service the man volunteering for this unit should be liable for general service on mobilization. As regards the Railways, strategic lines, such as the East Indian Railway, can release officers more slowly and sparingly than others, still there would be a percentage available for engineer service overseas. There would be few, if any, rank and file from these units available; the Indianization of the Railways has had a marked effect on the Railway Battalions in this respect."

"On such lines much might be done to meet the desire of the Government of India to provide a reserve of officers in India in case of war. It must be admitted, however, that this will not help towards the provision of a reserve for the rank and file. Personally I am unable to see any reservoir from which to draw; the Jute trade alone can as I have suggested provide a few, but the white man who works with his hands in India never has been numerous and does not appear to be increasing."

With the desire of the Committee to remove all distinctions and cause of jealousy between the Indian Territorial Force and the Auxiliary Force the Governor in Council has every sympathy, but the safety of the province must override such considerations. There is at present no Territorial Force in Assam and it must be many years before such a force of any military value can be brought into being. The only military forces in Assam besides the Auxiliary Force is one battalion of the regular army and five battalions of Assam Rifles, all stationed in the hill districts and frontier areas. If the Auxiliary Force were called out for general military service there would be no margin for the protection of the province against internal trouble.

(4) The question of the creation and training of urban units does not arise in this

Units.

(5) The Committee are of opinion that unless members of the Indian Territorial Force undergo a period of three months of continuous training in the first year and of two months every year thereafter, they will be of no value as a second line of defence. This is a military question on which this Government are not competent to express an opinion, but the Governor in Council does not believe that men will enlist in the Indian Territorial Force on these terms in any numbers.

Extended training of the Indian Territorial Force.

Auxiliary Force and urban units not to receive pay for periodical parades.

(6) The Governor in Council expresses no opinion on these recommendations.

(7) and (8) The Committee's remarks on this subject are confined to the Advisory Committees for the Indian Territorial Force. The Governor in Council has no experience of the working of these Committees and refrains from commenting on the proposals. There are in existence two Committees each consisting of five members for the Auxiliary Force in Assam, one in the Surma Valley and one in the Assam Valley, but this Government are not in a position to say whether those Committees have been of much practical use.

Constitution, duties and functions of Advisory Committees.
Responsibilities of Local Governments.

Conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force

(9) The Committee's proposals on this subject are accepted.

(10) The Governor in Council doubts the wisdom of inserting in the Auxiliary Force Act and the Indian Territorial Force Act a provision making it a penal offence for employers to impose disabilities on employees who belong to the non-regular forces, but His Excellency in Council has no knowledge of how this works in Australia.

Penalisation of employers who impose disabilities on employees belonging to the non-regular forces.

(11) The Governor in Council agrees that the strictest precautions are required for the safe custody of arms, and that generally such arms should not be left in the personal custody of the members of any unit but should be kept in armouries or arsenals. An exception to this general rule must, however, be made in the case of those members of the Auxiliary Force who live at a distance from their headquarters. The majority of the members of this Force in Assam are scattered over the province in isolated places, and if in the event of any internal trouble they are required to rally at any centre they must be in a position to arrive at the rallying point armed. The delay involved in their having to go to the headquarters armoury to obtain their arms would be fatal. Moreover, individuals or small parties making long journeys without arms to the rallying point would be in grave danger. The subject of the effective guarding of armouries is one on which much correspondence has passed between this Government and the military authorities, and the present arrangements cannot be said to be altogether satisfactory.

Custody of arms.

(12) The Governor in Council is unable to agree to the recommendation that once the Local Government has given permission to an officer to join either the Auxiliary or the Indian Territorial Force the orders of the military authorities will be paramount in the event of embodiment of the Force. The Government of Assam have hitherto, so far as the Auxiliary Force is concerned, endeavoured to induce all their officers to join, acknowledging the weight of the reason given in paragraph 26 (h) of the Committee's Report. But it would clearly be impossible to allow officers like Deputy Commissioners and Superintendents of Police to abandon their regular posts at a time when exceptional duties would fall on them. If Government servants are to join these Forces the Government of Assam must insist on their consent being obtained before any officer is called out for military service.

Enrolment of Government servants.

5. I am to annex extracts from notes recorded by the Hon'ble Ministers on this reply. The Governor in Council does not desire to comment on these notes, beyond recalling the fact that the Assam armies of a hundred years ago had to face invaders from Burma rather than Bengal. The part played in the Great War by the Rabhas, Kacharis and other races who enlisted and were trained in the local battalions will always be a matter of pride to Assam. It may be, as the Hon'ble Minister for Education declares, that their example will inspire the less martial races, but of this there have so far been no indications.

Note recorded by the Hon'ble Minister for Local Self-Government.

I agree with the recommendations of the Committee entirely. I would in addition insist that the Universities should by their regulations make it obligatory on every undergraduate, subject to medical advice, to join the University Training Corps.

Assam indeed has no recent military traditions, but we need not despair. Given proper facilities and encouragement, the proper spirit will be forthcoming.

Eagerness for military training will be the acid test of our fitness for self-Government. To the extent to which we respond to the call, we shall show ourselves worthy of the goal promised to us.

Incidentally this might moderate the zeal of those who cry for immediate full self-government in season and out of season.

18th June 1925.

Note recorded by the Minister for Education.

With the whole of the reply, except that proposed for the Educational institutions, I agree.

I am for opening military training to our youths, and during the Great War, somewhere in 1915 or 1916, I moved a resolution in the local Council to arrange training centres in Assam, particularly at Gauhati, where a very crowded and enthusiastic meeting asking for volunteers for military training was successfully convened. I cannot forget the enthusiasm of our college boys in that meeting.

I am confident that if University Training Corps are started in our two colleges, very strong contingents could be formed.

For the schools, I will content myself with military drill without weapons, supplementing the boy scout movement.

I have quarrel with the phrase and Hon'ble Minister (L. S.-G.) that Assam has no recent military traditions. Assam came last under British possession of the Provinces of India. Till a hundred years ago, they had their own army, an army that showed its mettle against invasions from Bengal. Even now, in the last war, contingents of Jharuas, Rivas, Kacharis, were under fire both in the Western Frontier and Mesopotamia. If the Bhadralay classes of Assam were not barred from military service, they too would have followed their illiterate brothers.

The ultimate aim of the Committee's recommendations being the creation of a national army, it is my deliberate opinion that our graduates and undergraduates—who are now fighting for a clerkship with a paltry pittance—will be attracted in large numbers and they will form a more efficient army.

The 18th June 1925.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, No. 610, dated the 22nd June 1925.

Recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee—Your letter No. A.-31794-1 (A.G.) Organization, dated 9th April 1925.

The Government of India have drawn attention to those proposals in which it appears to them that the Local Governments will have a special interest, but have also invited the Local Government to express an opinion on any other matter arising out of the report if they desire to do so.

2. I am now to convey to you the final conclusions of the Madras Government after the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Southern Command, had been consulted with reference to their provisional conclusions.

3. Expansion and development of the University Training Corps.—The Local Government see no objection other than financial to the unlimited expansion of the University Training Corps provided that any members of the Corps, who are inefficient or show a lack of sufficient interest in it, are removed from the Corps without delay. There should, however, be no compulsion as it is necessary to test the willingness to undergo training and to undertake the eventual obligations involved in joining the corps. While the Local Government recognise the desirability of developing the technical units in view of the fact that reinforcements for such units in the regular army will be almost certainly required at an early stage in the event of an outbreak of war, they consider that the real issue will be the extent to which the classes who have demanded these extended opportunities will evince a readiness to enter the combatant ranks and not only miscellaneous and non-combatant services.

4. Liability for general military service.—The Local Government agree that there should be a common liability for the Indian Territorial Force and the Auxiliary Force as proposed by the Committee; the University Training Corps should not be subject to any liability for actual military service or be called upon to deal with internal disturbances. If, however, semi-trained troops are not to be used in the case of internal disturbances, it is essential that the Madras Presidency should not be denuded of its proper complement of regular troops.

5. Creation and training of Urban Units.—The Local Government accept the Committee's proposals and see no objection to an attempt to form urban units. The formation of urban units should be undertaken by degrees; the Government suggest that a beginning should be made in Madras and, if the movement is successful there, it may be extended to other towns later.

Technical units may be formed but, as stated above, the Local Government consider that what has to be tested is willingness to join the combatant ranks.

6. Extended training of the Indian Territorial Force (Provincial) Units.—The Local Government fear that the proposal to expand the training of provincial units on the lines suggested by the Committee may seriously affect recruitment; but notwithstanding the difficulties pointed out the Local Government are prepared to give a trial to the Committee's recommendations as they recognise that the Territorial Force should receive more intensive training than at present. Propaganda will be necessary to encourage the right class of persons to join it. The old military families should be induced to take an interest in it, and every large landholder should be induced by an appeal to his patriotism and to his sense of public duty to recruit for the force. Platoons formed by such landholders should be commanded by officers of the land-holding class carefully selected with reference to their character and status.

7. Pay for periodical parades.—The Local Government agree with the Committee that the members of the Auxiliary Force and of urban units of the Indian Territorial Force should not receive pay for periodical parades, but only allowances on a sufficient scale to prevent any individual member losing pecuniarily by attendance at such parades.

8. Constitution, duties and functions of Advisory Committees.—The Local Government accept the Committee's recommendations on this head. Military opinion and experience must be largely represented on the committees if they are to function at all.

9. Responsibilities of Local Government.—The Local Government accept the Committee's proposals that, before any new unit is raised, their concurrence should be obtained and its composition should be determined on their advice given after consultation with the local advisory committee and the local military authorities.

10. Conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force.—The Local Government consider that respectable and selected subjects of friendly European and American nations should be permitted, if they so desire, to undertake obligations towards the country in which they live. In other respects the Local Government accept the recommendations of the Committee.

11. Preliminary military training in schools.—The Local Government will give the suggestions made by the Committee their careful consideration. While physical training in schools is an excellent thing if intelligently conducted, the Government doubt whether it fosters military instincts; they also doubt whether it is necessary or desirable directly to foster militarism in schools and would prefer to develop physical training and to encourage the scout movement which is already very popular in mufassal schools in this Presidency. They consider that the establishment of cadet corps should wait until some experience is gained of the progress made by the main movement for the establishment of the Indian Territorial Force.

12. Penalisation of employers.—The Government are not in favour of the proposals made by the Committee for the penalisation of employers who impose disabilities on employees belonging to the non-regular forces. They would prefer so far as the Auxiliary Force is concerned to rely on the influence of the Chambers of Commerce and of the more public-spirited employers. As regards Indian employers the Local Government would, at any rate at first, test their professions of patriotism by leaving them entirely untrammelled. Any attempt to penalise employers, as suggested by law, would probably be found to be of little use owing to difficulties in its administration and it might by arousing resentment prejudice employers against the movement.

13. Custody of Arms.—The Local Government accept the recommendations of the Committee.

14. Enrolment of Government servants.—The Local Government can allow Government servants to enter only the Auxiliary Force and the urban units of the Territorial Force. They cannot, without incurring considerable public expenditure and administrative dislocation, permit their officers to be absent for the long periods of training proposed for provincial units. The loyalty and patriotism of Government servants ought not to be open to question, but the fact remains that, as few Government servants could be spared for mobilization, the obligations undertaken by them would not be real; they would be aware of this and their presence in provincial units would give a false impression of the results obtained.

15. Rifle clubs.—The Government agree with the Committee that it is desirable to establish rifle clubs where proper arrangements for the effective protection of arms and ammunition exist. Where this cannot be assured the establishment of miniature rifle clubs may be considered.

Letter from the Chief Commissioner, Delhi, No. 5003, dated the 1st July 1925.

In reply to your letter No. A.-31794—1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, I have the honour to forward my opinion on each matter detailed in the annexure thereto *

* No reply has yet been received by me from the Superintendent of Education, Delhi, on the recommendation in 26 (a). * * *

- (e) 28 (v) ... I agree.
- (f) 28 (ix) ... There is in Delhi an Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee but no I. T. F. Committee. The existing Committee does not actually function. I doubt if the proposals for the extension of the functions of the Committees would put any life into them : unless the military members were empowered and instructed to convene the Committees at stated intervals, say once a month, and record regular proceedings. There would be no I. T. F. Committee in Delhi unless urban companies were raised and even so the unit Committee would be the Provincial Committee.
- 26 (d) ... Subject to the above I agree.
- (g) 28 (ix) 24 (IV)
(i) (b) ... I accept this.
- (h) 25 (iv) (i) ... I agree.
- (i) 26 (a) ... I am making enquiries from the Superintendent of Education.
- (j) 26 (f) ... I agree.
- (k) 26 (g) ... From the civil point of view there is no objection to this.
- (l) 26 (h) ... The principles suggested are appropriate.
- (m) Annexure B. I. ... I agree.
- (a) 28 (i) ... I accept this.
- 28 (viii) ... I agree as to the U. T. C.
I agree that the possibility of raising urban companies in Delhi should be explored and such companies if possible should be raised. I do not think that we can touch the technical units in Delhi at present.
- (b) 28 (ii) ... I accept this.
- (c) 28 (iii) ... An urban company would at first have to admit untrained educated men, but as soon as recruits from the U. T. C. become available they should be preferred ceteris paribus to new untrained men and if necessary slack men of the original recruits should be compelled to make way for the U. T. C. recruits. The training of urban companies should be the same as that for the U. T. C. if that is possible and in Delhi they should form part of the same unit. The liability for service in the urban companies should be that of the I. T. F.
- 24 (v) (i) (b) ... I agree.
- (d) 28 (iv) ... There is no provincial unit in Delhi but prima facie the period of training is at present insufficient.

Letter from the Home Secretary to Government, Punjab, No. 1153-S.—Mily., dated the 1st July 1925.

I am directed by the Governor in Council to forward for the intermediate information of the Government of India a copy of Punjab Government letter No. 1040-S., dated 27th June 1925, addressed to the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Northern Command, and to say that any modification of the conclusions of the Governor in Council which may be found necessary on receipt of the reply of the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Northern Command, will be communicated later.

Copy of a letter from the Home Secretary to the Government, Punjab, to the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Northern Command, No. 1040-S., dated the 27th June 1925.

I am directed to address you as desired in paragraph 3 of the Government of India, Army Department, letter No. 31791 of the 9th April 1925, of which a copy was sent to you through the Adjutant-General in India, and to say that the Governor in Council has delayed consulting you till he had received the opinions of Commissioners and other officers.

2. The Punjab Government find little to criticize in the Committee's report, which does not suggest any far-reaching changes in the existing constitution of the two forces. They feel some doubt regarding the probability of the growth of the urban or educated corps, unless indeed this is stimulated by recruitment for sectional or partisan reasons. But the correctness of this anticipation may be left to the test of experience. The Auxiliary Force will, if the Committee's proposals are carried out, see some reduction in numbers. The Governor in Council does not see any serious objection to the proposals regarding the class of commissions to be granted in the two Forces.

3. The Committee's proposals regarding obstruction by employers, the enrolment of Government servants and military training in schools are not essential features of their scheme. As regards the first, I am to say that the Governor in Council's opinion will depend on the specification of the disabilities whose imposition will be rendered penal, but that on general grounds he is opposed to the creation of offences which are difficult of proof, and to provisions which will prejudice members of the forces in obtaining employment. As regards the second, Government accepts the recommendations of the Committee but anticipates administrative and financial difficulties in making Government servants available for enrolment more freely than the past. In the Punjab at all events these difficulties are likely to impose a strict limit on enrolment. The Governor in Council appreciates the advantages of inculcating in pupils while at school the principles of patriotic military service but, for reasons connected with the corporate unity of schools, considers it unlikely that for the present anything can be done to give military training to school pupils or to introduce military instructors there. As school staffs gradually become composed of old members of University Training Corps, conditions may, it is hoped, approximate to those obtaining in England.

4. More important than any of these considerations is the question of the custody of arms. From the point of view of this Government, this will be the chief difficulty, and it is a matter which already gives rise to some anxiety. The Governor in Council accepts the recommendations of the Committee in this regard contained in paragraph 26 (g) of their report, and lays great stress on their uniform observation in practice.

Telegram from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Home Department, No. 5655-2, dated the 2nd July 1925.

Your wire A.-31794-4 (A. G.), June 30th. Bombay Government agree generally with recommendations of the Territorial and Auxiliary Forces Committee on following points as set out in annexure to your No. A.-31794-1 (A. G.) of 9th April 1925 :—

- (1) Expansion, etc., of University Training Corps.
- (2) Creation and training urban units.
- (3) Extended training Indian Territorial Force Provincial units.
- (4) No pay periodical parades.
- (5) Responsibilities of Local Governments.
- (6) Preliminary military training in schools.
- (7) Custody of arms.
- (8) Enrolment of Government servants.
- (9) Rifle clubs.

It considers proposals about penalisation of employers inexpedient and impracticable. Views on other points will be telegraphed in a day or two.

Letter from the Deputy Secretary to the Government of the United Provinces, General Administration Department, No. 3429, dated the 3rd July 1925.

I am directed to reply to the Government of India, Army Department, letter No. A.-31794-1 (A. G.), dated April 9th, 1925. In this letter the Government of India, besides asking for the views of this Government on certain definite proposals, invite an opinion on any other matter arising out of the report, and I am therefore to discuss first the Committee's general conclusions on the functions and constitution of the Territorial and Auxiliary Forces.

2. In paragraph 24 (i) (iv) of their report the Committee, for reasons stated in paragraph 6, say that the active section of the Indian Territorial Force should be regarded as—

- (i) a means of imparting military and patriotic ideals to the non-martial classes and of familiarising them with military training and service ;
- (ii) a second line to the regular army, its functions as such being to relieve regular units of garrison duties, to reinforce the first line in time of war and to be used in aid of the civil power.

The Governor in Council considers that these objects are incompatible. If the provincial battalions are to be really a second line supplementary to the regular army, they must be composed of the same classes as that army. Similarly the University Training Corps cannot "be viewed as a foundation for the national army" or "envisaged as the recognised recruiting ground for the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Indian Territorial Force"—vide paragraphs 9 and 20 of the report. It is not possible to combine an educational scheme with one for the formation of units of real military value. From the military point of view it is indisputable that any addition to strength should be of the highest quality obtainable and that no recourse should be had to inferior material so long as the superior can meet the demand caused by expansion and wastage. During the Great War the Indian army attained a strength in the neighbourhood of 750,000 men. New experiments in recruiting yielded little results. It needed no demonstration to prove that those classes whose recruitment had been restricted or stopped before the war owing to a systematic policy aimed at securing improvement in quality could still produce troops of known, if not the highest, value. Many of those classes were hardly touched: at any rate, the number enlisted was but a minute fraction of the number obtainable. It is clear that in case of need a number at least as great as that obtained recently could be secured without recourse to classes of unknown and untried value. It is idle to urge that untapped sources might prove as valuable as those whose worth is known for so risky an experiment could not be attempted in time of war. Apart from this, it is clearly an advantage to have an army as homogeneous as possible. This is a matter of practical consideration and enters largely into the question of drafts, supplies and many other matters which are of vital importance to a commander in the field. It would be a fatal mistake to maintain a second line differing widely in composition from the regular army, and the logical result is that if new classes are to be admitted to the second line, they should have their counterparts already existing in the peace establishments of the regular forces. It will be impossible in war to evade the vexed question of drafting. A second line must fulfil its proper functions and, if it is not to be used to make good wastage, it becomes necessary at once to create another for that purpose. The logical conclusion is that the provincial battalions cannot be used as a training ground for the so-called non-military classes. The present composition of the units supports this conclusion. Many of the non-military classes came forward at the beginning but they rapidly drifted away. Recruits from educated classes, particularly those who had been brought up in towns, found the routine, discipline and hard work of the training distasteful. The expansion of the period of training will make matters worse. The work is harder and more prolonged and young men of the educated classes will find it difficult to abandon their professions for so long a period as eight weeks. The Committee themselves admit that the provincial battalions have failed to achieve their educational purpose. It is better to recognize facts and to confine the active battalions of the Indian Territorial Force to their proper functions of providing a second line to the regular army.

3. It follows that the University Training Corps cannot be viewed as a foundation of the national army, nor as the principal training ground for officers and other ranks. The Governor in Council recognizes the value of the University Training Corps. Much good has been done by its agency already and much more can be accomplished. But he has no belief in its military value so far as the immediate problem of Indian defence is concerned. In this country the number of young men who go to the Universities with an idea of subsequent military service is negligible. For the vast majority the university is simply a road to employment. A young man is expected to earn his living as soon as he has obtained his degree. Competition in the public service and in the professions is already so severe that few, if any, can risk their chance of success by following a secondary calling until they are established in life. The young man of education, moreover, is not in the least likely to take keenly to the life of a sepoy. He may aspire to a commission, but it is highly improbable that he would be able to afford the greater length of time required to fit him for that responsible position. If, as is possible, the requisite numbers could be found from those of independent means, another difficulty arises. The young man of position is very unwilling to face the hard work, both on the parade-ground and in the lecture-room, necessarily demanded of those who would qualify for appointment as officers. It is not likely that the University Training Corps can ever produce in their thousands the men who would be needed in the ranks either of the Indian Territorial Force or of the regular "national" army.

4. The urban units for similar reasons are unlikely to be of much military value. The period of training is too short for that. But if it is accepted that their object is primarily educational and not military, they will be of great utility, and from this point of view the expenditure on them will be justified. They will enable the cadets of the University Training Corps to carry on their military training after they have left the university and adopted a profession. The Governor in Council agrees with the view taken by the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Eastern Command, that these units should generally be technical units as suggested by the Committee in paragraph 16. As their appeal will lie to the educated classes, some definite educational standard, such as the high school (formerly school-leaving) examination, should be a condition for enrolment in the force.

5. But, if the urban units are to be definitely educational, it will not be desirable to impose on them a liability for general service. It may be possible to impose it later, but to insist on it at once would be to handicap the scheme from the start. The object in view is to familiarise the educated classes with military training and service and to impart military and patriotic ideals to the non-martial classes. The liability to general service would frighten many who would otherwise join, and defeat the object aimed at. Moreover this liability would have no real value from the military point of view. The Committee (paragraph 10) recognize that these units could be used for re-inforcements only as individuals and sub-units and not as complete units, and their military efficiency would probably be so low that it would take as long to make them fit for service in the field as to train a unit of new recruits. Their liability should therefore be confined to local service.

6. For these reasons the Governor in Council, while admitting the dual purpose of the Indian Territorial Force, considers that to attempt to achieve this purpose in the same units would be inconsistent and impracticable. He recommends therefore that the second line to the regular army should be provided by the provincial units which should be composed of the same classes as the regular army and should have a liability for general service within and without India. The urban units on the other hand should be regarded as mainly educational: they will provide scope for the patriotism of the educated classes, who for professional and other reasons are unable to undergo the more rigorous training of the provincial units. They should be liable for local service only.

7. In regard to the Auxiliary Force this Government are unable to concur in the more important proposals made by the Committee. These are—

- (i) to abolish the pay and allowances now given to members of the force, and
- (ii) to impose a liability for general service.

In the opinion of many well qualified judges these proposals, if adopted, would entail the virtual abolition of the force. Both would be unpopular and would occasion so many resignations that the force would cease to be of any military value at all. Taking the proposals together, the justice of extending the liability and taking away the compensations is at least debatable. Taking them separately, the first is mainly a matter of finance. Whether the value of the force is worth the expenditure involved is a matter for the military authorities to decide. But even assuming that those whose membership is conditional on the grant of pay are not the best material, they at least swell the numbers of the efficient. Genuine enthusiasm can do little unless backed by numbers. Even among those who agree to serve without pay there will probably be less inclination to attend parades regularly and a consequent loss of efficiency. The second proposal has other disadvantages. Much the same can be said of it as has already been said above in connexion with urban units. In addition the Auxiliary Force is often regarded as a very fine potential reserve for the Indian Army Reserve of Officers, and the presence of its members in the ranks in a time of emergency would be wasteful. Again many of its members are officials and, if they are liable in times of emergency to be removed from their administrative duties without the consent of the Government, the latter might have no option but to refuse to allow them to join the force at all. The force has always been regarded as intended for internal security only, and the Governor in Council protests against any extension of this liability. If this view is accepted, membership of the Auxiliary Force need not be confined to British subjects and the proposal of the Committee in paragraph 25 (I) (IV) to excise sub-section (d) is unnecessary.

8. In discussing the general conditions of service of the four branches of the non-regular force, this Government have already expressed an opinion on several of the points specifically referred by the Government of India. The remaining points will be discussed in the order given in the annexure to the Government of India letter.

(i) Expansion and development of the University Training Corps.

As stated above, the Governor in Council recognizes the good work already done and the great possibilities of the University Training Corps and he entirely endorses the proposal of the Committee that it should be allowed to expand up to its natural limits without any restrictions save that of finance. He considers that it should be officered on the lines of the British Army. As the object of the force is admittedly educational, there is no point in assimilating its constitution to that of the provincial battalions and introducing the Indian commissioned ranks of Subedar and Jamadar. All commissions in this force should be Viceroy's commissions with European titles as in the old Volunteer Force. In this it would differ from the provincial battalions, which must be assimilated to the regular Indian Army for the reasons given previously.

(ii) Urban Units.

For the same reason these units also should be officered on the lines of the British Army. A difficulty arises in connexion with the question of payment. As stated above, the Governor in Council would prefer to maintain the present system of payment in the Auxiliary Force. It is not so easy to justify a similar system in the case of the urban units, but it would be politically undesirable to differentiate between these two branches, which are to have exactly the same training and the same liabilities. For this reason only this Government consider that urban units also should receive pay for their periodical parades, and the time spent by them in camp. As these units should, as proposed by the Committee, be confined to really large towns where military authorities can arrange for the safe custody of arms, the cost may not be very great.

(iii) Annual training of the Indian Territorial Force (provincial units).

The Governor in Council agrees that the training of the provincial units should be increased to three months in the first year and two months subsequently.

(iv) Advisory Committees.

These committees have in practice been of little use. A committee of three to serve a whole province cannot be expected to achieve anything and no increase of numbers within reasonable limits would enable the provincial committee to take over responsibility for recruiting or perform any other useful function. If there are to be advisory committees at all, they should be constituted at and for the headquarters of each provincial and urban battalion, as proposed by the Committee on page 55 of their report. It has been suggested that these local committees should consist of seven members and not five, with a non-official majority, so as to emphasize the fact that the responsibility for the movement must rest with the public and not with officials. The Governor in Council considers this suggestion to be worth consideration. In any case he would prefer to abolish the provincial committee.

(v) Responsibilities of Local Governments.

The Governor in Council agrees with the proposal to make Local Governments responsible for determining the composition of new units.

(vi) Preliminary Training in Schools.

In accordance with a resolution passed in the local Legislative Council the Government have already constituted a committee to consider whether military drill can be introduced in schools in conjunction with the present system of physical exercises. This Government's opinion must necessarily depend to a great extent on the report of that committee, and the Governor in Council prefers not to anticipate it.

(vii) Penalisation of employers who impose disabilities on employees belonging to the non-regular forces.

The Governor in Council considers this proposal impracticable. The introduction of such a measure would do more harm than good and the position of an employee on account of whom an employer had been penalised would be impossible. The Upper India Chamber of Commerce opposes the proposal very strongly.

(viii) Custody of Arms.

The Governor in Council agree with the recommendations of the Committee and considers it essential that arms should be kept in safe custody and not by the members of the force. He is not, however, prepared to cancel the rule existing in this province forbidding the deposit of volunteer arms in police armouries. Consequently where military armouries are not available it will be necessary to build special armouries and to employ extra police to guard them, and the cost of these will naturally fall, as contemplated by the Committee (paragraph 10), on the military budget.

(ix) Enrolment of Government servants in Auxiliary or Territorial Force.

This is a difficult question and the Governor in Council does not feel that the Committee have found a satisfactory solution of it. He is anxious to encourage Government servants to join the non-regular forces, for their own sakes as well as for the sake of the example; and he also recognizes that when a Government servant has been allowed to join, the military authority must be paramount in order to maintain the efficiency of the unit. But the provincial administration must be carried on even in times of grave emergency, and it may be that on such occasions the Government will have most need of the services of its officers. It is partly for this reason that the Governor in Council deprecates the imposition of a liability for general military service on the Auxiliary Force and, to a lesser degree, on the urban units of the Territorial Force. It is also difficult without great expense and administrative inconvenience to allow prolonged absences from duty during the periods of annual training. It is, at best, a partial solution to lay down that Government servant before joining the force must obtain the written permission of the Local Government: it is impossible to forecast what the duties or position of a Government servant will be when an emergency arises at some future time. The Government, however, are prepared to accept this solution in the case of the Auxiliary Force and the urban units, especially if these units have no liability for general service and (with certain exceptions, as for example the Police service) will do its utmost to encourage its servants to join. The conditions of the provincial units are different, and the Governor in Council regrets that he will be unable to allow Government servants to join these units.

(xi) Rifle Clubs.

The Governor in Council concurs with the recommendation of the Committee on this point.

Letter from the Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province, No. 2066-G. N.—
12/28/23/25, dated the 4th July 1925.

With reference to your letter No. A./31794/1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, and in continuation of my telegram No. 103/G. N. /12/28, dated the 1st July 1925, I have the honour to forward a copy of my letter No. 971-G. N., dated the 6th June 1925, addressed to the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Northern Command, and to say that the views expressed therein are those held by me, subject to any modifications on receipt of the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief's opinion.

Letter from the Chief Commissioner, North-West Frontier Province, to the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Northern Command, No. 971/G. N., dated the 6th June 1925.

I have the honour to refer to the Government of India, Army Department letter No. A.-31794-1 (A. G.), dated Delhi, the 9th April 1925, a copy of which was forwarded to you through the Adjutant-General in India. In that letter my attention was invited to the Report of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee and I was requested to record my views on certain specified questions in consultation with you.

In recording my views it will be convenient to deal, one by one, with the questions referred to in the annexure to the afore-mentioned letter.

Expansion and Development of University Training Corps, 28 (i) and (viii).

I consider that as recruitment is purely voluntary, the recommendations of the Committee may be accepted.

Liability of Auxiliary Force and of I. T. F. for general military service, 28 (11).

I agree with the recommendations of the Committee regarding liability but the question as regards whether these units would be suitable for use as complete units in time of war, or whether they should be used to supply drafts for regular battalions, is one which will have to be decided according to the degree of efficiency to which they eventually attain.

Creation and training of urban units, 28 (iii) and 24 (v) (1) (b).

I agree with the recommendations of the Committee.

Extended training of I. T. F. (Provincial units), 28 (iv).

I agree that the period of training should be extended and suggest that 3 months in the first year and 2 months each year subsequently would be suitable.

Members of Auxiliary Force and I. T. F. not to receive pay for periodical parades, but conditions to be improved, (28)-(v).

I agree with the recommendations of the Committee.

Constitution, duties and functions of Advisory Committees, 28 (ix) and 26 (d).

I agree that the duties and powers of the Advisory Committees should be more closely defined and that they should, in particular, be made responsible for recruiting and influencing public opinion in favour of the scheme.

Responsibilities of Local Governments, 28 (ix) and 24 (iv) (i) (b).

I agree with the recommendations of the Committee.

Conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force, 25 (iv) (i).

As there is no unit of the Auxiliary Force in this Province, the point does not at present arise, but I am generally in favour of the recommendations of the Committee.

Preliminary Military training in Schools, 26 (a).

I concur generally in the Committee's recommendations but there may be financial difficulties.

Penalisation of employers who impose liabilities on employees belonging to non-regular forces, 26 (f).

I agree that legislation on the lines proposed would be desirable.

Custody of arms, 26 (g).

I agree but would suggest that, at first, armouries should be in the charge of regular units.

Enrolment of Government servants in Auxiliary and Territorial Forces, 26 (h).

I agree generally but propose to emphasize that it will be very difficult for the Local Government to give permission for civil servants to join in the Frontier Province where military operations always involve a great increase of work in civil offices.

Rifle clubs, Annexure B. I.

I agree that rifle clubs would be useful provided the military authorities can make suitable arrangements for storing the rifles and ammunition and for checking the expenditure of the latter.

Owing to the delay in obtaining local opinions regarding these points I fear that it will not be possible to reply to the Government of India's letter by the 6th June, but in order that a reply may be communicated to them without further delay, I should be much obliged if you would kindly furnish me with an expression of your opinion on the points raised as soon as may be practicable.

Letter from the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Home Department, No. 5655-II, dated the 6th July 1925.

I am directed to reply to Government of India letter No. A./31794/1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, dealing with the recommendations of the Committee on the Territorial and Auxiliary Forces. In my telegram No. 5655-II, dated the 2nd July 1925, I have already indicated those points of detail referred to in the annexure to your letter under reply on which this Government is in agreement with the recommendations of the Committee.

These are (1) the expansion and developments of the University Training Corps, (2) the creation and training of urban units, (3) the extended training of the Indian Territorial Force (Provincial units), (4) members of the Auxiliary Force and of urban units of the Indian Territorial Force not to receive pay for periodical parades, (5) constitution, functions and duties of Advisory Committees, (6) responsibilities of Local Governments, (7) preliminary military training in schools, (8) custody of arms, (9) enrolment of Government servants in Auxiliary and Territorial Forces, (10) Rifle clubs. Regarding the proposed legislation for the penalisation of employers, I am to say that this Government consider such a measure inexpedient and impracticable. These, I am to say, are regarded by this Government as points of detail, some, no doubt important, but none touching on the major questions of policy such as are raised by the remaining terms of reference in the annexure, viz, the question of the liability of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces for general service. I am to treat of the Territorial and Auxiliary Forces separately.

The suggestion of the Committee, so far as it concerns the Territorial Force, appears to be based on a view of the function of that Force with which this Government is unable to agree. At the outset the Committee very properly lay stress on the dual function of the Territorial Force in India—educative and military—but their concrete proposals, save in so far as these affect the University Training Corps, are based exclusively on military considerations. This Government is prepared to concede that so far as concerns the provision of a practical second line to the Indian Army, of immediate potential use, the proposals of the Committee are unexceptionable and that if the military budget of India is not to be burdened with training units which are not likely to prove in the early future of any practical use in emergency, then no units should be embodied which are not liable for general service. At the same time it must record its opinion that to adopt this policy would, so far as this Presidency at least is concerned, result in one important respect in a fiasco which will react most unfavourably on the credit of Government in India. The imposition of liability for general service on those units which are recruited from the Indian races and classes which have for centuries constituted the warlike forces of India would probably have little effect on recruitment and I am to say that with regard to the Provincial Units this Government accepts the views of the Committee. But those other races described by the Committee as non-martial in their paragraph 24-I (1) would, in the opinion of this Government, refuse to accept any such liability. The new urban battalions would never materialise and in Bombay at least the existing battalions would be seriously depleted if they were not absolutely extinguished. The Committee state their belief that "Public opinion if properly informed" would be in favour of the proposals. It is possible that it may be so—but this Government gravely doubts that the "Public opinion" will be that of persons who will not expect to be called on to serve and will not find any reflection in the figures of recruitment. The realisation by the Parsi Battalions in Bombay of the actual nature of their liabilities under the Territorial Forces Act has had a considerable effect on their keenness and efficiency and has raised a clamour in the public press which has only been stilled pending the report of the Committee. If that be the case with the only urban community in the Presidency which has shown any aptitude for military training and which has by its position in the society of the Presidency been practically forced into fitting itself for self-defence, there is in the opinion of this Government no likelihood whatever of other communities being found willing to take on themselves at present any liability which involves a prospect of actual warfare, save in the immediate defence of their homes. The political effect would be disastrous. The blame for failure would not be put on the lack of martial ardour among those affected. It would be laid on the shoulders of Government, who would be told that they have once more produced a scheme which while professing to satisfy popular claims postpones indefinitely the demand of the educated classes of India for military training.

The arguments of the Committee in their paragraph 11 are based on an a priori psychology which ignores facts and which forgets the importance of what they call "make-believe". The Parsi Company of the Auxiliary Force in Bombay with a limited local liability are keener and more efficient than the territorial battalions drawn from the same community. It is probable that few of the Territorial Forces in England ever envisaged the prospect of seeing active service, but the spirit of emulation in a manly art kept them keen and efficient. The first thing to be done is to arouse this spirit. The Committee appear to forget that they are dealing—in their proposals regarding urban battalions—with youths in whom the instinct even for manly games and physical exercises is in its infancy. The considerations which they apply to the University Training Corps in their paragraph 8 apply with practically equal force to the proposed urban battalions. Neither of them need be expected for many years to come to be of great or indeed of any military value, but this fact does not, in the view of this Government, give any ground for the conclusion of the Committee that "it would be useless to create the urban units if owing to their limited liability they were not available for service in time of emergency at the discretion of the military authorities". The argument has, in view of the nature of the problem, as little validity as if it were applied to School Cadet Corps and is a direct negation of the view already enunciated by them that the educative value of these forces is the first of their purposes (paragraph 6). Nor is it certain that even on the basis of limited liability such units would be entirely useless. It would be possible to secure an adequate number of recruits for such urban units if their liability was limited to the duties of relieving the regular army of the garrison, to the maintenance of internal security and to other less exacting duties.

Apart from this potential value, this Government would strongly press the view that the executive value of these battalions justifies expenditure though the fruits of such expenditure may not be reaped even in this generation and that to a wider vision it would appear that it would be of profit to incur expenditure even in merely teaching and educating the members of the urban battalions in military science. The budget expenditure of the regular army in 1924-25 was 58 crores. The expenditure on the Territorial Force in the same year was 33 lakhs and on the Auxiliary Force was 77 lakhs. In the opinion of this Government, the considerations which I have already set out indicate that in so far as the Territorial Force is concerned there is room for a considerable expansion of expenditure. If that cannot be provided from within the present limits of the army budget it is imperative that it should be found from some other source.

It appears to the Governor of Bombay in Council essential to attract, in the first instance, as many recruits as possible to the second line Forces. When such recruits have realised from their military training, the necessity of a second line of defence accepting a liability to serve overseas, more and more will be prepared to voluntarily accept the liability to such service; but until they have been trained to a full appreciation of the necessity of such a liability as set forth so clearly in the report, the Governor of Bombay in Council would view with grave concern the acceptance of the recommendation by the Committee for the imposition of any such liability.

The Governor of Bombay in Council would therefore suggest that the conditions of service for the urban units of the Indian Territorial Force should be made the same as those for the Auxiliary Force under the Auxiliary Forces Act of 1920, and that the conditions for the provincial battalions should remain as at present laid down in the Indian Territorial Forces Act of 1920.

Turning to the Auxiliary Force, I am to say that the information of this Government is to the effect that the imposition of liability to general service would be attended by a grave risk of the depletion of the existing units. It cannot accept the view that it should be looked on as "a second line to the British Troops in India" to be used presumably in the same way as second line troops raised in Great Britain. As pointed out by the Committee it is an organisation of peculiar nature with a definite function. It is in no way analogous to the territorial battalions of the Indian Army. Many of its members in Bombay are men engaged in civil activities which in war would be of vital importance—such as shipping and export, and to attempt to mobilise the local forces as units for employment on general service would be impossible. Experience has shown that in an emergency as many of the members of the Auxiliary Forces as can be spared from their civil activities will come forward and this Government is of opinion that it would be well to leave the present position undisturbed. No cry has ever been raised to assimilate the conditions of service to those of the provincial units of the Territorial Force. The cry of racial discrimination has been raised by those who if they join at all will join the urban battalions and has indeed been raised by those more often than not as an explanation or excuse of their own failure to join the Territorial Force. If the proposals of this Government with regard to the urban battalions are accepted the liabilities of the two forces will be the same and the proposal which appears to be based mainly on political grounds will be unnecessary.

With regard to the proposals of the Committee regarding conditions of eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force [25 (iv) (1)] this Government agrees with the proposals of the Committee, and if its proposals regarding the urban units are accepted would be willing to delete the reservation proposed and to see the present members of the Auxiliary Force transferred to the Territorial Battalions.

With reference to paragraph (iv) (c), I am to say that this Government is of opinion that the conditions of service (rations, uniform, etc.), should, for urban battalions, be such as to be suitable to the ordinary habits of the members of the force.

Telegram from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 6584-P., dated the 6th July 1925.

Your letter dated 25th June, No. 221 and your telegram dated 30th June, No. 31794. Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee. Local Government deprecate proposal to penalise employer as being calculated injure recruitment. Local Government accept view that the creation of new units should require Local Government's concurrence. On larger question Local Government not yet been able to obtain advice of community concerned and any of the views now formed are liable to reconsideration. University Corps proposal generally acceptable but must depend on the success of the efforts to make the Territorial Force an efficient reality. Great difficulty apparent in the Committee's attempt to fulfil both objects of Territorial Force, paragraph 6 and proposal to fulfil second, likely to destroy first. Attempts to convert Auxiliary Force into second line for British troops likely to destroy force and deprive Local Government of its assistance in internal commotion. Seems better to regard it as Officers' Training Corps rather than second line.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 1194-P.D., dated the 21st July 1925.

I am directed to refer to Army Department letter No. A.-31794-1 (A. G.), dated the 9th of April 1925, calling for an opinion on the recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee, and to submit the opinion of the Government of Bengal on the recommendations affecting military training in schools and the expansion and development of University Training Corps.

2. These recommendations may be summarised as follows:—

- (i) Military training should commence wherever possible in schools [paragraph 28 (i) and paragraph 8] ;
- (ii) The University Training Corps should be regarded as the foundation-stone of the national army and no artificial limit should be set to the expansion of the Corps. [Paragraphs 8, 9 and 28 (i), (ii) and (v).] Detailed recommendations for the constitution of the University Training Corps are made in Chapter III of the Report.

Military training in Schools.—On the important question of the introduction of military training in schools the Governor in Council finds himself widely at variance with the recommendations of the Committee. He is of opinion that the Committee have not sufficiently taken count of the essential difference between the principles of school drill and military training, which is now well recognised alike by educational and military authorities. The normal leaving age for boys in schools in Bengal may be taken to be 16 or 17; and for boys of this age to substitute military discipline and training for properly organised school drill would, in his opinion, be a completely mistaken policy. Military drill and discipline have a specific purpose, to train young men of good physique to better physique and endurance, and to teach them to carry out movements necessary in war. Advanced military work is interesting but elementary military drill must inevitably be the reverse to school boys. School drill has its own specific purposes, to give all children of varying physique better health, strength and mental and bodily alertness. It is the declared policy of the Government of Bengal to promote physical drill in Government and aided schools and the Governor in Council would be most reluctant to depart from this in favour of military training, nor does he believe for a moment that public opinion would support such a measure. The patriotic and educational aims which underlie the proposal to introduce military drill and discipline into schools can in his opinion be equally well met with less expense, and with more general advantage to the boys, by the Boy Scout movement, which has the support of the Governor in Council.

University Training Corps.—The Governor in Council is in general agreement with the views of the Committee as to the position which should be held by the University Training Corps. He has not obtained the opinion of the Calcutta University in the matter, and it is possible that the views of that body may be found to differ as to some of the details, though he feels some confidence that they would concur in the general conception of the function of the Corps. With this general qualification I am to submit the following views seriatim on the proposals formulated in Chapter III, paragraph 23, of the Report.

(I) Functions and Objects.—Some difficulty is found in understanding the exact intention of the recommendation that the University Corps should in time develop into a potential source for the supply of candidates for commissions in the regular Indian Army. If the proposal is that a commission in the University Corps should ipso facto, or under certain definite restrictions, qualify for a commission in the Indian Army, there is no doubt that the popularity of the University Corps would be greatly enhanced. It appears essential, however, in order to avoid exaggerated expectations, that the Government of India should define exactly what status membership of this Corps will give vis-a-vis the regular army and what process of infiltration from the Corps to the commissioned ranks of the regular army will be accepted.

(II) Liability of service.—The Governor in Council agrees that the University Training Corps should have no liability for actual military service.

(III) Organization.—The Governor in Council considers that this is a matter for the decision of the military authorities.

(IV) Composition. (i) Men.—The Governor in Council would accept this recommendation that all members of a University, whether Indian or Anglo-Indian, should be eligible for enrolment; but he presumes that this would not debar a member of the University eligible for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force from enrolment in that force, rather than in the University Training Corps, should he prefer that alternative.

(IV) (ii) Officers.—(a) The Governor in Council views with some doubt the suggestion that students should in any circumstances be appointed officers in the corps. He is inclined to think that commissioned rank should be reserved for teachers, who by their age and position are most suited to the task and are alone likely to remain as officers of the Corps long enough to justify the grant of commissions to them.

(IV) (ii).—(b) The observations made against paragraph IV (i) would apply.

(V) Training.—The proposals seem appropriate, but the matter is primarily one for the decision of the military authorities.

(V) (ii) Training of Officers.—This matter again is one primarily for the consideration of the military authorities, but the Governor in Council would observe that the scale of training proposed is one which could only be undertaken by a member of the teaching staff already settled in the university and which no student could be expected to undertake compatibly with the interests of his studies.

(VI) Expansion.—The Governor in Council is in entire agreement with the recommendation that the University Training Corps should be allowed to expand up to its natural limits. At the same time he feels bound to point out that unless far more liberal provision is made in the Army Budget for the Territorial Force than has been made in the past, the financial limits of expansion will be reached long before the natural limits. He fears that the principle however laudable is likely to remain in practice little more than an expression of an unattainable ideal.

(VII) Racial distinction.—The Governor in Council would accept the recommendation that all members of a University or College who are British subjects should be eligible for enrolment in the University Training Corps, subject to the proviso already mentioned that this should not debar any member of the University from enrolment in the Auxiliary Force should he be eligible for this as the Act now stands.

(VIII) (a) and (b). General.—The Governor in Council would be prepared to invite the co-operation of the University authorities in carrying out these recommendations.

Paragraphs IV (ii) (c) and VIII (c) and (d) of Chapter III raise questions of technical details on which no expression of opinion by the Government of Bengal would appear to be necessary.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 7235-P., dated the 27th July 1925.

I am directed to refer to Army Department letter No. A.-31794-I (A.G.), dated the 9th of April 1925, calling for the opinion of the Government of Bengal on the recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee, and to communicate the views of this Government on the recommendations affecting the custody of arms and the promotion of rifle clubs. I am to observe at the outset that in both these matters the Committee have avoided any differentiation between the Auxiliary and the Territorial Force, in accordance with their declared policy of treating the two on similar lines. It is difficult, however, to consider recommendations on these two matters, which involve the security of fire-arms and ammunition, without bearing in mind the different conditions and environment in which members of the two Forces habitually live.

2. Custody of arms, paragraph 26 (g) of the Report.—Generally speaking, the Governor in Council agrees that it is a sound principle that arms should be kept in the armoury of the unit, but there is need for considerable elasticity in following this principle in the case of units such as those of the Auxiliary Force in Calcutta which parade before office hours. Members of such units must almost necessarily keep their rifles at their own houses during the training season, because they have to appear on parade with them at a very early hour, and cannot be expected to put up with the waste of time which would be caused by their attending daily at the armoury to draw their arms before proceeding to the parade ground. There are no similar units in the Territorial Force at present, but should the proposed urban units come into existence, it does not follow that they can be allowed to keep their rifles in their own houses for similar reasons. In most cases, members of such units would live in quarters which afford less security for the custody of their rifles; and it is possible, therefore, that they would have to be required to draw their rifles daily from the armoury. Such considerations, however, clearly involve a knowledge of local detail, and I am to suggest that the custody of arms is rather a matter for the orders of the General Officer Commanding the district, who is aware of local conditions, than for any hard and fast rule issued by army headquarters.

3. Rifle clubs. Annexure B I of the Report.—The Committee recommend that every facility should be given for the permanent retention of a certain number of arms and rounds of ammunition by units wherewith to raise rifle clubs during the non-training period. It is by no means clear whether these rifle clubs would be open under certain conditions to persons other than members of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces; and it is difficult, therefore, to determine their exact scope. The Government of India are aware of the special care which has to be exercised among the mixed population of a large town such as Calcutta both as to the custody of fire arms and as to the class of persons who should be encouraged to learn their use. It may be said further, without any unnecessary discrimination between the two forces, that these considerations apply especially to the section of the public from which the Territorial Force would find most of its recruits. The Governor in Council would deprecate, therefore, the promotion of rifle clubs, even in close association with the units of this force, without some measure of control by the civil authorities. He would suggest that this could be provided automatically if the formation of such rifle clubs, though using service arms and ammunition, required a licence from the Local Government in terms mutatis mutandis similar to those of Form XV under Rule 32 of the Indian Arms Rules, 1921. No fees should, however, be payable for the special form of licence suggested, in the case of rifle clubs attached to units of the Territorial or Auxiliary Force.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 7309-P., dated the 29th July 1925.

With reference to the Army Department letter No. A. 31794-1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, I am directed to refer to the recommendation in paragraph 28 (ii) of the Report of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee dealing with the liability for service of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces. The proposal is to make the liability for service of the Auxiliary Force identical with that of the Indian Territorial Force, thus extending this liability beyond India. The Auxiliary Force would be regarded as a second line to the regular British troops in India, and its units would be organised on the same lines as the regular British units. The Governor in Council considers it essential to examine this proposal independently on its merits as affecting either of the two forces; and I am to submit the following observations on the proposed extension of liability beyond India as affecting the Auxiliary Force.

2. The main object of the extended liability appears to be to place the Auxiliaries on the same basis as the Territorials, as the second line of the British Army in the same way as the Territorials are the second line of the Indian Army. The consideration at once arises whether there is any supply of men in India which can be tapped by the Auxiliary Force in sufficient numbers to make the slightest impression as a second line of British troops. It may be admitted that in an extreme emergency national needs must override private needs, but there is in India no sufficient margin of this material to draw upon as a second line for other than local defence. In such an emergency some troops would still be required for internal security and Auxiliary Force is best adapted for this purpose. With a large portion of the force it would be a waste of material to use them as fighting units rather than as training corps of reserve officers.

If the idea of their being a second line of British troops is abandoned, the only object of an extended liability to service would be the increase of their value as military units if they could be sent to other Provinces for the purposes of internal defence. The Committee in paragraph 14 of their Report admit that the primary basis of the Auxiliary Force is the right to protect individual life and property from possible attack ; the removal of the Auxiliary Force from its local area would strike at the root of this basis and the individual would have to face the possibility of his family and property being left unprotected while he was being used for military reasons elsewhere. This must inevitably affect recruitment to a force which accepts this liability. It is not only the member of the force that is affected, the employer cannot be neglected ; it is right that he should encourage his employees to train for self-defence, and, even in the last resort, for defence of the empire ; but he cannot face the possibility of having his own work ruined because of possible disturbances in other parts of India and he, therefore, cannot be expected to encourage the undertaking of this extended liability.

It is true that the Committee apparently do not contemplate calling out the Auxiliary Force for internal disturbances until the fully disciplined military force has been used up ; but in fact the Auxiliary Force is relied upon as part of the military force to deal with internal commotion ; and if it were not so, and the idea of its being a second line for British troops is abandoned, there remains no reason for the extended liability. In the opinion of this Government the military advantage of the additional mobility of the Auxiliary Force in dealing with disturbances in any part of India would be entirely neutralised by the very large decrease in the force if the extended liability is imposed.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 7430-P., dated the 30th July 1925.

I am directed to refer to the recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee on the following three subjects:—

- (1) eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force [paragraph 25 (iv) (i)] ;
- (2) payment for periodical parades [paragraph 28 (v)] ; and
- (3) penalisation of employers [paragraph 26 (f)].

2. The first of these questions affects only the Auxiliary Force ; and the two latter, though nominally common to the Territorial and Auxiliary Forces, are of practical importance only in relation to the Auxiliary Force. Until the urban units come into existence there is no section of the Territorial Force to which the question of payment for periodical parades would apply, for it is presumed that they would not be made to members of the University Training Corps. Similarly, in the absence of any large class of employees in the Territorial Force, as it exists at present, penalisation of employers is not an issue affecting that Force.

3. Eligibility for enrolment in the Auxiliary Force.—The Committee recommend that sub-section (b) and sub-section (d) of section 4 in the Auxiliary Force Act should be excised, thus excluding from eligibility for the Auxiliary Force persons, not otherwise qualified, who were members of the Indian Defence Force in September 1920, and persons who not being British subjects satisfy the conditions prescribed for enrolment of persons of that class. This recommendation has been generally accepted by the Auxiliary Force Advisory Committees in Bengal ; and the General Officer Commanding, Presidency and Assam District, is of opinion that the conditions for enrolment should be strictly enforced even if a serious drop in numbers ensues in some railway battalions. The Governor in Council observes, however, that the excision of sub-section (d) of section 4 of the Act has been recommended by the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee on the ground that it is “an almost necessary corollary” to their proposal that the liability of the Force should be extended to service beyond the limits of India. In a separate letter the Governor in Council has advanced his reasons for not accepting the recommendation that the liability to service of the Auxiliary Force should be extended in the manner proposed. If this is not done, the question will then arise whether there remains any reason for the excision of sub-section (d) of section 4 of the Act, as it now stands, and thereby excluding from membership of the Auxiliary Force persons who are not British subjects. In a large centre such as Calcutta there may always be expected to be a fair number of persons whose nationality as British subjects is doubtful for one reason or another, or who are definitely nationals of other and friendly countries. If they feel disposed to enrol themselves in the Auxiliary Force, they might prove a useful accession of strength at times of disturbance ; while if not enrolled they would appear to be without any definite status for self-defence at a crisis. The Governor in Council does not wish to attach undue importance to the point, but would suggest that there are grounds for consideration whether any occasion for deleting sub-section (d) of section 4 of the Act will remain if the liability for service in the Auxiliary Force is not extended beyond India.

4. Payment for periodical parades.—The Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee for the Calcutta military area are of opinion that the recommendation that payment for parades should be discontinued will not seriously affect the numbers of the richer units, but that it will have a deterrent effect on recruiting and parades in the poorer battalions in that district ; and they recommend that pay and allowances remain as at present, with the additional camp allowance as proposed in Annexure A. II. There would be no objection, however, on the part of the Governor in Council, should the military authorities decide to discontinue payment for daily parades. He believes that a large proportion of the Auxiliary Force in Calcutta would be unaffected but that the charge might operate as a slight discouragement for units recruited from sources which are perhaps of less military value.

5. The Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee for the Calcutta military area further point out that the recommendation for a capitation grant of Rs. 5 for every efficient man, and Rs. 10 for every extra-efficient man is not fully intelligible. If the intention is that this grant should take the place of the training grant, contingent grant and other grants by Government, they are of opinion that it is insufficient and would recommend that the present system should continue. They are in favour of the proposed grant of Rs. 7-8-0 to each man who fires his annual course, which they believe will induce a large number of men to complete their course. The Governor in Council agree with these views.

6. Penalisation of employers.—The general consensus of opinion in Bengal would appear to be against the penalisation of employers who do not permit their employees to join the Auxiliary Force. The Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee for the Calcutta military area and the General Officer Commanding the Presidency and Assam District alike advise against the introduction of such a provision; and the Governor in Council is of opinion that it would be an undesirable measure. The position at present is that employers as a whole are well disposed towards the Auxiliary Force, it being stated in fact some firms in Calcutta have gone to the length of making it a condition of contract that their employees should become efficient members of the Auxiliary Force. The penalisation of employers who place obstacles in the way of the enrolment of their men would therefore have little practical result; and there would at the same time be an air of conscription about any such provision, which the Governor in Council believes would act disadvantageously on the recruitment for the Auxiliary Force. It is, moreover, a provision of law which it would be exceedingly difficult to frame in terms not open to evasion by any employer disinclined to allow his men to join the Auxiliary Force.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 7557-P., dated the 4th August 1925.

I am directed to refer to Army Department letter No. A.-31794-1 (A.G.), dated the 9th day of April 1925, asking for the opinion of the Local Government on the recommendations of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee and to make the following observations on the recommendations affecting the Indian Territorial Force. The recommendations regarding the University Training Corps have been dealt with in a separate letter.

2. Liability for service. Paragraph 28 (ii).—In his letter No. 7309-P., dated the 29th July 1925, the Governor in Council has already advanced the view that the question of liability for service should be considered quite separately for the Auxiliary Force and for the Indian Territorial Force. Once this position is admitted he does not feel that he has any very decided opinion to express on imposing a liability for service beyond India on the Indian Territorial Force. The position at present is that under section 10 of the Indian Territorial Force Act no person embodied in that force shall be required to perform military service beyond the limits of India except under a general or special order of the Governor-General in Council. The Governor-General in Council appreciates the Committee's ideal of making the Territorial Force a means of creating a national desire for patriotic military service and laying the foundation of a national army, though it may be difficult to apply this ideal without qualification to actual conditions in Bengal. He can appreciate that in order to make the Territorial Force in the full sense a second line of defence, and to justify the expenditure which must be incurred on their training up to the standard laid down, there is much to be said for imposing on them a liability for service outside India. At the same time he does not see any reason for modifying the liability for service as laid down in section 10 of the Act at present, and he is inclined to believe that the effect of giving greater prominence to the ultimate liability for service outside India which already exists would be to discourage such enthusiasm as there may be for the Force at present.

3. Urban units. Paragraphs 28 (iii) and 24 (v) (i) (b).—In approaching the recommendations for the constitution of urban units, the Governor in Council finds some difficulty in understanding what the precise object of these units is. It would seem to be the intention of the Committee to tap a source of recruits who do not at present come forward, and to spread the military idea in a class of men who are untouched by the present territorial battalion. The urban units are to consist of educated men, not apparently because it is intended to turn them into administrative or technical units, but merely because the educated classes, it is assumed, do not join the territorials. It is admitted that intensive training of these urban units is impossible and that they, therefore, will prima facie be not so efficient as the territorial unit, but it is apparently hoped to make up for that, firstly, by the fact that they are educated and therefore easier to teach, and secondly, by eventually confining the urban unit to men who have been through the University Corps and, therefore, have a solid grounding before they join the unit.

4. The Governor in Council would be inclined to take the view that this goes considerably in advance of the present necessity of the case. He believes that it is doubtful in the present circumstances whether any money spent on urban units would in fact have the effect of spreading the military idea to new classes, while it is admitted that the urban unit will be even less efficient than the territorial. The question of the development of urban units might, therefore, suitably wait in Bengal until the military idea is somewhat more widely spread in the classes that provide for the territorial force, and until there is a reasonable demand among the educated classes who are unable to spare time for the intensive training, to be furnished with facilities to make themselves partially efficient for military defence by means of special units which are not subject to intensive training. At present there is no sign of any demand of this kind in Bengal, and to provide facilities would not, in the opinion of this Government, create the demand, but would merely be a waste of money in the present circumstances.

5. Provincial units. Paragraph 28 (iv).—The Committee have based their recommendations affecting the provincial units largely on the assumption that this portion of the Territorial Force is drawn or should be drawn from the agricultural classes. The Governor in Council would point out that this assumption differs widely from the actual position in Bengal where recruits for the Territorial Force, even when drawn from the interior, come from certain sections of the educated classes rather than from the bona fide agriculturists. This point would not in itself, however, have much bearing on the increase recommended in the period of training, viz., that this period should be extended from 56 days in the first year and 28 days in the subsequent years to three months and two months, respectively. The Governor in Council can readily understand that the results of the training received at present are unsatisfactory, and that an extension of this period is intrinsically desirable in the interest of a second line of defence; but he fears that in Bengal any such extension would probably have the effect of making the provincial units so unpopular that they would before long cease to exist.

6. Territorial Force Advisory Committees. Paragraph 28 (ix).—In recommending in general terms an expansion in the system of the Indian Territorial Force Advisory Committees and an increase in their responsibilities the Committee have hardly given sufficient prominence to the essential difference between the Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee and the Territorial Force Advisory Committee. It is not merely that the latter Committee is limited to two members in addition to the military member, but that under Rule 11 of the Auxiliary Force Rules, 1921, the Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee possess certain definite quasi-executive functions which the Territorial Force Advisory Committee do not possess. This rule provides that on several matters such as variations of training, the discharge of enrolled persons, etc., the recommendations of the Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee shall be carried into effect by the commanding military authority, provided that, if he disagrees, he may refer the matter to the Local Government. As no such reference appears to have been made in Bengal, it may be taken that the Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee do in fact exercise material powers under this rule. This is not the case with the Indian Territorial Force Committee, as Rule 30 of the Indian Territorial Force Rules contains no similar provision requiring the General Officer Commanding the District normally to follow the advice of the Advisory Committee on any class of recommendation. The first question to be faced then in practical consideration of the recommendations affecting the Territorial Force Advisory Committee, is whether they should be given parallel powers to the Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee in this respect. On this question the Government of India will presumably be guided largely by the advice of the military authorities and the Governor in Council has no dogmatic opinion to express. He is advised, however, by the General Officer Commanding, Presidency and Assam District, that from the military point of view the Advisory Committee have in the past proved of very little value indeed.

7. He is in agreement with the recommendation for an increase in membership of the Indian Territorial Force Advisory Committee and I am to mention a difficulty which has occurred through the exclusion of officials, as the Act now stands. In a certain case it became impossible to reappoint the President of the Territorial Force Advisory Committee, who was doing useful work in that capacity as a change in the status of one of the Railways had resulted in his becoming technically a Government officer. Should the membership of the Auxiliary Force Advisory Committee be enlarged there would appear to be no reason for the total exclusion of officials other than the military member, and in any case the Governor in Council would suggest that such exclusion should not apply to Government servants in branches of Government service which are not directly responsible for the civil administration. It would certainly be an excellent thing if the Advisory Committee would take a more active interest in recruiting, but the Governor in Council cannot but feel doubtful whether they can be induced to do so, and sees, therefore, some danger of stagnation if the Advisory Committees are given the sole responsibility for this task. He is in agreement with the proposal that new units should be formed only with the concurrence of the Local Government, who would rely largely on the advice of the Territorial Force Advisory Committee.

Letter from the Chief Commissioner, Delhi, No. 4521, dated the 21st July 1925.

In continuation of my letter No. 4103, dated the 1st July 1925, I have the honour to say that Superintendent of Education, Delhi, after consulting the schools in Delhi, reports that the routine of the schools already includes games, drill and indigenous physical exercises under certificated instructors, the instruction being of a non-military type. Scouting, though it is gaining ground, is confined to a very limited number of boys.

2. While agreeing that some advance on the lines suggested by the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee is possible, provided Government is prepared to meet the cost by substantial grants, the Superintendent of Education is averse on educational grounds to military discipline in schools and to the appointment of military pensioners as instructors.

Letter from the Officiating Chief Secretary to the Government of Assam, No. Mily.-194—3752, A. P., dated the 5th August 1925.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with Lieutenant-Colonel Moore's letter No. A.-31794-9-(A. G.), dated the 18th of July 1925, and to say that the Governor in Council has since received the views of * * * the Assam Valley and Surma Valley Branches of the Indian Tea Association, but he does not desire in any way to modify the opinions already expressed in my letter No. 472-C., dated the 19th June 1925.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 10263-P., dated the 19th October 1925.

With reference to the Army Department letter No. A.-31794-1 (A. G.), dated the 9th April 1925, I am directed to refer to the recommendation in paragraph 26 (h) of the Report of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee dealing with the question of the enrolment of Government servants in the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces, and to state, for the information of the Government of India, that the several Departments of this Government have been consulted, and that the general consensus of opinion is that in the uncertainty as to the period and conditions of training which are to be adopted, it is impossible to make any definite commitments about the enrolment of Government servants. The Governor in Council is however of the opinion that if the scale of training suggested by the Committee is accepted, so far from there being any increase in the enrolment of Government servants in this Presidency, it will be necessary to curtail the permission in the case of certain officers, such as police sergeants, whose enrolment at present in the Auxiliary Force it would be difficult to justify on a strict interpretation of the liability incurred even under the present system.

I am to add that this opinion should only be taken as applying to times of normal peace conditions; and in the event of a great national emergency arising, the question would have to be reviewed again on its merits in the particular circumstances, as was done more than once during the recent war. It is impossible however for the Local Government to forecast a policy for the enrolment of Government servants to which it could count on adhering in abnormal conditions.

[23rd November, 1927.]

Whereas it is expedient that the legal union between the Church of England and the Church of England in India shall be dissolved, and that provision should at the same time be made for the last-mentioned Church as proposed to be constituted after the dissolution of the said union :

Interpretation

the expression “Indian Church” means, in respect of the period before the date of severance, the Church of England in India, and in respect of the period commencing on the date of severance, the Church of England in India as severed from the Church of England, notwithstanding the adoption by the said Church of any other name or names ;

the expression “rule” includes canon, article, declaration, constitution, and regulation ;

the expression “the rules of the Indian Church” means the ecclesiastical law and the articles, canons, doctrines, rites, rules, discipline and ordinances of the Indian Church existing at the date of the passing of this Measure with and subject to such modification or alteration, if any, as may after the passing of this Measure be duly made therein by the Indian Church ;

- (ii) The Metropolitan Bishop of the Indian Church shall not, in contemplation of the law, be subject to the general superintendence and revision of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the obtaining of the Royal Mandate to consecrate shall not be necessary in the case of the consecration of a bishop for a charge in India, nor shall the Bishops in Foreign Countries Act, 1841, apply to the consecration of any such bishop, nor shall any bishop of any diocese in England have any jurisdiction over the Indian Church in India; 5 Vict. C.
- (iii) No ecclesiastical court or official of the Indian Church shall have or exercise any coercive jurisdiction;
- (iv) The ecclesiastical law of the Church of England, so far as it exists in India, shall in India cease to exist as law; and no proceeding by way of rehearing or appeal from any decision, judgment, sentence, degree or other order of any ecclesiastical court or official of the Indian Church shall be entered, admitted, prosecuted, heard or determined in, by, or before any of His Majesty's Courts of Justice in India or elsewhere, any Court of Commissioners delegate in India, or His Majesty in Council;
- (v) The rules of the Indian Church shall be binding on the members thereof for the time being in the same manner as if they had mutually agreed to be so bound, and shall be capable of being enforced in the temporal courts in relation to any property lawfully held on behalf of the said Church or any members thereof in the same manner and to the same extent as if such property had been expressly assured upon trust to be held on behalf of persons who should be so bound.

As in the respects particularly in this section mentioned, so in all other respects the Church of England and the Indian Church shall, as from the date of severance, be legally severed, separate and distinct, and every law and custom shall, except as in this Measure expressly provided, be interpreted and applied accordingly.

3. (1) From and after the coming into operation of this Measure nothing in any Act of Parliament, law or custom, shall prevent the General Council from making amending or repealing rules for the general management and good government of the Indian Church and the property and affairs thereof, whether in respect of the whole of the said Church, or according to provinces or dioceses or other areas, and rules so made may provide for the future making, amending or repealing of rules for the like purposes and prescribe the persons or bodies by whom, or by which, such rules may be made, amended or repealed:

(3) Any rule of the Indian Church made by any synod, council, assembly or officer thereof shall not, after the date of severance, be subject to any legal limitation in respect to scope or effect (whether arising from the operation of an Act of Parliament or otherwise) other than such as would apply to the like rule if made by a voluntary association altogether distinct from the Church of England which should have come into existence on the date of severance:

Provided always that nothing in this section shall be deemed to confer upon the General Council or enable it to confer upon any other person or body of persons any coercive jurisdiction, without prejudice, however, to the operation of the law relating to obligations binding on persons who shall be deemed, in accordance with sub-section (v) of section 2 of this Measure, to have mutually agreed to be bound by any such rule.

4. (1) If for any temporal purpose in connection with this Measure, or if in any proceedings in any temporal court, it shall be necessary to determine whether any person is or at any past date was a member of the Indian Church or of any Church in communion therewith, a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of Calcutta stating that such person is or is not, or was or was not, on a named past date, a member of the Indian Church or of a Church in communion therewith, shall conclusively determine the fact stated therein.

(2) A certificate purporting to be made and signed by the said Bishop shall be deemed to have been made and signed by him until the contrary be shown.

5. (1) The recognition of the General Council as such by the Bishop of Calcutta shall be sufficiently proved for all purposes by an expression of that recognition in writing under the hand of such Bishop; and if any question at any future time shall arise as to whether any assembly was or was not the General Council for the purposes of this Measure, whether generally or on a particular occasion, or at a particular time, such question shall be referred to the Bishop aforesaid, and by him finally decided.

(2) (i) A document purporting to be a writing under this section, and to be signed by the Bishop of Calcutta shall be deemed to be such and to have been made and signed by him until the contrary be shown.

(ii) No proceedings of the General Council, in pursuance of this Measure, shall be invalidated by any vacancy in the membership of that Council or by any defect in the qualification or election of any member thereof.

6. Nothing in this Measure or in any Act of Parliament shall prevent any person who is or has been Bishop of any diocese in India from performing episcopal functions, not extending to the exercise of jurisdiction, in any diocese or reputed diocese at the request of the Bishop thereof.

7. This Measure shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by His Majesty in Council, but no date shall be so fixed unless and until an Act of Parliament is passed providing for the repeal of Part X of the Government of India Act so far as it relates to the Church of England.

8. This Measure may be cited as the Indian Church Measure, 1927.

Expressions of opinions by public bodies or by individuals interested in the Bill should be sent so as to reach the undersigned before the 15th March, 1928.

THE BENGAL VILLAGE SELF-GOVERNMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1928.

A BILL

to amend the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, in the manner hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act V of 1919.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1928.

New section for section 32 of Ben. Act V of 1919.

2. For section 32 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Establishment of primary schools, dispensaries and infirmaries for animals.

“ 32. (1) The union board, or two or more union boards in the same district or part of a district acting jointly, may, subject to any rules made under section 101, establish—

(a) primary schools,

(b) dispensaries, or

(c) infirmaries for the treatment and care of animals,

or assume charge of any such existing institutions, and shall repair, maintain and manage any such institutions under the charge of such union board or boards.

(2) When two or more union boards acting jointly establish or assume charge of an institution under sub-section (1), they may at a joint meeting fix the proportion of the cost thereof which shall be borne by each union board.”

[Cf. Ben. Act III of 1885, s. 68.]

New section 32A.

3. After section 32 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Committees

“ 32A. (1) Any union board, or two or more union boards at a joint meeting, may constitute committees for the management of the institutions mentioned in section 32, and may delegate to such committees all or any of the powers of management vested in union boards in regard to such institutions.

[Cf. Ben. Act III of 1885, s. 30.]

(2) Such committees may include persons who are not members of a union board.”

New section 59A.

4. After section 59 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

District board to have powers of control over committees

“ 59A. The district board shall have over committees constituted under section 32A all the powers of control given to them by this Act over union boards.”

Amendment of section 101.

5. In sub-section (2) of section 101 of the said Act,—

(1) in clause (e) after the word “boards” the words “and of committees of union boards” shall be inserted; and

(2) in clause (j) for the words “and dispensaries” the words “dispensaries and infirmaries for animals” shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, as it stands at present, does not authorise Union Boards to combine in order jointly to open dispensaries for human beings or infirmaries for cattle, nor does it authorise Union Boards to spend money on veterinary treatment at all. These are defects which should be remedied without delay in view of the lack of proper facilities for medical and veterinary treatment in rural tracts and of the fact that certain Union Boards are willing to combine in order to provide such facilities. A general power of combining in order to establish and maintain village institutions should be given to Union Boards.

It is therefore proposed—

- (a) to empower Union Boards to spend money from the Union fund on veterinary work;
- (b) to empower them to combine with other local authorities to maintain joint dispensaries for men or infirmaries for cattle, and primary schools;
- (c) to empower them to delegate all or part of their authority to manage particular institutions to committees, which need not be composed exclusively of members of Union Boards, but may include outsiders, e.g., private subscribers; and
- (d) to confer on the District Board the same authority over the acts of such committees as it possesses over the work of Union Boards.

So far as the provisions of the Bill affect Union Boards, they are permissive and not mandatory; and the Bill may therefore fairly be regarded as non-contentious.

(2) In respect of any period during which the holding of gold coin, gold bullion and gold securities is reduced under sub-section (1), the Bank shall pay to the Governor General in Council a tax upon the amount by which such holding is reduced below the minimum prescribed by sub-section (2) of section 31; such tax shall be payable at the bank rate for the time being in force, with an addition of one per cent. per annum when such holding exceeds thirty-two and a half per cent. of the total amount of the Reserve and of a further one and a half per cent. per annum in respect of every further decrease of two and a half per cent. or part of such decrease:

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

PART I.

A Bill to give effect to the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Indian Currency and Finance, 1926, proposing the establishment of a Gold Standard for India and the constitution of a Reserve Bank of India to control the operation of the Gold Standard was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 25th January, 1927. The initiation of this measure by the Government of India and the discussions which followed both inside and outside the Legislature revealed a general consensus of opinion that the establishment of a Central Bank is desirable in order to secure for India independent control, conducted with reference only to correct banking and commercial principles, of her financial and monetary policy, and revealed at the same time wide divergence of views as to the best means by which, in removing the present governmental control, the risk of domination by sectional interests of one kind or another may be avoided.

The consideration of the aforesaid Bill clause by clause was entered upon during the last session of the Legislative Assembly in Simla. After the House had considered the first few clauses, the Government of India decided, for the reasons given by the Finance Member on the 8th September, 1927, not to proceed with the further consideration of the Bill during that session. The Finance Member stated that the Government had from the first held the opinion that the soundest arrangement would be that the constitution of the Bank should be founded upon the subscription of capital by shareholders and the consequent interest of shareholders to see that the affairs of the Bank are conducted in accordance with strict business principles and not otherwise. This is the one plan which has been found to be wholly satisfactory by practical experience of central banking in other countries: and the Finance Member further indicated that the alternative methods of constituting the Reserve Bank of India and forming its directorate which had been proposed during the discussions on the Bill had raised difficult and controversial questions which required time for further careful examination of the whole issue.

During the interval that has since elapsed the Government of India, in consultation with the Secretary of State, have carried out the further review for which postponement of the discussion of the Bill was found to be necessary: and in doing so, they have given full weight to the practical considerations which had been urged against the adoption of their own initial plan and to the alternative suggestions which had been made. In the end while they have come to the conclusion that share capital affords the only satisfactory basis for the constitution of a Reserve Bank for India, at the same time they have found it possible to embody in the fabric of a shareholders bank the essence of the arrangements which opinion in the Legislative Assembly had claimed to be necessary in order to make it certain, so far as this is possible, that the Reserve Bank should ensure the interests of India as a whole and not the interests of one or other section of the community. The manner in which these requirements have been provided for is explained in the Notes on Clauses given in the second part of this statement.

Apart from the new dispositions referred to in the preceding recital, the revised Bill follows generally the provisions of the previous Bill as amended by the Joint Committee of the Legislature.

The new proposals are inconsistent with clause 4 of the previous Bill which was actually passed by the Legislative Assembly, and it is therefore necessary to propound an entirely new Bill instead of proceeding with the previous Bill.

In view of the great importance attaching to the constitution of a central banking system in India—a point on which the Secretary of State, the Government of India and public opinion are agreed—and in view of the history of the legislation hitherto attempted, the Government of India consider it desirable to ensure that ample opportunity is given for study of their present proposals with a view to their being passed into law in the approaching session of the Legislature. For these reasons the Government of India have decided to publish the revised Bill before the commencement of the session, and they will, take the first opportunity of bringing it formally before the Legislative Assembly.

PART II.

Clause 1.—It is proposed to give the Bank the sole right of note issue for a period of twenty-five years in the first instance and to provide for renewal as recommended in paragraph 141 of the Royal Commission's report. The provision that the Act shall come into force not later than 1st January, 1929, in the Bill circulated in January, 1927, was based upon the time-table recommended by the Commission in paragraph 165 of the report. The Bill as amended by the Joint Committee advanced the date for starting the Bank by six months. It has now for various reasons become impracticable to prescribe a fixed date, and a proviso has been added to the effect that it should be open to the Governor General in Council, for reasons to be stated, to postpone the operation of this clause for a year at a time, subject to a maximum postponement of three years.

Clause 2.—The definition of Provincial Co-operative Bank in the Bill as amended by the Joint Committee included companies registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, under a misapprehension that the Punjab Co-operative Bank registered under that Act was connected with the co-operative credit system. In the new definition such companies have been excluded and additional provision has been made to include provincial banks registered under Provincial Co-operative Acts.

Clause 3.—The name, the Reserve Bank of India, is that suggested in paragraph 92 of the Royal Commission's report.

Clause 4.—The Royal Commission recommended that the capital of the Bank should be rupees five crores fully paid up, and that the Imperial Bank's shareholders should be given the first opportunity of subscribing for the capital stock of the Bank as consideration for foregoing important privileges which the Imperial Bank now enjoys. A clear-cut division of functions between the Reserve Bank of India and the Imperial Bank of India is the essence of the proposal creating a Reserve Bank, and it is undesirable to give the shareholders of the Imperial Bank of India a preponderant voice in deciding the currency policy of the Reserve Bank. It is, therefore, proposed, for this reason and in view also of the agreement contemplated by the Second Schedule, not to give the Imperial Bank of India the option of subscribing thirty per cent. of the capital. Sub-clauses (2), (3), (6), (7) and (8) provide for a broadbased distribution of the share capital both at the time of original allotment and subsequently, and is intended to be a safeguard against the control of the Bank by sectional interests of any kind. Sub-clause (4) is intended to meet the objection that the utility to India of a share capital bank might be endangered by a possible conflict of interest, within the management of the Bank, between Indian and external capital. Provision has also been made for the transfer of portions of the share capital from one area to another in the event of the shares assigned to any area not being fully taken up at the time of original allotment.

It is necessary that the Government should be prepared to take up any unallotted shares, but it is not desirable that these should continue to be held permanently by Government. It is, therefore, proposed that the Governor General in Council should dispose of such shares as soon as possible.

Clause 5.—This is based on paragraph 101 of the Royal Commission's report. It is necessary to make provision for the contingent necessity of reducing the share capital and for the regional distribution of any increase in share capital, in regard to which the Commission have made no recommendation.

Clause 6.—The Head Office of the Bank will be located in Bombay as recommended by the Commission in paragraph 97 of the report. Delhi has been added to the list of places where the Bank may establish branches in view of the proposed creation of the Delhi register under clause 4.

Clause 8.—This gives effect to the recommendations in paragraphs 95 and 96 of the Royal Commission's report. The Joint Committee omitted the original provision prohibiting members of the Indian or local Legislatures from being nominated or elected as directors of the Bank. This provision has been reintroduced by sub-clause (2) of this clause for reasons which have been fully explained in previous discussions. Sub-clause a(i) which was added to the previous Bill by the Joint Committee on the precedent of clauses contained in certain other enactments establishing central banks, provides that no person may be a director who is not or has not at some time been actively engaged in agriculture, commerce, finance or industry.

Clause 9.—This is derived from paragraph 91 of the Royal Commission's report. The Commission recommended therein that the Reserve Bank should have Local Boards in Bombay, Madras and Calcutta, and that representatives from these Boards should constitute a majority on the Central Board. The Local Boards have now been replaced by the five bodies of delegates one for each of the five areas mentioned in clause 4. Provision has been made for the representation of commercial and agricultural interests and the term of office of all directors has been fixed at five years. As it would be undesirable that all the directors should vacate office at the same time, varying periods of tenure have been fixed in clause 16 for directors nominated or elected at the outset.

Clause 10.—This clause provides for the election of directors by the shareholders through a body of delegates elected for this purpose. Qualifications for election as delegates and directors are also prescribed and the provision that no shareholder shall have more than one vote is intended to ensure protection for the small shareholder.

Clause 11.—It is provided in this clause that the Governor, a Deputy Governor or any nominated or elected director may be removed by the Governor General in Council if a resolution to that effect is passed by a majority of the Board consisting of not less than 15 directors.

The additional provision for the removal of elected directors follows the lines of a similar provision in the Imperial Bank of India Act. It seems undesirable that elected directors should be removable by a bare majority at a general meeting. It is proposed that directors other than the Governor, Deputy Governors and the nominated official shall cease to hold office if they do not obtain within a month of appointment or if subsequently they cease to possess the required number of shares. This restriction does not however come into force immediately as it is necessary to give sufficient time to directors to qualify themselves by purchase of shares in the open market.

Clause 12.—The fixation of a period of five years for the tenure of the directors makes it necessary to provide for casual vacancies.

Clause 13.—This clause introduces a necessary provision for the holding and conduct of elections and the final decision of doubts or disputes.

Clause 14.—The Joint Committee proposed in the previous Bill that the minimum number of meetings to be held by the Board in each year should be twelve. This has now been reduced to six in view of the new proposal that the Board must include directors from every part of India. It is also proposed to prescribe that as a minimum two meetings of the Board should be held each year in Calcutta, in view of the commercial importance of that city.

Clause 15.—This is an obviously necessary provision and is based on paragraph 98 of the Royal Commission's report. The power of voting by proxy has been rigorously limited in order to ensure that the policy of the Bank shall not be easily susceptible of control by any combinations of special interests.

Clause 16.—The temporary provisions introduced by this clause are necessary as the Board has to be constituted in advance of the raising of the share capital. The varying periods of tenure prescribed in this clause are intended to retain continuously in the Board a number of directors with previous experience.

Clause 17.—This embodies generally the proposals in Schedule II of the Royal Commission's report defining the functions and powers of the Bank. It is, however, proposed to modify the Commission's recommendations in certain respects.

Sub-clause 1.—The Commission did not propose to allow power to the Reserve Bank to receive non-interest-bearing deposits from private persons. It is considered by the Government of India that like other central banks in the world the Reserve Bank of India should also be allowed to receive deposits from private persons provided no interest is paid.

Sub-clause 2 (a).—The restriction to scheduled banks of the facilities provided in this section and elsewhere is intended to give to the scheduled banks some compensating advantage for the obligation which the Bill imposes upon them to maintain compulsory deposits free of interest in the Reserve Bank.

Sub-clause 2 (b).—As India is predominantly an agricultural country, it is thought desirable to raise the limit of bills and notes which may be purchased or rediscounted under this provision to one-quarter of the total value of all bills and notes purchased or rediscounted by the Bank.

Sub-clause 3.—Schedule II of the Commission's report proposed that the Bank should have full discretion to purchase and sell the currencies of any foreign country having a gold standard. So wide a discretion is considered undesirable, and it is proposed that operations of this nature should be confined to such countries having a Gold Standard as the Governor General in Council may designate for the purpose.

Sub-clause 4.—The financing of industry and the movement of crops in India is at present effected by cash credits and as the provision recommended by the Commission stands, it would be difficult for the Reserve Bank to assist other banks in providing necessary credit facilities without considerable changes in banking methods. It is, therefore, proposed in sub-clause (4) (e) that for a period of five years the Bank should be authorised to advance money against promissory notes of scheduled banks under certain conditions.

Sub-clause 8.—It is considered undesirable to limit the amount of securities held at any time in the Banking Department to so low a figure as 25 per cent. of the liabilities as recommended by the Royal Commission in clause 3 (d) of Schedule II to their report, since in view of the fluctuating character of deposits the limitation might on occasion force the sale of securities merely to bring the Bank within the provisions of its charter for a few days.

The Commission recommended in clause 7 (a) of Schedule II to their report that the paid-up capital and reserve may be invested in securities of the Government of India having not more than five years to run. In view of the fact that the Government of India are now funding their short-term loans into long-term loans the limitation suggested might in the near future unduly restrict the power of the Bank to invest in Government securities. It is, therefore, proposed to modify the provision so as to permit of investment in Government of India securities of any maturity.

Sub-clause 13.—The power of the Reserve Bank to open accounts and act as agents of other banks is restricted by this provision. Such relations may be entered into only with central banks which are the principal currency authorities in their respective countries and among which the Federal Reserve Banks in the United States of America are included.

Sub-clause 14.—It is essential that the Bank should have power to borrow in London in view of the obligation imposed upon it to keep the Secretary of State in funds, and it is necessary also that the Bank should be able to borrow in India so as to facilitate the control of credit. The limitation which this clause provides will prevent the Bank from using its power of borrowing in order to compete with other banks for fixed deposits.

Clause 18.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 102 of the Royal Commission's report regarding open market operations. The Joint Committee considered it necessary to prescribe definitely that the Reserve Bank should not be entitled to enter into indiscriminate competition with commercial banks, and for this reason it has been provided that action under this clause must be approved by the Board of the Bank; and the purposes for which alone they should approve the undertaking of such operations have also been indicated.

Clause 19.—This is based upon Schedule II of the Commission's report defining the business which the Bank should not be authorised to carry on or to transact.

Clauses 20 and 21.—These give effect to the recommendation in paragraph 140 of the report regarding the relations of the Bank with the Government. As recommended by the Joint Committee it has been provided that the Reserve Bank should have control of all Government balances not excluding those of such of the Local Governments as may have the custody and management of their own provincial revenues.

Clause 22.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 141 of the report. The Commission recommend that the right of note issue should be transferred to the Bank as soon as the Bank is in a position to issue its own notes. It is, however, thought to be undesirable to delay the exercise of this function of the Bank until it is able to arrange for the manufacture and issue of its own notes, and it is therefore proposed to allow the Bank to issue notes of the Government of India for a year from the date on which the Bank takes over the control of the currency.

Clause 23.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 143 of the Commission's report regarding the separation of the Banking and Issue Departments of the Bank.

Clause 24.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 142 of the Commission's report. Freedom is retained to postpone for a time the issue of one rupee notes if such postponement appears desirable with reference to the size of the holding of silver rupees in the Reserve. Provisions relating to a gold mohur introduced by the Joint Committee have been removed for reasons which have been fully explained in previous discussions.

Clause 25.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 155 of the Commission's report regarding the form and material of bank notes.

Clause 26.—This is based upon the recommendation in paragraph 149 of the Commission's report that the notes of the Bank shall be legal tender for the payment of any amount and shall be guaranteed by the Government of India. The guarantee ensures the confidence of the public in the bank notes.

The Commission recommended in paragraph 141 of their report that, not later than five years from the date of the Bank Charter becoming operative, the Government of India notes still outstanding should cease to be legal tender except at Government treasuries. It may be presumed that by the end of five years very few Government of India notes will remain outstanding; but it would be undesirable to take away the legal tender character of such note in the absence of any very definite advantage to be gained by so doing. No provision to the effect suggested is therefore made. It is, however, proposed to take power for the Governor General in Council to call in notes of particular series if necessity arises.

Clause 27.—This is based on paragraph 155 of the Commission's report regarding the re-issue of bank notes.

Clause 28.—This is based upon a similar provision in the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1923, and is necessary to protect the Bank against a civil action in respect of notes lost, stolen, mutilated or imperfect. The present practice by which a note may be divided into two halves and the halves when joined together are accepted as legal tender remains unaffected.

Clauses 29 and 30.—These are based upon similar provisions in the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1923. The proviso in clause 29 has been altered from the form in which it stood for many years in order to make it clear that cheques upon a banking account are not prohibited by that clause, even though the account may be overdrawn.

Clause 31.—This gives effect to the recommendations in paragraph 145 of the Commission's report regarding the constitution of the Reserve.

Sub-clause 2.—The Joint Committee introduced in the previous Bill a provision requiring that after the end of ten years the amount of gold securities in the Reserve must never exceed one-half of the total gold assets. This has been omitted, as such a provision is likely to prove unduly hampering to the executive of the Bank in the management of the Reserve.

Sub-clause 3.—The amount of silver coin and bullion now held in the Paper Currency Reserve is 110 crores, or 25 crores more than the amount held at the time at which the Royal Commission made their recommendations. It is open to grave doubt whether it would be possible without a serious disturbance of the silver markets of the world to dispose of this surplus silver within a period of ten years. Partly for this reason and partly because of the obligation imposed on the Bank by clause 37 to supply rupees freely to the public in such quantities as may be required for circulation, the limits of the amount of rupee coin which may be held at various periods in the Reserve have been increased by 25 crores each.

Sub-clause 5.—The proportion of the gold coin and gold bullion held in the Reserve which must be kept in British India has been raised to 85 per cent. The raising of the proportion to this extent has been rendered possible largely by the elimination of the provision for the sale of gold for delivery outside India which was recommended by the Commission.

Sub-clause 6.—The Joint Committee wished to prohibit the holding in the Reserve of bills of exchange drawn on foreign gold standard countries as an unnecessary and undesirable feature of a gold reserve. But the provision to which the Joint Committee objected appears in Statutes regulating the conduct of other central banks, and the Government of India are satisfied that the same liberty should be given to the Reserve Bank of India.

Clause 32.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 146 to the Commission's report defining the liabilities of the Issue Department. The initial amount of 50 crores of rupees for the purpose of providing for rupee redemption recommended by the Commission has however now been altered to 40 crores. The original figure was based on an estimate indicating the total amount of rupees that might be spared from circulation as about 250 crores. In view of the changes now proposed as regards the permissible silver holding in the Reserve and of the return of rupees from circulation since the Royal Commission reported, it is considered safe to reduce the figure for rupee redemption to 40 crores of rupees.

The provision in sub-clause (2) of this clause is similar to that in the proviso to sub-section (6) of section 18 of the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1923, although it differs in detail. Under the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1923, notes of denominational value exceeding Rs. 100 cannot be deemed to be not in circulation until 100 years after the date of issue whereas notes of lower denominations are so deemed after 40 years. This distinction between the higher and the lower denominations of notes is undesirable. In practice notes of higher denomination are much less likely to be outstanding for a very long period than notes of lower denomination and the practice at the Bank of England is to treat all notes as not in circulation after 40 years. It is considered that the Reserve Bank might with advantage follow the practice of the Bank of England.

Clause 33.—This is based upon paragraph 144 of the report. The Commission recommended that coin and bullion and securities to be transferred to the Issue Department should be specified in a Schedule. The amount of notes in circulation at the time of inauguration of the Bank will not be known when the Bill is introduced and passed and also between the dates of introduction of the Bill and its passing into law and the inauguration of the Bank, there will be changes in the constitution of the Reserve held against note issue. It is, therefore, proposed to provide for the transfer to the Bank of assets of such a nature as to enable the Bank to constitute the Reserve in accordance with the requirements laid down in the Act. In order to give the new Bank the necessary margin over minimum requirements, it is proposed to include in the assets transferred, gold and gold securities equal to one-half of the liabilities of the Issue Department as suggested in clause 3 (a) of Schedule III to the report.

Clause 34.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 147 of the report regarding the disposal of surplus rupees by the Bank.

Clause 35.—This gives effect to the recommendations of the Commission in paragraph 147 of the report. As it would be uneconomical to coin new rupees until the stock of silver rupees in the Reserve is reduced to a limit of 25 crores or one-tenth of the total amount of the Reserve whichever is greater, it is proposed to limit the right of the Bank to demand the delivery of rupee coins from Government.

Clause 36.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 148 of the report regarding the mutual obligations of the Government and the Bank in regard to rupee coin.

Clause 37.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 152 of the report. The provisions regarding mohurs introduced by the Joint Committee in this clause have been omitted.

Clauses 38 and 39.—This gives effect to the recommendations in paragraphs 150 and 166 of the Commission's report regarding the sale of gold and gold exchange by the Bank. Certain modifications are however proposed. The obligation to sell gold for delivery at foreign centres has been replaced by a permanent obligation to sell gold exchange from the outset in any gold standard country notified in this behalf by the Government of India. It is considered that the obligation imposed on the Reserve Bank to keep stable the value of the currency will be made capable of fulfilment by this provision, while at the same time it will make it possible for a greater proportion of gold to be held in India.

The latest date recommended by the Currency Commission on which the obligation to sell gold should have effect is 1st January, 1931. The Joint Committee advanced it by six months and for the reasons given under clause 1 it has been considered necessary that power should be taken to postpone the effective operation of this section in the manner provided in that clause.

The minimum amount of gold to be purchased or sold was originally fixed at 1,065 tolas based on the fact that the weight of commercial bars in London is 400 ozs. This original figure is in both cases now reduced to 250 tolas as being a figure more suited to Indian conditions.

The Commission recommended that during the transition period the Reserve Bank should be under an obligation to sell gold or gold exchange at its option. As the Bank must concentrate on building up its gold holdings in order to be in a position to undertake the definite obligation to sell gold prescribed for a later stage, the option to sell gold during the interim period has been replaced by the immediate permanent obligation to sell gold exchange already mentioned.

Clause 40.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraphs 151 and 166 of the Commission's report

Clause 41.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 153 of the report regarding the suspension of reserve requirements.

Clause 42.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 154 of the Commission's report. But it is now made clear that the Bank is to be exempted only from the payment of stamp duty under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, in respect of the bank notes issued by it. It is not the intention to give any wider exemption.

Clause 43.—The provisions in this clause are in accordance with the recommendations in paragraph 149 of the report. The Commission recommended that the Governor General in Council should have the right to take over the assets of the Issue Department so far as they are required to meet the liability of the note or of rupee redemption. It is proposed to give the Governor General in Council the right to take over the assets not only of the Issue Department but of the Banking Department as well, as in theory such a necessity might arise if the Bank failed to keep sufficient assets in the Issue Department. A provision is also made for the carrying on of the note issue in such circumstances by some other agency determined by the Governor General in Council.

Clause 44.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 161 of the Commission's report with certain modifications. The percentages for minimum reserve balances recommended by the Commission appear somewhat high for India. It is, therefore, proposed to reduce these percentages to $7\frac{1}{2}$ and $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the demand and time liabilities, respectively.

The definition of 'Bank' or 'Banker' suggested in paragraph 162 of the Commission's report is imperfect, but it is difficult to arrive at any satisfactory definition. It is, however, considered that if the Reserve Bank is to exercise proper control over the credit system of the country, the obligation imposed by this clause must be extended as widely as possible and should fall upon every firm of any standing or importance doing banking business in British India. It is, therefore, proposed to exhibit in a Schedule attached to the Bill the banks to which the provision in this clause should apply in the first instance, all banks being included which have a paid-up capital and reserve of an aggregate value of not less than three lakhs of rupees. For the future the Governor General in Council is required to include among the scheduled banks any bank which attains the necessary standing or importance and to exclude any bank which falls short of that standard.

The method of computing of the requisite proportion of the demand and time liabilities of the banks affected, follows the provisions made for the same purpose in the Federal Reserve System of the United States of America.

As the monthly return prescribed in paragraph 161 of the report will show only the position at the close of the months to which it relates, it is necessary to provide for the receipt of the information mentioned in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

It is also necessary that provision should be made to enable the Government to take action not only on the monthly report submitted by the Bank, but also on any report received from the Board of the Reserve Bank.

The provision in paragraph 161 of the Commission's report, which requires a summary of the monthly return of each bank to be published, has been omitted as the particulars required for the purpose of this clause furnish only a partial statement of the bank's affairs and their publication might mislead the public as regards the financial position of a bank.

Clause 45.—This follows the intention of paragraph 87 of the report.

Clause 46.—This is based upon the recommendation in paragraph 100 of the Commission's report. It is considered unnecessary to build up the reserve fund as quickly as the Commission suggest and a lower rate of accumulation has, therefore, been proposed. Also the additional dividend to be given to shareholders under certain circumstances has been reduced from a maximum of 3 per cent. recommended by the Commission to one of 2 per cent.

Clause 47.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 158 of the Commission's report.

Clauses 48, 49 and 50.—These give effect to the recommendation in paragraph 156 of the report.

Clause 51.—This gives effect to the recommendation in paragraph 157 of the report.

Clause 52.—It is necessary to make provision for the contingency of the liquidation of the Bank and the distribution of the reserve fund and surplus assets, if any, of the Bank.

Clause 53.—This is based upon the recommendation in paragraph 164 of the report. The Commission proposed that the Governor General in Council should be given absolute power to make regulations. It is thought preferable that regulations should be made by the Board with the previous approval of the Governor General in Council.

Local Boards are not to be constituted on the creation of the Reserve Bank, but it is proposed to give power to the Reserve Bank Board to establish such Local Boards if considered necessary later on and to delegate to them such powers and functions as may be desirable.

Clause 54.—The obligation imposed on the Government by the Currency Act IV of 1927 to receive sovereigns and half-sovereigns from the public at their bullion value will be taken over by the Bank simultaneously with the transfer of the conduct of note issue to it.

The First Schedule.—The First Schedule in the Bill as amended by the Joint Committee has been brought up-to-date.

The Second Schedule.—The provisions contained in this Schedule involve no fresh charge on the tax-payer. They are designed to compensate the Imperial Bank of India for the agency work done for the Reserve Bank and for the loss in respect of non-paying branches.

The Third Schedule.—This gives the scale of additional dividend payable to the shareholders and is so fixed as to give a maximum of 2 per cent. in addition to the ordinary dividend of 5 per cent.

The Fourth Schedule.—This is based upon Schedule IV to the report of the Commission. The gold coin or bullion held by the Bank in the Issue Department in India is proposed to be shown separately from that held outside India.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Third and Final Forecast of the Winter Rice Crop of Bengal, 1927-28.

(NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1925-26, the area under winter rice in Bengal has represented some 18.6 per cent. of the total area under rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—In the second forecast issued in December last, the weather was already reviewed up to the end of October as having been fairly favourable in East and some North Bengal districts, while elsewhere the crop was described as bad to poor. Since then dry weather has been favourable for reaping and threshing operations of the crop.

Acreeage.—According to the estimates returned by the District Officers the total area under winter rice is 13,210,190 acres, as against the revised figure of 11,446,300 acres in the final forecast of last year or about 8.6 per cent. less than last year.

Outturn.—From the summary of the district returns appended, it will appear that only Jalpaiguri and Mymensingh report a normal crop of 100 per cent. Ten districts report a crop varying from 80 to 92 per cent. Eleven districts report a crop varying from 50 to 75 per cent. In Murshidabad, Nadia and Burdwan the percentages of the normal crop reported are only 33. In Malda the crop is as low as 16 per cent. only.

As compared with the second forecast a better crop has been harvested in seven districts in East and North Bengal, while in the districts of Burdwan, Bankura and Rajshahi the crop has deteriorated from the previous estimates. In the remaining districts there has been no change since the second forecast.

According to the estimates in question the provincial outturn works up to 78 per cent. of the normal as against 85 per cent. last year.

Accepting 78 per cent. as the provincial outturn, the gross yield of the crop, on the basis of a normal yield of 12½ maunds of clean grain per acre, is estimated at 4,731,400 tons this year as against the revised figure of 5,639,300 tons in the final forecast of last year or about 16 per cent. less than last year.

The average outturn of the district is four annas, but it is three annas and two annas, respectively, in the Sadar and Meherpur subdivisions. There was practically a total failure in the Kailganj and Tehatta police-stations and in the neighbourhood. The outturn is poor on the whole.
Murshidabad.	351,400	280,000	179,000	75	33	Middle of November. Normal.	The decrease in area as compared with the estimate in the second forecast is due to revision of estimates. The weather was unfavourable and its effects bad. The outturn is much below the normal owing to prolonged drought which caused damage.
Jessore ...	658,800	399,200	375,200	75	55	November. Normal...	The weather and its effects on cultivation and growth of the crop have not been favourable. The outturn is much below the normal owing to insufficient rain.

Bankura...	440,000	374,000	317,000	125	58	Middle of November. Normal.	The decrease in area was due to the fact that the rains began late and that at no time was there steady daily succession of showers. The crop as a consequence withered away over large areas and yielded no grain. Considerable damage was caused by drought and by a succession of insect-pests some of which appeared soon after the transplantation and others shortly before harvesting.
Midnapore	1,537,100	1,152,600	1,298,200	87	75	End of November ...	The increase in area is due to extended cultivation and the decrease compared with the estimate in the second forecast is due to revision of estimates. The weather was not favourable for want of rain in the middle of October. The outturn is much below the normal owing to the fact that the crops withered in some places. Damage caused by drought and insect-pests is about 1 anna.
Hooghly ...	352,800	197,100	135,800	98	70	End of November. Normal.	The weather was not favourable since the submission of the second forecast. Damage to the extent of 25 per cent. was done by drought and the outturn, therefore, fell below the normal.

Malda ...	304,000	198,000	60,000	42	16	End of November. Normal.	The weather was unfavourable and its effects bad. Continued drought is responsible for the poor outturn.
Dacca ...	672,400	624,500	618,500	96	87	November. Normal ...	The weather was favourable since the submission of the second forecast. The outturn is below the normal owing to drought at the time of transplantation.

Tippura ...	787,000	795,000	795,000	92	92	End of November. Normal.	The weather was favourable. The outturn was a little below the normal owing to some damage caused by water-borne insects in Brahmanbaria.
Noakhali ...	705,000	445,000	582,200	92	92	First week of November.	The weather was generally favourable. The outturn is a little below the normal owing to untimely rain.

For the week ending on the 8th February 1928.

Summary.—Excepting for scattered showers in parts of North Bengal, the week was practically rainless. Ploughing of lands for jute and other autumn crops is proceeding, but rain is needed for the operation. Harvesting of spring crops and cutting and pressing of sugarcane are progressing favourably. The standing crops are doing well except in some West and North Bengal districts where the condition continues to be reported as poor. Distress continues to prevail in parts of Bankura, Dinajpur, Birbhum, Nadia, Murshidabad and Malda. In the latter three districts the number of persons employed on test relief works was 564, 14,279 and 2,432, respectively. The average price of common rice for the province has remained practically the same as compared with that of the previous week.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Minister-in-charge : The Hon'ble Sir P. C. Mitter, Kt., C.I.E.

No. 437.M.—The 13th February 1928.—The following draft rules, which have been framed by the Commissioners of the Nabadwip Municipality in the district of Nadia, under sections 237 (2) and 241 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), and which the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) propose to sanction under clause (2) of section 241, are published for the information of persons affected thereby.

2. The draft rules will be taken into consideration on the 10th April 1928, and any objection or suggestion received by the undersigned through the Magistrate before that date will be duly considered :—

Rules framed under sections 237 (2) and 241 (1) of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, for regulating the erection and re-erection of houses within the limits of the area of the Municipality of Nabadwip.

1. In these rules the term "house" has the same meaning as in clause (4) of section 6 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), except that it does not include a hut.

2. Every person who intends to erect or re-erect a house shall forward to the Chairman, with the notice required by section 237 (1) of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, the following information :—

- (a) the position of the site,
- (b) the circle and number of the site assigned to it in the assessment book,
- (c) a plan of the site in duplicate drawn to a scale of not less than 50 feet to an inch showing its boundaries and position in relation to neighbouring roads, drains, tanks and buildings,

- (d) drawings on scale of not less than 8 feet to an inch, showing a ground plan, two sections and elevation of the proposed building. All proposed drains, privies and cesspools must also be shown on the drawings,
- (e) a description of the materials and method of construction to be used for the external and party walls, roofs and floors of the buildings, privies, drains and cesspools in the house.

N.B.—The notice and the plan must be submitted on superior quality of paper of foolscap size.

3. The plans referred to in rule 2 must be signed clearly and in a prominent place by the owner of the building, or if he is an illiterate man, by any other person authorized by him to sign in his behalf, in which case they must be marked with the owner's thumb impression.

4. The plan of every house shall show—

- (a) the level of the foundation which, in case of a single-storied house, shall not be less than two feet, and in case of a double-storied less than four feet below the level of the ground,
- (b) the level of the lowest floor which shall not be less than 18 inches above the level of the ground, and
- (c) the thickness of the external and party walls.

5. Every house shall have a courtyard or open space of at least 8' × 12' exclusive of the spaces to be provided under rules 6 and 7, provided that the Commissioners at a meeting may exempt any house from the operation of this rule on special grounds.

6. At least three feet of free passage or way shall be kept in front of every house which is on the alignment of any public road, provided the Commissioners at a meeting may exempt any house from the operation of this rule when it is to be erected or re-erected on land measuring less than two cottahs.

7. Every house erected or re-erected shall have a clear space of at least two feet on all sides for free passage and ventilation, provided that the Commissioners at a meeting may exempt any house from the operation of this rule on special grounds.

8. (1) No privy shall be placed in the space required by this Act to be left at the back of a building—

- (a) unless the total height of the privy does not exceed eleven feet, and
- (b) unless there is a space of at least four feet between the nearest wall and the service aperture of the privy.

(2) No privy situated in, or adjacent to, a building shall be placed at a distance of less than—

- (a) six feet from any other building which is a public building, or
- (b) four feet from any other building which is, or is likely to be, used as a dwelling place, or as a place in which any person is, or is intended to be, employed in any manufacture, trade or business, provided the Commissioners at a meeting may exempt any privy from the operation of this rule when it is to be erected or re-erected on land measuring less than two cottahs,
- (c) six feet from any public drain or road.

9. No privy shall be placed on any upper floor of a building.

10. Models and type-plans of privies and urinals, approved by the Commissioners, with estimates of the cost of constructing privies and urinals in accordance therewith, shall be kept in the Municipal Office, and shall be open to inspection by any person at all reasonable times without charge, but no person shall be bound to construct any privy or urinal in accordance with any such model or type-plan if the same be constructed in accordance with the other rules contained herein.

11. (1) A drain must be provided for every privy and every urinal.

(2) Such drain must be constructed of some impervious material and must connect the floor of the privy or urinal—

- (a) with a drain communicating with a municipal drain or sewer, or
- (b) if permitted by the Commissioners, with an impervious cesspool, the contents of which can be removed either by hand or by flow, after filtration.

12. (1) The floor of every privy and urinal—

- (a) must, if the Commissioners in any case so direct, be made of one of the following materials to be selected by the owner of the privy or urinal, that is to say, glazed tiles, artificial stone or cement, or
- (b) if no such direction is given, must be made of thoroughly well-burnt earthen tiles or bricks plastered (and not merely pointed) with cement, and
- (c) must be in every part at a height of not less than six inches above the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the privy or urinal.

(2) The floor of every privy and every urinal must have a fall or inclination of at least half-an-inch to the foot either towards the drain prescribed by rule 11, and the platform must be similarly sloped towards the aperture.

13. The walls and the roof (if any) of every privy and urinal shall be made of such materials as may be approved by the Commissioners :

Provided that in the case of privies, the entire surface of the walls below the platform shall either be rendered in cement or be made as prescribed in clause (a) or clause (b) of rule 12.

14. The platform of every privy or urinal must either be plastered with cement or be made of some water-tight non-absorbent material as prescribed in rule 12.

15. Every privy or urinal situated in, or adjacent to, a building must have an opening of not less than three square feet in area in one of the walls of the privy or urinal as near the top of the wall as may be practicable and communicating directly with the open air.

16. Every privy must be constructed in accordance with the following provisions :—

- (a) the platform must be provided with two apertures so arranged that solid and liquid excreta can fall into separate receptacles placed underneath, as provided in the following paragraph ;
- (b) the space beneath the platform of the privy must be of such dimensions as to admit of two moveable receptacles for solid and liquid excreta, each of a capacity not exceeding one cubic foot, being placed and fitted beneath the platform in such manner and position as will effectually prevent the deposit otherwise than in such receptacles of any sewage falling or thrown through the apertures of the platform ;
- (c) the privy must be so constructed as to afford adequate access to the said space for the purposes of cleansing such space and of placing therein and removing therefrom proper receptacles for sewage ;
- (d) the said receptacles must be water-tight, and must be made of metal if their capacity is over half a cubic foot, or of well-tarred earthenware or glazed stoneware if their capacity is less than half a cubic foot ;
- (e) the door for the insertion and removal of the receptacles must be made so as to completely cover the aperture.

Final Report on the Cotton Crops of Bengal, 1927-28.

(NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1925-26, the area under the cotton crops in Bengal has represented some 0.3 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.)

There are two crops—early and late. The “early” crop is chiefly grown in the Chittagong Hill Tracts and in the Tripura State and, to a small extent, also in other districts. The “late” crop is chiefly grown in Bankura and Midnapore.

Character of the season.—Since the issue of the third forecast in December last, the weather was generally fair but for drought which has affected the late crop.

Acreage.—The total area sown with early cotton is returned at 76,863 acres and that with the late crop at 903 acres (revised) as against 75,228 acres and 1,403 acres respectively in the final report of last year.

Outturn.—The outturn of the early crop is estimated at 19,784 bales and that of the late crop at 125 bales (revised) as against 25,048 bales and 320 bales, respectively, in the corresponding report of the last year.

CALCUTTA, the 17th February 1928.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Bengal for January 1928.

I. Character of the season.—The weather continued dry till the third week of the month, since when there have been occasional light and scattered showers. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Harvesting of winter paddy was over; threshing was in full swing. Transplantation of summer paddy seedlings continued, but the progress of the operation was not satisfactory for lack of rain. Harvesting of early spring crops and cutting and pressing of sugarcane continued under favourable conditions. Preparatory tillage for jute and other autumn crops was proceeding slowly owing to drought.

III. State of standing crops.—The condition of standing crops was generally fair except in parts of West and North Bengal where it was poor owing to prolonged drought.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The outturn of sugarcane was estimated at 83 per cent. of the normal. A fair harvest of the spring crops is anticipated. The prospects of the late spring crops have improved a little in the affected districts by the light rainfall during the latter part of the month.

V. Damage to standing crops.—The standing rabi crops suffered from drought, especially in some West and North Bengal districts.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of live-stock was, on the whole, fair. Stray cases of cattle-disease, were, however, reported from fifteen districts.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—Insufficiency of fodder was reported from parts of Nadia, Murshidabad and Burdwan.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second half of the month the price of common rice of the cheapest quality rose in eleven districts, fell in four and remained stationary in the rest of the Presidency. The prices ranged from 4 seers 14 chitaks per rupee in Rangpur to 7 seers per rupee in the Chittagong Hill Tracts.

IX. Condition of agricultural population.—The condition of the agricultural population was, on the whole, fair except in parts of Nadia, Murshidabad, Burdwan, Birbhum, Bankura, Dinajpur and Malda, where distress continued to prevail owing to a partial failure of the winter rice crop. Test relief works continued in parts of Nadia, Murshidabad, Birbhum and Malda.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 15th February 1928.

Summary.—During the week the weather continued practically dry excepting for light and scattered showers in some North Bengal districts. Preparatory tillage for jute and other autumn crops is proceeding slowly. Harvesting of spring crops and cutting and pressing of sugarcane continue under favourable conditions. Prospects of standing crops are generally fair except in some West and North Bengal districts where the condition continues to be reported as poor. Distress continues to prevail in parts of Bankura, Dinajpur, Nadia, Murshidabad, Birbhum and Malda. In the latter four districts the number of persons employed on test relief works was 480, 13,031, 21, and 1,118 respectively. The average price of common rice for the province has fallen by about 0·13 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

J. C. MUKERJEA, Chief Executive Officer.

CENTRAL MUNICIPAL OFFICE, the 15th February 1928.

CORPORATION OF CALCUTTA.NOTIFICATION.

THE following amendments in the Pension Rules of the Calcutta Corporation and the revised rules regulating the commutation of pensions made by the Corporation of Calcutta and sanctioned by the Government of Bengal under section 485 of the Calcutta, Municipal Act, 1923, in their letter No. 223M, dated the 24th January 1928, are hereby published for general information in compliance with the provisions of section 486 of the said Act :—

A.—Amendments in the Pension Rules.

(1) Against the rates of "maximum amount payable" under "A" scale in rule 17 put a bracket and by the side of the bracket add the words, "in addition to the additional gratuity payable under rule 26-A".

(2) Insert the following as Rule 26-A :—

"26-A. Any Municipal officer or servant who is eligible to pension under "A" scale (rule 17) shall, on retirement or discharge, receive, in addition to the pension, an additional gratuity at the rate of half a month's pay at the time of retirement or discharge for each completed year of service rendered by him, subject to a maximum of fifteen months' pay."

(3) Substitute the following for rule 27 :—

"Rule 27. In case of an officer or servant who is a contributor under these rules shall die while in the municipal service after he shall have completed five years' service a compassionate allowance equivalent to half a month's pay drawn at the time of death, for every completed year of service up to a limit of fifteen months' pay shall be paid to or for the benefit of such member or members of his family as the Chief Executive Officer may decide.

Provided that nothing in this or any of the foregoing rules contained shall be deemed to preclude the Corporation in their absolute discretion from granting a compassionate allowance to any officer or servant (whether eligible or ineligible to contribute, and whether he has contributed or not) who may have been permanently disabled or seriously injured in or during the discharge of his duties, or to the widow and children, or in case he shall have left no widow or children to the parents, brothers and sisters, of any such officer or servant who may have been killed in the discharge of his duties, and in a case where a servant is in receipt of a pay of less than Rs. 25 per mensem who may have become unfit for further discharge of his duties from natural or other causes or may have become disabled in the service of the Municipality."

These amendments apply to all retirements with effect from 1st April 1924.

B.—Revised rules regulating the commutation of pensions.

In supersession of the rules regulating the commutation of pensions sanctioned by the Government of Bengal in notification No. 2046M., dated the 27th August 1915, the following new rules are sanctioned from 1st April 1924.

1. Any Corporation servant who is entitled to pension may be granted, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, to commute for a lump payment any portion, not exceeding one-half of any pension which has been or may be granted to him under the rules framed by the Corporation in that behalf. But any such commutation shall be subject to the condition :—

That the residue of the pension after commutation shall be sufficient in the opinion of the sanctioning authority to maintain the pensioner in the status in life to which he has been accustomed and shall in no case be less than Rs. 15 per month.

Provided that the Corporation may at its discretion relax or waive this condition in the case of a pension granted under the Invalid Pension Rules.

NOTE.—If a commutation of less than half has already been sanctioned under these or the old Rules, further commutation may be allowed for the balance up to half the pension.

2. All applications for commutation must be made to the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation in Form A appended to these rules setting forth the grounds and purposes of such application.

3. No commutation shall be sanctioned until the pensioner has produced a certificate from the Health Officer of the Corporation to the effect that his bodily health and prospects of duration of life are such as to justify commutation. It will be open to the Chief Executive Officer to require the applicant to produce such further or other medical certificates as he may consider necessary.

4. The certifying medical officer shall subject the applicant to a strict medical examination requiring him to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to insure their lives with Insurance Companies and will report in the following form :—

“ I have examined and am of opinion that he ^{is}_{is not} of good bodily health and ^{has}_{has not} the prospect of an average duration of life. I therefore ^{do}_{do not} recommend compliance with his application to capitalize a portion of his pension.”

5. In the case of a pensioner who has an impaired life, the Health Officer shall submit a report as to the age upon which the commutation should be calculated so as to allow for the probable decrease in his expectation of life, and the Corporation, on the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer, may, then, at their discretion, sanction the commutation, the sum payable being computed on the basis of the age at which his life has been so estimated by the Health Officer.

6. The lump sum payable on commutation shall be certified by the Chief Accountant according to the table of present values shown in Appendix X of the Civil Service Regulations. For the purpose of this rule, the age of the pensioner shall be assumed to be such age, not being less than his actual age, as the certifying medical authority may direct.

7. When commutation has been sanctioned the pensioner shall be informed accordingly, but he shall have the option of withdrawing his application within one week after being so informed. If he does not withdraw his application within that period, the commutation of pension shall become absolute, and payment of the lump sum shall be made forthwith, payment of the commuted portion of the pension thereupon ceasing.

8. If, when the commutation of a portion of a pension has been sanctioned the pensioner dies on or after the date from which commutation is to take effect, but before receiving the commutation value, this value shall be paid to his heirs.
